On The Journey

+There's a little story that's been around for many years; maybe you've heard it. There is a novice monk who entered a monastery where the vow of silence limited all speaking to two words every ten years. After this novice completed his first decade, the abbot asked him: "What are the two words you would like to speak?" The monk said: "Bed...hard," and the abbot said, "I see." Ten years later, the monk returned to the abbot's office and was again asked the same question: "What are the two words you would like to speak?" His response: "Food...stinks" to which the abbot responds "I see." Yet another ten years passed, and once again the abbot asked the monk the same question: "What are your two words now?" "I ...quit!" said the monk. "Well, I can see why," replied the abbot, "all you ever do is complain."

This monk had spent 30 years in the monastery, immersed in the Scriptures, listening and studying Jesus' teachings, attending liturgies and most importantly receiving the Eucharist – eating and drinking Jesus' Body and Blood. Yet, somehow he still missed the point of it all. His interests were not in things associated with the kingdom that Jesus speaks about, but rather in those temporal things that mattered to him. By placing his needs first, he failed to see the value of the discipline that the author of the letter to the Hebrews suggests will bring the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it.

His story illustrates how our attitude, and failure to act from a place of God's love, can dampen our awareness of it. For God's love, kindness and fidelity are bursting out in everything around us. If we are to proclaim the Good News and unleash the Gospel to everyone whom we encounter on our journey through life, it begins by aligning our works and thoughts with the message of the cross, which truly proclaims the steadfast kindness and fidelity of God. We profess this faith when we speak two words, "I believe." Or when we affirm our belief with one word: "Amen."

Like the monk in the little story, we are privileged and blessed to consume the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ – his real presence! Let our "amen" in receiving Him indicate not just that we believe in who He is, but that we are committed to building our relationship with Him – such that we never hear the words from Him, Depart from me...I do not know where you are from. A relationship built here on earth will allow us to recline [with Him] at table in the kingdom of God for all eternity.

Our fundamental call is to develop an ever-deepening relationship with Jesus. May our response always be "yes, my Lord"!

+What activity around the campus over this past week! Last weekend at the 5 p.m. Saturday mass, I had a huge smile on my face as I was directing cars into the now-open south parking lot for the first time since school let out in June. (One parishioner also asked if there was 'valet parking' now available too! LoL!) And now, hopefully by the time you are reading this article, the parking lot will be finished with its final course of asphalt and will even have stripes for parking on it! The construction people are working hard and long to make sure things are in place because we know what Monday is: the first day of school for Holy Family students!! And with no buses until the public schools start, this first week will see a "sea of cars" bringing and picking up students.

PLEASE: Everyone just be extra careful in the morning and afternoon drop-off/pick-up times with the students!

The parking lot flow was designed by the civil engineers in conjunction with our architect and the city planning folks – along with our constant review/input. Once the stripes are painted on, and the light poles are finished and connected, it will start making a lot more sense. DTE was not able to make it out this past week to change us over to the new electrical transformer; with the storms last weekend, their commitment to make it happen this past week was over-ridden by the need to get power outages throughout the metropolitan area back on line first. (We certainly have been dealing a lot with Mother Nature on this whole project, from the constant rains in spring to the storms along the way....)

Inside work is moving along too. Remember that we only have about three weeks to get our house in order before our dedication with Archbishop Vigeron at the noon mass on Sunday, September 15th – which is also our parish picnic. We decided to combine the gatherings of these events and make it a big celebration for our parish family – truly celebrating our faith and us coming together as a community!

+Speaking of the picnic, we are still in need of some help – won't you please sign up and give an hour or two of your time? We tried to make it a little easier this year by catering the food for much of the picnic....so how about helping out for an hour or two during the event?

+Holy Family Regional School is back in session as of Monday this week! We welcome all new families and students to our campus, and welcome back those who are returning. May the Holy Spirit bless us all this journey of growth and development during the upcoming year!! And next weekend is the Labor Day holiday, the "unofficial" end of summer; please look in the upcoming bulletin for schedules and office hours.

+I always look forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from

Campus Ministry

Gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal help foster the spiritual growth of young adults attending area colleges and universities. The Office of Young Adults and Campus Ministry helps form communities of faith on campuses, either by incorporating and strengthening the faith of those who live on campus or by building community, forming leadership, and collaborating with area parishes on commuter campuses. The office sponsors activities and programs for students, such as one-on-one pastoral counseling, spiritual direction, social justice projects, and retreats.

Hearing Assist Devices

Did you know that St. Andrew has Hearing Assist Devices available for use during Mass? These devices amplify the sounds in the church enabling those using the devices to better hear the presider, the readings, and the music. They may be used even if you already have a hearing aid. If you would like to borrow one of the units while you are at Church, they are available in the East Sacristy. Please see one of the ushers or a Mass Coordinator to sign one out.

Low Gluten Hosts

St. Andrew Parish has low gluten hosts available for those with gluten intolerance or celiac disease. If you have need of these hosts, please see a mass coordinator before mass.

Holy Hour for Intercessory Prayer

On Wednesday, August 28 at the conclusion of daily Mass, there will be a Holy Hour with Exposition and adoration for the intentions of intercessory prayer.

Overview of St. Andrew Intercessory Prayer

Per Archbishop Alan Vigneron's pastoral letter, "Unleash the Gospel" we have started an intercessory prayer group. In his letter the Archbishop writes "Prayer and intercession are indispensable components of the new evangelization, since God the Holy Spirit is the principal agent for unleashing the Gospel. Prayer is the way we access the unlimited divine power of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate. Intercession has always been the hidden engine of the Church's mission."

Personal prayer requests will use first names only and be checked to insure privacy before posting.

We will host a holy hour once a month after the morning mass.

The Holy Hour will include adoration of the blessed sacrament.

In the event of a conflict such as a funeral, an e-mail will notify everyone of alternative plans

All we really ask is for your commitment to prayer. Let's pray for each other and trust God to build our church, our community and our world.

We encourage you to sign up for weekly updates and to make request at www.bit.ly/staprayerteam

ST. ANDREW YOUTH GROUP

"Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity." 1 Timothy 4:12

Be an example to others in how you live your life in following Jesus.

Just because you are young does not mean that you don't have something to say or to contribute. Don't be ashamed of being young—use the authority that God has given you. Remember Jesus does not want us to "copy" an example He wants us to "be" the example.

SO...BE THE EXAMPLE IN...

Word: Our words matter! You can be an example of Jesus by the words that you use.

Conduct: How do you live every day and all day? Your actions matter at church, the store, your neighborhood, school, everywhere you live and go. Our everyday actions need to match up with the Word of God. We have to live like we believe.

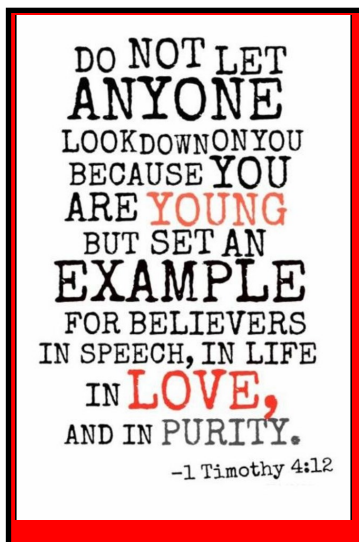

Love: How can you be an example of love? Love is at the center of all that God has done for us. Lead with love in everything you say and do!

Spirit: You can be an Example by following the Holy Spirit's lead and guidance. When we ask God to fill us with the Holy Spirit we will be like a glass that is filled with water and overflows....the things of God will pour out of us through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Faith: Faith means to believe in something. We put our faith in God, not in people or circumstances.

Purity: Purity means to have moral character. Morals are the rights and wrongs of life. Purity keeps your mind and heart away from those things that would cause you to sin.

Our life needs to match what we say we believe. God cares about "who" you are more than "what" you say you are! BE THE EXAMPLE!

A FEW UP COMING EVENTS:

- CHURCH PICNIC committee is looking for helpers for set up and clean up. Service Hours given! www.tinyurl.com/andrewpicnic2019
- TABLE LEADERS needed for our Confirmation Retreat. www.signupgenius.com/go/10C084FAAAA29A7F85-confirmation1
- SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22ND is our first "YOUTH NIGHT"! Starts at 6:00pm goes to around 8:30pm. We meet almost every Sunday. Friends are always welcome!

Embrace the new week as it is full of promises and blessings to give you a breakthrough in your journey of life. Wishing you many blessings for the new week!

Prayer for a New School Year

Gracious God,
as the summer begins to fade,
new possibilities lie on the horizon.

Bless all of those who are beginning or returning to their roles as teachers and catechists as well as those who lead and support them in their efforts
May this school year be a time of grace and potential as they teach, share, and challenge others to grow in faith, knowledge, and wisdom.

Bless children and youth, along with their parents,
as they begin a new school year.
May their minds be open to learning and to the wonder of discovery and insight.

Be with us all as we embark on this new year.
Amen.
