On The Christmas Journey Into the New Year

+As we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, we hear the familiar story of the Magi. The Magi helped to make known God's presence in the world in a particular way. They are the first visible and tangible recipients of the mystery of which Saint Paul speaks. A mystery now revealed...by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel.

We are often so enamored by this familiar story of expectation, wonder, joy and faithful homage that we may forget something essential to the importance of the story: the Magi were not Jewish. They were Gentiles. They were not children of Abraham, people of the Covenant, or Israelites. They were "foreigners," most likely Persian, whose religious affiliation and actual occupation have not yet been settled by biblical scholarship.

Yet, they knew about Jesus. They knew about the coming of the Messiah. And they had the fearlessness to approach the Roman-appointed King of Judea – that is, Herod, then the current "king of the Jews," and ask him: Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do Him homage. Asking such a question – essentially implying Herod's successor and perhaps even deposer – could have been inferred as a threat, if not outright treason. But that did not deter the Magi in their quest.

Their journey in faith, and their strength in following God's prompts and witnessing to his faithfulness, is a model for our own discipleship. With one exception: God is already made manifest to us – we do not have to seek Him out; He seeks us out. And when we respond to his call, there are things we can count on – as if they were a star in the sky – to help us make our way to Him: his word; his sacraments; his grace; and the gifts He has given us that we might in turn offer back to Him. We are not alone in this endeavor.

As the Magi were a community of support for each other, so we, too, gather in our St. Andrew parish family as a community of support and belief. We gather in many different ways because we have heard about the coming of the Messiah and we wish to offer our gifts to Him. Gifts that will be returned to us in the gift of Christ's Body and Blood, making his presence just as substantially real to us as He was to the Magi. What a powerful, mysterious gift that transcends time!

May this and every encounter with Christ empower us and direct us to go forth and witness to the faithfulness of God's promises, and his enduring presence within and among us!

+Please be attentive to the parish calendar and schedules as we move back into more of the regular routine of activities. I encourage you to use the parish website and bulletin to try to "stay on track" to the busyness of our large parish and school communities!

+Again, special thanks to all those who helped in any way over the holidays, and to those who served in welcoming capacities to the many visitors that we always host in their return "home" to visit with family and close friends! My prayerful gratitude to EVERYONE for their generosity this Christmas season – your donations are "not taxed" and remain in our parish for use in our ministries and activities, including some being directed to refurbishment and construction around the campus!

As I mentioned last weekend in my article, may you and your families be blessed not just now, but throughout the coming year. I thank you for your kind and generous remembrances to me as your pastor; I am truly blessed! And may we all realize how truly blessed we are, and show our gratefulness to the Lord by the way in which we live our lives .....as joyful missionary disciples! See you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

Stewardship Thoughts

Today's Gospel from St. Matthew narrates the story of the Magi who visit the Christ-child, the newborn King. So overwhelmed during their initial encounter, they adore Jesus by prostrating themselves, face down, then offer Him gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These gifts prefigure Christ's royalty, divinity, and suffering. The Scripture readings from Isaiah and St. Paul further express how the Good News of salvation is to be professed to all people. Do we, as Christian stewards, follow the example the Magi set in offering adoration, praise, and glory to God? Do we gratefully honor Him by living the Good News, making Him personal in our lives, and then spreading His joy, peace, and message of salvation to everyone we meet? To deepen your life in Christ, attend Alpha or a similar evangelization event at your parish

CHRISTIAN SERVICE & OUTREACH

Volunteers Needed at Hope Homeless Center Jan. 14-19

The Hope Homeless Center on 248 Baldwin Road in Pontiac, has sheltered the poor from the cold for the past 16 yrs. St. Andrew Parishioners have supported this effort from the beginning. You can help in two ways. First, Food donors are needed to supply rolls, vegetables trays, and paper products. Adults workers are needed for the kitchen prep/serving/cleanup & guest check-in beginning at 6:30 PM. We are done by 9:30 PM. This is a great opportunity for us to get out of our comfort zone and help others who are struggling. We need about seven people each night. Volunteer spots fill up quickly, so call Joe Soncrant at 248-651-9562 to donate food/paper products OR to schedule the day you are able to volunteer to work Jan. 16, 17 or 19, 2019.

Thank you Notes from some of the many recipients of our Giving Tree Outreach and the regular St. Andrew Parish Tithe program to charities and missions are on the announcement boards at the church entrances. Take a moment to read how you helped those in crisis during Christmas time.

55 Plus Fellowship Gatherings begin on Jan. 16 (Wed.)

Start the New Year off with some fun among those who are over 55 years old. The 55 Plus Fellowship is gathering on Wed., Jan. 16 at 12 PM, in the Multi-Purpose Room (behind the school). Lunch begins at 12:30, with BINGO following. Bring a new $10 wrapped prize to swap at BINGO. Pay $6. at the door, for a delicious lunch. This is a very popular event, so mark your calendars!

We are happy to announce that Gary & Nancy Greve have enthusiastically agreed to be the new Co-Chairs (President) for the 55 Plus Fellowship beginning in 2019, for a two year term (God willing). Let's keep them in our prayers as Bob Krueger passes his gavel to the new additions to your Board of Officers.

Have a Happy & Healthy New Year!

National Migration Week Jan. 6-12

For nearly a half century, the Catholic Church in the United States has celebrated National Migration Week, which is an opportunity for the Church to reflect on the circumstances confronting migrants, including immigrants, refugees, children, and victims and survivors of human trafficking. The theme for National Migration Week 2019, "Building Communities of Welcome" draws attention to the fact that each of our families have a migration story, some recent and others in the distant past. Regardless of where we are and where we came from, we remain part of the human family and are called to live in solidarity with one another.

During this National Migration Week let us all take the opportunity to engage migrants as community members, neighbors, and friends.

Needle-work Ministry Invite

Have you considered joining a group that gathers Saturday mornings at 10 AM, in the Parish Center to knit and/or crochet items that benefit various charities? Some charities are: Beaumont Neonatal Intensive Care, The Christ Child Society, Haven, and Oakland Outreach Center.

If you don't know how to knit or crochet, we have supplies, patterns and someone ready to help you! Questions, call: Nancy at 248-303-2613.

Epiphany Home Blessing on January 6, 2019

From the east come the Magi to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh as a symbol of His burial. The blessing of the home, and the inscription of the initials of the three Magi at each entrance door, is an old Epiphany custom that is still practiced by some today. Using specially blessed chalk, many families mark above the entrance door of their homes with the year and with the inscription CMB, the initials of the traditional names of the Magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar (example: 20+C+M+B+19). The inscription really stands for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for "Christ, bless this house."

Use the chalk to write above the entrance to your home:

20 + C + M + B + 19

As you are writing pray the following:

O Lord, God Almighty, we ask Your blessing on this home and all who dwell within. Grant that if it be Your will, we may enjoy physical and mental health and Your spiritual protection. May all who visit our home this year rejoice to find You dwelling among us. May we seek to serve You forever and ever, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Chalk is available at the Information Center and at the exits.

Teaching Mass

Wednesday, January 23, 2019 7:00-8:30pm in Church

Fr. Dave Buersmeyer Pastor, St. Regis

Join us as Fr. Buersmeyer leads us in the celebration of the Eucharist and explains the parts of the Mass. All are welcome!

Save the Date

St. Andrew Parish will celebrate the Wedding Anniversary Mass on Saturday, February 16th, 2019 at the 5:00PM Liturgy. We will honor and recognize those who are celebrating an anniversary of 5, 10, 15, 20 years and up in 5 year increments through 50 years and then every year from 50 and up. The Mass will include a blessing and a renewal of vows. A simple reception will follow in the Activities Building. Kindly RSVP by January 27th.

New year greetings! I hope your Christmas season was peaceful, merry and bright! May the year ahead bring much happiness.

The new year will get off to a better start for refugees in our area who are being helped by the Compass Project, an organization started by four Adams High School students to aid refugee families. The clothing, school supplies and monetary donations collected will be distributed to help families reestablish themselves. Pictured here is just a sample of the items brought in. We also collected over $275!

We thank all our students and families who contributed to this project, and we hope it made Advent and Christmas more meaningful for all.

Blessings in the new year,

The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing.

To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable and we are sorry.

In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information - already available on aod.org - more visible, transparent and clear.
