Dear Lectors/Readers,

Your schedule for the period from June 3, 2017, through August 27, 2017, is now available. Please note your scheduled dates and put them on your calendar. Remember that it is your responsibility to arrange for a substitute if you are unable for your assigned date. Please note that on the schedule there are individuals listed who are willing to substitute. If you do not already have the lector emails, I can provide those to you as well to assist in finding a substitute. Additionally if you do switch with someone, please contact the parish office so that the accurate information can be in the bulletin and the weekend binder.

Summer officially begins in June, just as a reminder, while summer is often a time where we relax and are more casual, please don't forget your role in proclaiming the Word of God and dressing appropriately for the occasion. I'm sure I don't have to remind you.

August 15 is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of obligation. Lectors/Readers will be needed for the 12:15pm Mass and the 7:30pm Mass. If you are available and would like to sign up for one of the Masses, please let Nikki know.

Some of you have asked about resources for preparing for the weekend. As you know, preparing in advance ensures that you are truly proclaiming the Word and not just reading the Word. A couple of websites which may be helpful to you are www.usccb.org and liturgy@slu.edu. Also, the Lector Workbook is available in the Sacristy. If you would like some background on the readings or help with pronunciation, the book is available for your use prior to mass.

Finally, I would like to congratulate Sarah Brady who graduated from High School this year. We thank her for her dedication to this Ministry, wish her well in college, and as always invite her continued participation in the liturgy when she is available.

Thanks to all of you for your continuing dedication to the ministry of Lector/Reader; it is truly appreciated.

God Bless You
