On The Journey

+Popularly known as the Feeding of the Five Thousand, this miraculous event is found in all four Gospels. For Luke, it took place in a deserted place, or in some translations, a lonely place. But do they mean the same thing? To be deserted means to be uninhabited, empty; to be lonely means to be alone, without company. We can see how both of these could be good descriptions. And maybe these words also refer to the human condition and the deepest desires of the human heart.

The Gospels agree that Jesus was followed by a great crowd into the hill country. What were they after? Maybe some came to hear a little more about the kingdom, inspired by his hope-filled promise of God's mercy and healing. Perhaps others simply came to see another miracle from one whose words could change lives, and whose deeds could do marvelous things. Maybe some were at the last stop in their journey of life with nothing to lose and yet everything to gain.

So they are willing, if not eager, to follow Him into this lonely/deserted place – willing to risk the growing darkness, hunger, and even the potential of a long walk home just to be with Jesus. And it is here in this lonely/deserted place that Jesus meets them and their deepest needs in a life-abundant and self-giving way.

We gather on this Sunday to celebrate the feast of the Solemnity of Corpus Christi – the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. In many ways, we are very much like the Gospel crowd. We, too, have come with our hopes and needs to encounter Jesus. Here Jesus creates a Eucharistic world where all experience his real presence and the hope of something better – here, no one goes hungry!

At every Mass, Jesus meets these needs by giving us his total and unconditional love, while at the same time, nourishing us both physically and spiritually. Here we see why the Church calls the Eucharist the source and summit of our faith. It is source because Jesus is the source of our faith, and it is summit as our faith is ultimately about a sharing in his Resurrection and life.

Here we truly receive the same Jesus – his Body, Blood, soul and divinity, nourishing us for those lonely moments that are so often part of our human experience, reassuring us that God is always present in our lives.

When we prepare to receive Holy communion, we will repeat the words of the centurion from the Gospel who encountered that same Jesus: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed (Matt 8:8). Every time we receive this great gift from heaven, we should do so with fear and trembling, knowing as Paul reminds us that we are proclaiming Christ's death and resurrection until He comes again in glory. Here we are joining the saints and angels in the worship of the One who has loved us without condition. Here in the signs of bread and wine, Christ meets our most basic needs: to be loved and to be nourished.

In the Eucharist, we receive the very presence and mercy of Christ – how truly blessed we are!

+Next weekend, after all the masses, we will host a reception in the Activities Building for our retiring Christian Service minister, Joe Soncrant. We thank Joe for his work here at St. Andrew for almost 30 years, reaching out to help minister in so many ways to those in need in our parish and in the surrounding community. These receptions will give everyone a chance to thank Joe personally for all that he has done! Know of our love and prayers, Joe! (a little secret....Joe will be around for a while in July to help with transitioning.....but it's a secret!)

+In that light, we will be welcoming some new faces to our parish family: Mrs. Susan Kowalski, who going to take on the role of RCIA and Evangelization minister. It's filling a need for RCIA, but helping us with evangelization as we work to Unleash the Gospel. Mr. Sam Jennings will be assuming responsibilities in the area of Christian Service for our parish. And Mrs. Margaret Kozak will become our Youth and Confirmation Minister, working with our Faith Formation team and replacing Mr. Jason Spranger, who is moving on to pursue other career opportunities (need a great DJ for your wedding or other function? A little free advertising for you, Jason!). In addition, we have Mr. Michael Miller joining our maintenance team to oversee the many facilities on our campus. Welcome one and all!

+Big efforts have been made in work around the complex. As is evident, a lot of cement work has been done (curbs, sidewalks). The interior of the new west addition is getting put together nicely. Special to our project was the "return" of the Risen Jesus metal sculpture that used to hang on the outside west wall. All cleaned up and fixed, it now hangs beautifully in the new gathering space. It will have special soft lighting to highlight its details. I hope you like the way it turned out! (If anyone knows some of the history behind that piece of art, please fill me in on the details.)

+Our CSA is growing and approaching the $400,000 level of pledges/donations. My prayerful gratitude to all who have stepped forward and made their commitment! If you haven't yet done so, please consider making your pledge now.

+This past Monday all the priests of the Archdiocese were invited to a general meeting with Archbishop Vigneron. It was an occasion to learn more about moving forward with our Unleash the Gospel efforts, both at the Archdiocesan level and at the parishes. Over the coming weeks we will continue to let our parish community know more about what we can do in putting together our own "missionary strategic plan."

+This coming week brings about the end of the fiscal year for the parish; we will report more information as the final numbers become available in the coming months. Overall, we've had a pretty good year. Yes, we're behind on the building project, but directed changes at the beginning as well as poor weather conditions have caused the delays.

At this time, I get to reflect on my priestly ministry, as I will celebrate 24 years of ordination on June 24th. I am happy to enter into my silver anniversary year with my St. Andrew parish family! Please remember to keep me in prayer, and pray for an increase in vocations, especially to the priesthood so that there will be more shepherds working in the fields and vineyards!

+May our summer be filled with good surprises and many blessings! See you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

The Spirit was moving at St. Andrew on June 9 at JAM. Since it was Pentecost, we reflected on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit as John Thorne, our guest speaker, broke down each of the gifts given to us by the Holy Spirit.

Watch for another opportunity for JAM in the fall. For now, enjoy these photos courtesy of Andy Groen.

Let the Church always be a place of mercy and hope, where everyone is welcomed, loved, and forgiven.

My Dear Friends of Saint Andrew Catholic Church,

June, 2019

They say “time flies when you are having fun.” Well it must be true! I have enjoyed serving the faith community of St. Andrew Parish for nearly 30 years. It seems like yesterday when I began the ministry of your Christian Service Outreach Coordinator. But, it is time I must retire from this role. It has been a joy to work with each of you! I hope I was the pastoral leader you needed to move from the 1990’s into the new millennium with Jesus. Together we explored the fullness of the Gospel of Life (womb to tomb), and promoted our Catholic Social Teachings by word and deed. Now, we continue to “unleash our faith” with love.

I have been blessed to work side by side with you these years. Ministry is always a two way street. You demonstrated many acts of charity for people who were in crisis. I will remember the special ministries like our Giving Tree, Blood Drives, St. Vincent dePaul Society, Care & Share, Eucharistic Ministry to the hospitals, Meals for the homeless, Jail Ministry, and Parish Nurse program to name a few. And, unique to St. Andrew Parish is our Easter Basket Outreach, Tithing Committee, Operation Sunshine, Needlework Ministry, Tax Prep Help and so much more. You have been my extended family as we worked together. Thank you!

Finally, I began as a junior senior helping to coordinate activities for the 55 Plus Fellowship. Before I knew it, I was a real senior member. Thank you for allowing me the privilege to serve you and plan trips for you over the years. I will take away many wonderful memories.

Please, remember me in your prayers.

Fondly, Joseph Soncrant 586-243-4343

Come and Eat

Good gatherings include two important aspects: feeling welcome and being fed. Think of some favorite parties you've attended. So much of the hospitality centers on food, whether it happens to be a sit-down dinner, a barbeque or sandwiches in a picnic basket. In today's Gospel, as people assembled on the mountainside to hear Jesus speak, they were also welcomed and fed, physically and spiritually.

In a Jesuit prayer book called Sacred Space, I recently read the following reflection on the Loaves and Fishes story: "In this miracle, Jesus does not produce food out of nowhere. He takes the little the apostles have, and he multiplies it a thousand fold. No matter how little I think I have to give, once I place my gifts in Jesus' service, they become limitless." It's amazing to think that our meager offerings of service can be magnified when carried out in the name of Jesus.

How have we felt welcomed and fed by Jesus? How do we extend that feeling of welcome to others? How does today's Gospel of the Loaves and Fishes connect us to the Eucharist? Lots to ponder, and lots for which we can give thanks. May your summer gatherings be filled with welcoming, joy and good food!

Blessings,
Maureen Schreffler
Director of Faith Formation

A Summer Prayer

Long warm days...
The pace of life slows...
A time for picnics and rest in the shade...
Lord, help me to rest awhile
in the cooling shade of your presence.
Slow down my restless heart and fill me with gentle compassion for all your people. Amen.

Sacred Heart Major Seminary

On June 8, Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron ordained three men to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Detroit at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Fathers John McKenzie, Adam Nowak, and Derik Peterman studied to become our shepherds at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, which is the college and graduate seminary of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal support seminarians as they prepare for the priesthood as well as men in the permanent diaconate program.

Sacred Heart's student body also includes seminarians studying for the priesthood for other dioceses throughout the country and world, and religious orders. Lay women and men earn graduate and undergraduate degrees and diplomas in religious studies at the seminary to serve in parish ministry throughout the Archdiocese.

The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing.

To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable and we are sorry.

In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information - already available on aod.org - more visible, transparent and clear.
