On The Journey

+Looking back at our life, we may recognize a particular person or specific experience that caused us to make a significant change or to go in a different direction than we would have otherwise. Hopefully, the change was good; hopefully it caused us to think bigger, do better things, use our talents in ways that we didn't imagine possible. This is what happens in today's readings. Isaiah is called by God to be his prophet. In the beginning, however, Isaiah does not feel worthy to be in God's presence, saying I am doomed! But by the end of the reading, Isaiah is ready; Here I am, he says, send me.

It is a similar experience for Simon in today's Gospel. In the beginning, Simon and his companions are getting out of their boats and washing their nets, finished for the night. Yet by the end, everything has changed. The same fishermen have abandoned their boats, left everything and followed Jesus. What a turnaround!

It is interesting to note how this happened. It doesn't start with Jesus asking Simon to follow Him. Rather, Jesus begins with something basic, something that Peter can do with relative ease: Put out a short distance. Now this may be inconvenient, especially since Simon has been fishing all night, is probably tired and has just finished. But it is doable. Simon takes the first step – he gets back in the boat, puts out a short distance, and in the process is able to hear the Master speak and teach.

Jesus has a second step: Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch. Now this is getting much more inconvenient. One can imagine Simon's thoughts, "I really didn't want to come out here at all, but I agreed to a short distance. Now you want me to go into deep water?"

Master, Simon says, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing. Nevertheless, he agrees, and they catch so many fish that the nets are tearing. Simon is astonished. By the time they return to shore, the men who had been finishing their work are now beginning new work. They leave everything and follow Jesus.

This encounter applies to our lives as well. Jesus doesn't necessarily ask us to leave everything right away. Sometimes He comes to us in ways that we can accept, bit by bit. Go just a little further. OK, we do. Then, like Simon on the boat, we hear something new, something different.

Go a little further. "I'm not so sure Lord, I've tried that so many times before. But at your command, I will."

Welcome ...

If you have been attending Mass at St. Andrew and would like to become a member, please visit the Parish Office where you can register and discover all the wonderful ways to grow in faith through Christian Service and Outreach, Faith Formation and Youth Ministry, Parish Life, Stewardship and Worship. For more information call 248.651.7486. ¡Bienvenido!

And this time things are different, because the work is not our own, but the Lord's. We have worked, we have worked hard, and have caught nothing. Our efforts, alone, are insufficient. But at the command of the Lord, at the Lord's initiative, with his presence, or work is productive, fruitful, overflowing. Paul says in the second reading that he has toiled harder than any, but he clarifies: not I however, but the grace of God that is with me.

Jesus will meet us where we are. Little by little, He will invite us to take the next step toward becoming faithful disciples. Our efforts without Him will fail. We may work hard, but our "catch" will be minimal to nothing. With the Lord, however, saying yes little by little, our lives will change. Our efforts will bear fruit. Our "catch" will be overflowing!

I pray that we all work toward becoming the joyful band of missionary disciples that we have been called to be!

+Can't help but think how appropriate these readings lead us into considering how you can be moving that "little by little" toward the Lord by attending the Alpha and NextsteP offerings that we have been having at St. Andrew. I hope you reflect on your desire to strengthen and deepen your faith by taking advantage of these wonderful opportunities in the future. The work in these areas definitely helps us grow and work toward Unleashing the Gospel in our communities of the Archdiocese!

+Well, we are back to some more "normal" winter weather, but still, last week's roller coaster ride was truly unusual, wasn't it? Not much progress was made on construction, but I give the contractors credit for trying to work whenever they could. Please remember to wipe your feet when coming into the church building (especially from the north/rectory side) because of all the dirt/mud in the lots.

+This coming week is filled with "celebrations of love." Thursday is Valentines' Day – so may you all have a happy one (not too much chocolate now!). Then on Saturday at the 5 p.m. mass, we honor those couples celebrating what I refer to as "benchmark" wedding anniversaries. We congratulate all of you for the witness you have given to the community for your faithfulness and love for one another over the many years! There will be a little reception after mass for those celebrating as a way of the parish community honoring you. God bless you all!

+I will be leaving for Florida this Sunday afternoon for the next two weeks, returning on Friday, February 22. Please be welcoming to our substitutes who will help with filling in for liturgies. Please keep us in prayer, as you will be in mine! I look forward to seeing you next in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from

Evangelization

Mercy Nights throughout the Archdiocese are helping our faithful and friends they invite who may not attend Mass regularly to experience Christ in a less formal setting. Like the "Come, Encounter Christ!" events, Mercy Nights feature scripture and the presence of Jesus through adoration, reconciliation and music. This program of the archdiocesan Office of Evangelization began last month, on various Friday evenings throughout the Archdiocese. Two Mercy Nights remain: at St. Thecla Parish in Clinton Township on February 15, and a Spanish version at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Detroit on February 22. Each begins at 7 pm.

Your CSA gifts support the Evangelization Office's work of helping people encounter God in a new way, such as through Mercy Nights and Kerygma Nights. For information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, go to aod.org

33 Days to Morning Glory Consecration

Those who have been participating in the 33 Days to Morning Glory are reminded that the consecration date is Monday, February 11. There are two opportunities on that day to make the consecration. You may come to daily mass at 8:15am and it will be made at the end of Mass or you may come at 7:00pm in the evening for a short prayer service and make the consecration. So whether you have participated in the morning or evening session or you have been reading on your own and using Formed, please choose one of the two opportunities on February 11 for consecration to Jesus through Mary.

Our Lady of Lourdes is a Roman Catholic title of the Blessed Virgin Mary venerated in honor of the apparitions that occurred in 1858 in the vicinity of Lourdes, France. The first of these is the apparition of 11 February 1858, when 14-year old Bernadette Soubirous told her mother that a "lady" spoke to her in the cave of Massabielle while she was gathering firewood with her sister and a friend. Similar apparitions of the "Lady" by Bernadette were reported on seventeen occasions that year, until the revelation of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception took place. The feast day is February 11, which Pope St. John Paul II declared the World Day of the Sick.

A World Marriage Day Prayer

Father, as we prepare for WMD, we thank you for your tremendous gift of the Sacrament of Marriage. Help us to witness to its glory by a life of growing intimacy. Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more One in Heart, Mind and Body. Strengthen our dialogue and help us become living signs of your love. Make us grow more in love with the Church so we may renew the Body of Christ. Make us a sign of unity in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother.

Amen.

- Fr. Bill Dilgen, S.M.M.

Remembering Who God Loves

"God loves you." You've heard this throughout your life. But what about the bully who picked on you yesterday? Or the girl that taunts others by flaunting her body? Or the family member who you can't stand? Does God love them? Then why can't we?

If you're dating someone and that person really likes the movie The Sandlot, you're going to at least try to like it. Being a disciple of Christ means loving what God loves. God created each of us in his own image because he loves all of us (Genesis 1:27). He gave us the freedom to love or not to love.

How can God love the family member who has brought so much pain into my life? The fact is that God does love that family member. The question we need to ask is "How can I love this person who brought so much pain in my life more?" That's what Christianity is all about, loving those who hurt us the most. Christ was begging God the Father to forgive the men who were spitting on him at his crucifixion.

Loving those who hurt us isn't easy, but God is asking us, pleading with us, to love them anyway. The way to love is to focus on the positives rather than the negatives. Trust me, it can change your life if you let it.

What's Happening with the Knights of Columbus

Spring is just around the corner and that marks the beginning of our Lenten Fish Fry. Beginning on Friday (March 8th) and every Friday thru Easter we will be serving at the Rochester Community House from 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. We have made several improvements this year thanks in part to the updates that the City of Rochester has approved at the Community House. The food is always great and reasonably priced for the entire family. All proceeds go right back to those in need in the area and also helps to fund our scholarship program.

We are also now on Facebook! Please look for us as "Knights Columbus" or "Knights of Columbus Rochester". Send us a Friend Request so we can help to stay connected. This is a great way to see how we support the community and get to know the families who make up our group.

As also mentioned, we offer Scholarship opportunities to the family members of our council Knights. These are available to students from all grades including College who are enrolled in Catholic education. For more details please contact your parish representative or email "kofc5452@gmail.com"

Growing in Faith

Theology of Marriage and the Annulment Process

Wednesday, February 13, 2019 7:00-9:00pm
In the Multi-purpose Room

Fr. Jerry Slowinski
Pastor, St. Paul of Tarsus

What is the Church's understanding of the Sacrament of Marriage?

What is an Annulment? Can anyone get one?

What is the process?

These and other questions will be answered during this evening.

Did you know that the Baptism gowns and stoles provided to all of our children being baptized at St. Andrew are sewn and painted by volunteers dedicated to the ministry of making these special garments?

Each garment is prayed over as they are created with the love of welcoming a new member to our Faith Family.

We are looking for a few people to join this ministry as sewers. If you are interested in joining this very special group of talented people please contact Gayle at our Parish Office. We are planning to meet on Saturday, February 23 at 10:00AM in the Parish Office conference room to answer questions.
