On The Easter Journey

+Today's celebration of the Ascension of the Lord can get lost. It comes between two other significant moments in the life of a young Church. A few weeks ago, we celebrated the greatest day on the liturgical calendar, the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In a few days, we will celebrate another important event for a fledgling Church – the descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

The Apostles are less afraid than they were when Jesus came to them on that first Easter, but losing Him today for a second time could not have been easy. In our first reading, they are left staring up at heaven. In the Gospel, they leave rejoicing, filled with great joy. So which is it? Are they bewildered or joy-filled? Actually, they are both.

The Apostles have journeyed with Jesus for three years. They have witnessed the miracles and the parables. They have also witnessed the resentments and the ridicule. They have just witnessed his torturous death and his glorious Resurrection. It has truly been a rollercoaster ride of giant proportions.

Such is the life of discipleship we live even today as we gather to celebrate the moment between Easter and Pentecost. We are a people living in a kingdom established here on earth, but not yet part of its fullness found in the next life. It is an in-between moment for the Church, and in our own lives. How we choose to face such moments tells us how resilient our faith is, or whether there is work to be done to strengthen our reliance on Jesus and on his promises.

It is always going to be easier to have faith when things are going well. It is in those in-between moments that we learn a great deal about ourselves. It is okay to stop and stare at what is unclear or confusing – as long as we find joy in the journey, as the disciples in both readings eventually did (even though we don't hear about it in the first reading). It is here we discover the need to go deeper in our trust in Jesus' promise not to ever leave us orphaned.

It is in these in-between moments we also realize we are never alone in facing any challenge that is before us. For though Jesus' human form ascended into heaven, He is here present in word and sacrament. The Holy Spirit dwells within and among us. By God's grace, may we have all that Saint Paul prayed for, for those who lived in Ephesus: May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of Him. May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe.

Jesus has prepared the way for us – are we prepared to follow? May we take comfort that we have not ever been left alone!

+If today is the Feast of the Ascension, then that means next week is Pentecost Sunday, when we remember the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles in the upper room. It is through the power of the Holy Spirit that the Apostles were invigorated to spread the Good News and profess their faith in Jesus Christ.

It will be a most appropriate day for us to hear more about Archbishop Vigneron's pastoral letter Unleash the Gospel, and the next phase of activity that will take place among the parish communities. I am involved as one of the leaders in this project, and I hope that we can all take some time and re-read his pastoral letter to help us see where we are heading with efforts to be directed in various areas brought to light from the original Synod 16, upon which the letter flows. It will be a call to re-acquaint ourselves with our faith and work to putting that faith in action.

+Since I am actually writing this article before the Memorial Day holiday, I don't have a big update on CSA progress since we haven't experienced another weekend since my last report. However, I can tell you that we have reached $303,615 in pledges/donations so far. I thank those who have made their commitment and gotten us this close to our target of $352,457!

+This weekend, we are honoring all our graduates in the parish – CONGRATULATIONS on a job well done! Instead of a single celebration, we will recognize our young men and women at each of the masses and pray for them in a most special way. Your parish family wishes you the best on the next phase of your journey; remember to keep the Lord close to help and guide you along the way!

+We welcome back Fr. Tom from his vacation trip back home to Poland! Many will be getting ready with their own vacation plans for the coming summer season. Most grade schools, including our own Holy Family Regional School, will be finishing up the week of June 9th, so let us all pray for the safety of the students and families as they make their way into the extended school recess. Let us also remember to pray for the teachers and administrators in thanksgiving for all that they do for our young minds who are so anxious to learn and grow and develop!

+Where did May go to? The time is certainly flying by quickly! But not so quickly as to miss mass, I hope and pray! Looking forward to seeing you in church!

Dear Friends at St. Andrew Catholic Church, May, 2019

We are sincerely grateful for your donation of $2,000 given to Neighborhood House. Founded by communities of faith in 1968, the support we receive from local churches continue to enable us to serve thousands of individuals & families every year, bringing neighbors in need to self-sustainability. Here is just one comment from someone who was helped through your support:

"Thanks to Neighborhood House, I was able to get back on my feet. I got food from your Food Pantry, help with my rent, and some wonderful clothes from the Clothes Closet for job interviews. Then, your Caseworker called me about a job opening. Now I am working again!"

Your donation with other community support makes it possible for our struggling neighbors to feed their children, keep warm in the winter, and stay in their home. We also provide job coaching, money managing, and counseling that some folks need to turn things around. Your congregation truly makes a difference here! If you have questions or would like to volunteer at Neighborhood House, I hope you will give me a call. 248-651-5836

With sincere appreciation (a fellow parishioner),

Kathy Losinski, Executive Director
