On The Easter Journey

+Imagine living in the first century, and know that Jesus will soon be leaving. Like any anxious member of a group, we ask, “Who is going to lead us when you’re gone?” Jesus replies, “Peter!” We can’t believe it. How can Jesus select the person who denied knowing Him, not once, not twice, but three times? He would not follow Jesus to Golgotha. And yet he’s the one who is supposed to lead Jesus’ sheep. Peter might not stand out to us at that time as a first choice, but this is the man Jesus chooses to be the leader of the young Christian community.

Peter is flawed, and he might not be completely trustworthy. But redemption awaits him. He becomes a leader who is not afraid to voice his beliefs in the face of adversity. When he is brought before the authorities and reminded that he is not supposed to be talking about Jesus, Peter emphatically denounces their authority, obeying only God’s authority. In following Jesus, Peter furthers Jesus’ mission. And in doing so, he is honored by God the Father.

In our Gospel, Jesus and Peter have an exchange about love. For English speakers, we only have the one word – love. But the Gospel is written in Greek, and there are several words for ‘love’ in that language. Jesus asks Peter if he loves Him, using the Greek word agapas, which is divine love. Peter responds that he does love Him, but instead of using the term agapas, he uses the term philo, which is a brotherly love.

Peter, again, showing his limitations, is not able to say that he loves Jesus with divine love because he is limited by his humanity. It takes God’s grace to be able to exude divine love, and that comes in the fruit of the Spirit of Pentecost. Only when he is imbued with divine love does Peter become capable of leading Jesus’ flock.

When we partake of the Eucharist, we, too, become filled with that same divine love. But that love is not meant to be hidden, it is meant for us to share. As we go forth from our celebration at Mass, will we be able to go out and live our lives signifying that we, too, follow Jesus? Are we ready to Unleash the Gospel at home, and at school; at work and in our neighborhoods?

May that same Spirit move us to be the disciples needed in our world today!

+Thanks for the many compliments about our “locally-produced” CSA video that we showed last week as a prelude to this weekend’s start of our 2019 CSA/Building campaign efforts. Our Archdiocesan target this year is $352,457, an increase of just slightly over $8500 from last year). As with last year’s effort, any and all funds raised over our target will be returned 100% to our parish, "tax-free," for use toward our building project. Last year's efforts netted us over $500,000 returned to us to help in keeping our project loan down. Another great year like that would go a lo-o-o-ng way in helping us pay for the new additions and upgrades to our facilities!

By now you should have received our brochure mailing explaining our efforts – using the same approach that we used last year. Your continued generosity will help our parish family work through this wonderful addition to our facilities and get our parish campus grounds back in "tip-top" shape. As always, if you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

+Please continue to pray for our students making their first Holy Communion this weekend. Last Saturday's celebrations were wonderful, and though a bit cold, even the weather cooperated with sunny skies. My prayerful thanks to all who helped both last week and this weekend!

+We experienced a prayerful celebration for Divine Mercy last Sunday afternoon. I apologize for the delays with confessions; three of the six priests did not show up for one reason or another, causing some to wait over two hours to have their confessions heard. But let me clear up some misunderstandings about the "when" you need to go to confession in seeking the indulgences of the day: it is no longer ON THE DAY ITSELF (that is, Divine Mercy Sunday), but close to the day. The Vatican has described that to be "three weeks before OR after the day." In other words, there is about a six-week window to go to confession. Therefore, we will not be offering confessions on Divine Mercy Sunday itself in the future.

+This past week brought with it the conclusion of our Religious Formation sessions for the current school year. We are so blessed to have such a wonderful Religious Formation staff: Maureen Schreffler, Barbara Pacella, Lidia Larges, Brenda Heughens, Barbara Zonca (Sunday Children's Liturgy of the Word), Jason Spranger, and Linda Martens. We are also blessed with many dedicated volunteers to help share their faith in teaching our children about our God, our Faith, our Church and our religious traditions. May the Lord bless you all for the dedicated commitment you make to our parish family!

+After the Easter vigil, it was discovered in the balcony (on the south/organ-side of the church) that some very noticeable damage was done to one of the pews with the candles used to celebrate the opening light service as well as at the time of the renewal of Baptismal promises. If you were involved, or saw anything, it would have been appropriate to have notified an usher or someone on staff of the damage. It will now cost us hundreds of dollars for the repair. Given the climate of our country and the world, please be alert to our surroundings and notify the ushers or others parish leadership of such suspicious/vandalous activities.

+This weekend brings about the first anniversary of my brother's death last year, just a week after his wife's passing. Thanks to the many of you who remembered and offered your continued support and sympathy. How appropriate that we celebrate a Mass of Hope this Monday evening at 7 p.m. in the church, in support of all who have and continue to face significant challenges in their life. Whether you attend or not, please keep these folks in your special prayers.

Fr. Tom leaves for Poland for a time of vacation to visit family and friends. Please keep him in your prayers – for safe journeys and a relaxing time. (And remember to go easy on the pastor while he's away!)

+As we continue our celebration of this great season of Easter, know of my continued prayers for blessings upon you and your families! I look forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from

St. Andrew Graduation Recognition and Photos

St. Andrew Parish is proud to recognize those members of our parish community who are graduating from high school, college or other professional programs. This year, rather than celebrating at one Mass, graduates will be recognized and given a blessing at all Masses the weekend of June 1-2, 2019. In this way, families do not need to rearrange their schedule for graduates to still receive this special blessing. Just come to the Mass you normally would and graduates will be asked to stand for the blessing.

Graduates are invited to submit a wallet size photo for a special page in the June 2, 2019 bulletin. Photos will be returned to those who provide a self-addressed stamped envelope to have the photo returned.

To ensure having photos in the parish bulletin, please place the form below and the photo in the collection box, bring it, or mail it to the parish office 1400 Inglewood, Rochester MI 48307 as soon as possible, but no later than May 20.

Please print:

Fish Story

My seven year old grandson has recently shown an interest in fishing. We sent him his dad's old tackle box. He thought his sister would like a pink one for her third birthday. She didn't. At one point during his last outing with his dad, he had a difficult time reeling in his line. He felt his hook was caught on a rock, or maybe a 100 pound catfish. He wasn't sure. Even though he never catches anything and is sometimes discouraged, he keeps trying. He needs Jesus to show him where to cast. (I am amused as I ponder this, because his dad has long hair and a beard, and looks very much like how we depict Jesus.)

In today's Gospel, (John 21:1-9, 12, 15-17) the disciples are shown where to cast their nets. They are also given what they need to go out and nourish the people, including the directive from Jesus to "Feed my sheep." What do we need to nourish one another? Our time, talent and treasure can be used to serve our families, friends and communities. We can support those in our lives with the nourishment of love and attention.

Who are the "sheep" we can tend to this week? Let's cast our nets to get what we need to accomplish it.

Blessings, Maureen Schreffler
Director of Faith Formation

What's Wrong With The Church

If you could change one thing about the Church, what would it be? You may be thinking, "What, why only one?!?!". An older lady was asked this question about 25 years ago, and her response was one word... "me."

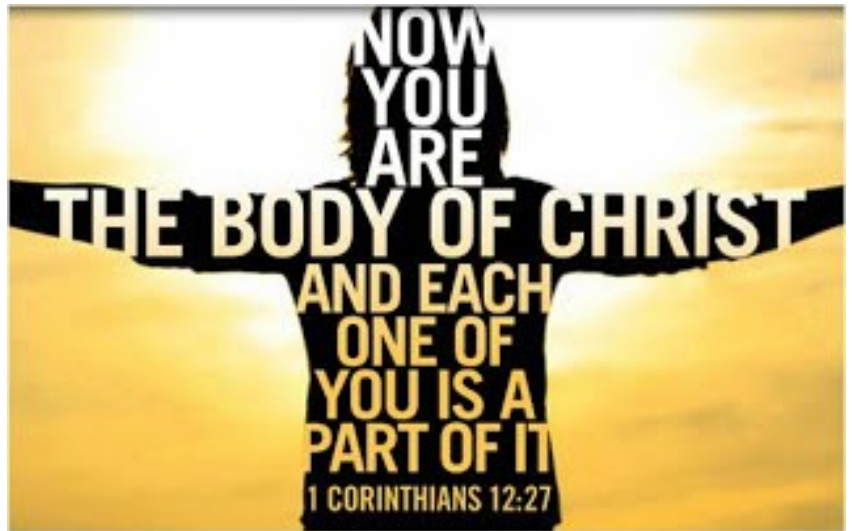

Wow, don't I feel like a jerk? I'm trying to limit it to one thing while this lady (Spoiler alert: Mother Teresa) takes one for the team. I complain about certain things that the Church should do for me...what's stopping me from doing something about it? Sometimes we get so caught up in the Church owes me this, or that, that we forget to put things into the Church. We are the Church. The only way to get something out is if someone puts something in. When we judge the Church, we are judging ourselves. Each of us plays a role in the Church. The reason the Church seems to be hurting is because we are fractured. Everyone wants to get something out of the Church, but not as many are giving their time and talents into it. If a church struggles, it's because the people struggle. If a church is booming, it is because the people in it are on fire to share the Holy Spirit.

The Church is like a body with many parts. We all have different talents to bring into the Church. It could be cooking, leading, entertaining, lifting things, a meeting place, decorating, joking around with teens, etc. When we bring our talents together, the body of the Church can work together to go further than we ever thought possible. And if you're looking for the "secret sauce" that sets Christians apart from just any other group, it's the Trinity. We are united through Christ's love for us and our humility to let the Holy Spirit work through us. St. Catherine of Siena said, "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire." Let's light this place up.

To get involved, please call 248.651.7486.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL NEEDS YOU!

Are you interested in St. Andrew and what happens to us as a parish in the future? Can you look to the future and envision what will be good for the parish? If you answered "Yes," there is a place for you on the Parish Pastoral Council.

The Parish Pastoral Council act as consulters, facilitators, and leaders of the parish with Monsignor Mike, Fr. Tom, and others. The PPC also sets the groundwork for the future of the parish by assisting and identifying the spiritual, pastoral, and physical needs of the parish.

The Council meets the 4th Tuesday of the month from September to May. The term for a member is only 2 years, meaning the commitment is for 18 meetings in 2 years. This year, we will be filling 2 vacant positions.

If you are interested, or know someone that you think would be a good parish leader, please fill out the following and return it to the parish office by May 31, 2019. There will be a selection by lot at one of the Masses on Pentecost, June 9.

I would like the following to be considered for the Parish Pastoral Council:

Program: Cut Coupons and Bring Cancelled Stamps

Today's schedule:

9:00AM: Coffee, sign in and fellowship

9:30AM: Business Meeting

10:30AM: Program

We are a group of women from Christian churches in the Rochester Area, meeting the first Monday of the month, several times throughout the year. Our "MISSION" is to support the "Rochester Neighborhood House; the "Clothes Closet" and the "FOOD PANTRY" the organizations that provide for the underprivileged in our area. As a group we pray for the guidance of our Lord and do not take doctrinal positions.

Special food pantry needs this month: Paper products

For additional information, please contact a St. Andrew Representative: Lil McCrudden, 248-651-7260 or Barbara Plante, 248-651-5275

It's not your Grandmother's Neighborhood House

You are invited to attend an informational gathering explaining the mission and services of Neighborhood House, our local human services safety net. The event will be held at the First Congregational Church, 1315 N. Pine Street in Rochester on Tuesday, May 7 at 7:00 p.m. A presentation about all of the new happenings at Neighborhood House along with tours of the Food Pantry and light refreshments will be served. Please come see why this organization continues to attract 100's of volunteers each week, offering comfort and self-sufficiency tools to our neighbors in need.
