On The Lenten Journey

+Today's readings remind us that we have a loving God who supplies all our needs but also gives us the awesome gift of free will. He knows our weaknesses, and is always ready to receive us with forgiveness and mercy — when we turn to Him with trust, repentance and humility.

The first reading in particular is a reminder that God provides for us. For years while the Israelites were in the desert, God had provided manna, which miraculously showed up in the desert so the people could keep up their strength during their journey. But once they arrived in the land that had been promised to them, and had access to the fruits of the land, God ceased the necessity of providing the extraordinary gift of manna and allowed the people of Israel to be nurtured through their free cooperation with nature and the natural order of crops.

Similarly, Jesus shows us how God – through the character of the father in the parable of the prodigal son – takes care of us without forcing himself on us or preventing our turning away from Him. The father honors the unreasonable request of his younger son (who by Jewish law has no claim on any inheritance) and divides his estate between the two sons. He doesn't prevent the younger son from leaving home to live a life of sin in a foreign country, but gives him the freedom to make mistakes.

He doesn't chase after his son or send out detectives to find him and bring him back – but lets the son use his free will to embark on the path he has chosen. Once the son realizes his mistake and comes back home, however, the father meets him more than halfway and welcomes him whole-heartedly without judgment or reproach.

God works the same way with us. He provides for us, but He does not force us into a relationship with Him. By his grace we are invited; by our free will and his grace do we respond. Again, what an awesome gift this "free will" is in our lives!

During Lent, we are invited in a special way to turn back to God in whatever way may be necessary – to take the first step of reconciliation with God and with others. God waits for us patiently in the sacrament of reconciliation, and is ready to absolve us and make us "new creations" as we confess our sins and ask for God's forgiveness and strength. Let us pray and encourage one another in a special way to live out God's call to us in Lent: to provide "manna" for one another and to turn back to God with all our hearts, minds and souls.

We Remember

Fr. Eugene Strain

Pastor of St Andrew from 1978-1989. During Fr. Strain's time here, the Activities Building was constructed, the Bell Tower was erected, and the Jubilee Chapel was built.

Fr. Strain was here to celebrate St Andrew Parish's 70th and 75th Anniversaries, begin the RCIA program, as well as beginning our tithing program to local and world-wide organizations and charities.

Then we can go forward throughout the entire year, Unleashing the Gospel in our thoughts, words and deeds to all who we meet on our journey!

+It was so great to see so many parishioners and guests attend our parish mission this past week with Friar Johnpaul Cafiero! In his straight-forward and direct, engaging and at times light-hearted approach, I pray you came to a deeper faith and understanding of God's great love for each and every one of us. And this love, this faith, this relationship will hopefully bring us to reach out to our brothers and sisters to build up a community of love and service to one another, and especially to those who are often seen as "the least among us." May the flame of God's love not die out, but be kept burning brightly in all we say and do!

Let me thank everyone who helped in so many different ways with making the mission "happen" – from the readers and ushers and ministers; the choir and hospitality greeters and servers. In a special way, I want to acknowledge Nikki Zakrzewski for her arranging for Friar Johnpaul to come to St. Andrew and handling the overall coordination of the mission, and to Stephan Pawl for his leadership in the music area. God bless everyone for their help!

+Saturday of this weekend, we celebrated the Mass of the Resurrection at St. Mary of the Hills for one of our former pastors, Fr. Eugene Strain, who died last Saturday, March 23, at Bellbrook. Fr. Strain was pastor of St. Andrew from 1978 until July 1, 1989, when he was appointed founding pastor of St. Mary of the Hills parish. This parish was founded to help serve the faith needs of the growing area of Rochester and Rochester Hills. Fr. Gene also helped in the difficult transition year of 2011/2012 as an administrator back here at St. Andrew. We pray for his soul and thank the good Lord for all Fr. Strain did to help shepherd this community of faith over the years!

Further, one of the seminarians for the Archdiocese of Detroit died last Saturday also. Mr. Emilian Ukaj, a third year college student passed away unexpectedly at age 24 while playing soccer. Emilian was from St. Paul Albanian Parish in Rochester Hills. Then, I was honored to lead my family in celebrating the funeral liturgy last Saturday for my first cousin John Mieszczak, who passed away on March 18th. John was 75 and struggling just recently with various health issues, many complicated by diabetes. And with the funeral liturgies of two parishioners this past week, we pray: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them! May they rest in peace – Amen!

+May our Lenten journeys bring us together in the love of Jesus, and help us bond as a family of faith. Remember there are some special/extra times for individual confessions this week on Tuesday afternoon and Thursday morning. Looking forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

Day of Spiritual Reflection

All are invited to a free day of Spiritual Renewal on Saturday, April 6, at St. Hugo of the Hills in Bloomfield Hills to encounter Jesus and let our hearts be captured by Him (Unleash the Gospel, Guidepost 2). Lent is a perfect opportunity to learn different ways to pray, grow your relationship with Jesus, and live as a dedicated disciple in the world.

Presentations will include: Deeping Our Prayer Life: With Eves Fixed on Jesus, Rev. Mario Amore, associate pastor, St. Hugo of the Hills; Lectio Divina: Praying in Depth with the Sacred Scriptures, Grace Seroka, spiritual director, Manresa Jesuit Retreat House; Couples Prayer and Praying with Your Family, Ken and Signe Castel, Couple Prayer Ministry; Praying with Music, Keir Ward, Co-Director, will Youth Choir, Sacred Heart, Detroit. Bishop Gerard Battersby celebrate Mass. Use https://spiritualrenewalday.eventbrite.com to register.

FAITH FORMATION

For What Do We Hunger?

As a young adult, I attended an outdoor concert with a group of friends on a hot summer afternoon. We packed a picnic lunch and some beverages. Bottled water was not a "thing" back then, and few people thought to bring water in their own containers. After sitting in the sun for so long, we became very thirsty; so thirsty, in fact, that the soda pop no longer quenched our thirst. We longed for water, and when we finally were able to drink some, we couldn't get enough of it. Although it wasn't exactly fasting, we got the idea of being without. It was a reminder of the hunger and thirst experienced by so many in our world.

During Lent, denying ourselves something through fast and abstinence puts us in communion with the poor, to help us better understand their plight. Giving up meat on Fridays but eating at Red Lobster misses the point. Eating a simple soup supper might help us to be more compassionate to those in need of our help.

Besides hunger that can be satisfied by food, and anything else we crave, we all have a spiritual hunger that must be fed. This Lent, embrace fasting as an opportunity, rather than an ordeal, to grow closer to God.

Blessings, Maureen Schreffler Director of Faith Formation

Relic of St. John Vianney to visit Detroit on March 30 and 31

A major relic of France's St. John Vianney, who is held up as the ideal for Catholic priests, will visit the Archdiocese of Detroit this month as part of a national relic pilgrimage hosted by the Knights of Columbus.

The saint's incorrupt heart, contained in a special casing and visible to the faithful, will be available for public veneration at two locations:

St. John Vianney Parish, 54045 Schoenherr Road in Shelby Township Saturday, March 30 from 2-8 p.m. with Mass at 5 p.m.

Sacred Heart Major Seminary, 2701 Chicago Boulevard in Detroit Sunday, March 31 from 11:30a.m.-5 p.m.

The tour has been dubbed "Heart of a Priest," which refers to the physical heart of John Vianney that has resisted decay for more than 150 years, as well as to the good character all priests are called to embrace.

To learn more about the relic pilgrimage, please visit kofc.org/vianney

DOWN SYNDROME A WARENESS

Dominic T., a 4th-grade student, has an older brother Michael who has Down Syndrome. Dominic wanted to raise awareness about Down Syndrome in our school and brought his idea to celebrate World Down Syndrome Day to our Student Council. All over the world on March 21st people wear odd socks to show they care about those who have Down Syndrome. On March 21st students "Rocked their Socks" all around Holy Family School. We are incredibly proud of Dominic for his initiative. We are also extremely proud of Katie B., a kindergarten student at our school who has Down Syndrome. It's a blessing to all of us to know Katie and her family. Dom's idea led to a special day to promote awareness and acceptance in our school. There are more similarities than there are differences between all of us, we are all God's children.

THANK YOU FATHER STRAIN

We will miss Fr. Eugene Strain, one of the founding pastors of our school, who passed away peacefully on March 23rd. His love and faithful service to Holy Family Regional School and the students will be greatly missed. From the way he greeted each student before mass, to his homilies and his amazing talk with every 8th-grade class before they graduated from HFRS. Fr. Strain took the time to give students wonderful advice, "Always have a firm handshake and look people in the eye, speak clearly and distinctly and although you will go your separate ways from Holy Family, hopefully you will remain close." He stressed the importance of correct spelling, especially of the words receive, separate and it's. What great advice and what a wonderful priest and friend Father Strain was to all of us! Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon him.
