September 12, 2016,

Dear Lectors,

Hopefully you had the opportunity to relax and recreate this summer. The schedule for the period from September 11, 2016 through November 27, 2016 is now ready for downloading. You will notice some new names as we welcome new lectors who were trained this summer. Some names are missing as they were students who graduated high school and are now away at college. Please keep them in your prayers.

If you have provided an email address, hopefully you received your schedule directly. If you would like to add your email, please either fill in the spreadsheet in the lector sign in book in the sacristy or contact the parish office. When reviewing the schedule, please also look to see that your contact phone number is correct. If it needs to be changed, please let us know. Many of you have asked to have the email contacts to assist in finding substitutes. I'm working on updating the current file and will email that upon request.

Thanks once again to Anne Albertus for working to put the weekend schedule together. It won't be long before the winter schedule is being put together. Please get your dates that you are not available to Anne as soon as you are able so we can get the schedule out in a timely manner. And remember, if you cannot lector on a given date, please find a substitute and also let the parish office know that you are making a change.

The parish is very busy this fall with many activities, speakers, programs, and events. Hopefully many of you will be able to stop by the Parish Picnic on Sunday, September 18th. See this past week's bulletin for information on FORMED, and online site that offers movies and study programs to enrich your faith life from the comfort of your home. Also, watch for details on Called & Gifted, which will be offered on November 11-12 here at St. Andrew.

Finally, it's not too early to begin thinking about Christmas Masses. We are planning on adding Masses on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. We are still working out details for the final Christmas and will let you know as soon as possible. A sign-up sheet will be placed in the Sacristy for you to fill in once the times are confirmed.

In Peace,

Nikki Zakrzewski
