On The Lenten Journey into Holy Week

+Each year on Palm Sunday, we recount the story of Jesus' passion. We hear about the events leading up to his arrest; the agony of his prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane; the passing of his case back and forth between Pilate, Herod and the Sanhedrin. We imagine what it was like for the very Incarnation of God to be judged by human beings. Each year, we are invited to enter into this story, to remember it, to accompany Jesus during these trials.

It is not the pleasant escape that we might find when we watch a movie or read a book. Rather, with his eyes we see the crowd whom He loves, shouting for his very death. With Him, we witness his closest friends abandon, deny or watch from a distance. We see the cruelty of rulers and soldiers who mock Him, beat Him, and gamble for his garments. We are asked to remember the horrible death He endured, a public and agonizing death of being nailed to a cross.

It is an unpleasant business, the suffering of Jesus and of the world – for Jesus' death and resurrection did not remove suffering from our lives or the lives of those we love. And it can be terrifying to experience suffering ourselves or to walk with someone who is in distress. And we have choices when we do. We can be like Peter who denies, or the soldier who jeers; we can be an acquaintance who watches, or Pilate who washes his hands of the matter.

Or we can be like Joseph of Arimathea, who refuses to participate in an unjust persecution, or like the women who do not run from the agony of Jesus' death, but tended to his broken, lifeless body. Perhaps we will be like the centurion who praises God, even in the midst of darkness.

It is much easier, in the midst of affliction and suffering, to find a distraction: to turn on the television, to shop for the newest gadgets, to escape. Yet each year, Palm Sunday puts suffering squarely in our midst. Why? Because our suffering, and the suffering of the world, are bound to Christ's. We are asked to enter into our Lord's passion – to walk with Him, to accompany Him as He faces utmost cruelty, injustice, pain, abandonment, so that we may walk with others who suffer. We are asked to accompany them, to be for them what some of the more admirable people were for Jesus in his darkest hour.

So as we enter into Christ's passion and partake of his victory found in the Eucharist, let us pray for the grace to see what is before us, to open our hearts to those who need us and to accompany those who suffer. Christ continues to accompany each and every one of us, so let us do likewise to our sisters and brothers around us.

+Remember that Easter basket donations are due THIS WEEKEND. Your cooperation in promptly returning your gifts will help us get the baskets organized and out to those families and individuals who are in need and looking forward to our parish gifts to make Easter a little more joyful for them. Thanks for your generosity!!

+Please be mindful of the Holy Week schedule of activities. Just a special reminder that there will be no 8:15 morning mass on Thursday and Friday. Parish Office hours are modified to work around the various liturgies of the Triduum (which starts on Thursday evening). The office will be closed on MONDAY AFTER EASTER SUNDAY. Keep the bulletin handy for times and places of events.

+And in this final week before Easter, pray in a most special way for our RCIA candidates and catechumens. They anxiously look forward to the celebration of the great Vigil on Saturday evening and their "formal" entrance into the Church. May the Holy Spirit be with them all in a special way!

+Because of early bulletin deadlines, I can't guarantee you that the east entrance is open (yet), so you'll just have to watch for signs and announcements at mass in church and on the parish website.

+May this week be grace-filled! What will YOU do to make this week holy? See you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

SEASONAL REFLECTION

Hosanna to the Messiah! While Jesus would not be crowned an earthly king, Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem has many parallels to the Messianic expectations of the Hebrew people. Before entering, Jesus requisitions a donkey from its owner. In the ancient world, kings had this right. Yet the animal that Jesus requests is rare -- a colt upon which no one else has sat yet. Yet, it's a donkey. This is no great war-charger, no magnificent animal. Jesus acts with all the authority of an earthly king, yet his kingdom is one of simplicity and peace. As the disciples throw cloaks over the donkey, the crowd spreads theirs on the road. This ancient gesture dates back to the line of kings descended from David. Not only are these physical kingly gestures, but the crowd of followers cries out in jubilation and praise. The Messiah has come to Jerusalem!

Making Holy Week Truly Holy

Our parish has many activities and services planned for Holy Week. Mark your calendar with the ones you'd like to attend. At home, you can make the week special for your family by using some of the following suggestions from "Our Path of Love", reflections from Connie Clark, Twenty-Third Publications.

Palm Sunday: Plan and prepare a meal together. Decorate your table using palm branches as the centerpiece.

Monday of Holy Week: Get in touch with family members you rarely see. Send a letter or card that includes pictures or notes from your kids.

Tuesday of Holy Week: Light a candle for children all around the world. Invite your kids to pray for them.

Wednesday of Holy Week: This is traditionally a day for spring cleaning. Make a list of tasks and get everyone involved to prepare for Easter. Then relax and enjoy your clean home.

Holy Thursday: Read John 13:1-15 and reenact the washing of the feet at home if you can't attend Mass.

Good Friday: Spend a little quiet time between noon and 3pm. Read from the bible, an inspirational book, stations of the cross, or just look at the cross together.

Holy Saturday: Have family members share one thing they did this Lent that was particularly meaningful. Is it something that could be practiced throughout the year?

Easter Sunday: Greet one another with "Christ is Risen!" Eat, sing, dance, play, pray and praise with your family today. Let the risen Jesus be with you in all your celebrations. Then celebrate God's love every day of the year.

Blessings for a very Holy Week,
Maureen Schreffler
Director of Faith Formation

Can I Get a Witness?

I'm Jeff Brady, a parishioner and I recently attended Friar John Paul's 3 day mission here. He recommended a book called The Gift of Peace. I ordered a dozen books in case others might want some. I really liked it and thought of one lady, Linda, who might like it. I got my books and after Mass today I saw Linda and said I have a gift. After she took it, she said she was at Barnes and Noble yesterday trying to get one, but they didn't have it. What a coincidence she got it from me today.
