On The Journey

+There is a simple, good and holy custom that exists among some folks. Whenever a funeral procession passes by, one pauses and prays for the person who has died, and for the family grieving their loss. Whether or not we have participated in that custom, it is doubtful any of us has ever witnessed a U-Haul following the hearse to the cemetery.

Why? Because of the old adage, "You can't take it with you."

Fool is not a word we are accustomed to hearing Jesus use. Jesus's use of the word in today's parable is done so to drive home a very important reality. If we are going to spend our lives chasing after things that in the end will not follow us in that U-Haul to the cemetery, instead of following after Him, we may not like where we end up.

Jesus does not condemn the rich or call everyone to live in poverty. It is about balance. It is about perspective. Saint Paul puts it this way today: Put to death....immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire and greed that is idolatry.

Another way to approach this would be to ask ourselves about our most fundamental and underlying motives for our decisions, behaviors and actions. Is it to serve others or simply to get ahead in life? If we approach whatever we do with the attitude of service to others, we will be rich beyond our imagination. If we approach our actions only with the attitude of, "bigger is better, status is important, success at the expense of others is part of the cost of doing business," then we are headed toward spiritual poverty, which can produce catastrophic consequences.

We must see each person, including ourselves, as equally contributing to the kingdom of God; each according to his or her abilities and blessings. Remember, God does not show favorites. We are all to be on the same path, for Christ is within each of us, guiding us and sometimes pulling us toward the finish line. So let us spend our time growing rich in the things of God and not of this world.

+Next weekend, we will be visited by Fr. Linus Kinyua as our annual Mission Appeal guest. Fr. Linus represents the Diocese of Meru in Kenya, Africa. The diocese of Meru serves a population of 1.8 million people, half of whom are Catholic. In Meru, their main source of income is farming, but due to the multi-year drought, there have been scarce to no crop production. It is because of this dire situation that the diocese is making this appeal – for prayers and financial support. Please welcome Fr. Linus next weekend as he makes this year's appeal.

+As you look around the campus, you see much progress being made on our project. Over 2,000 linear feet of curb was put in place. Final steps were being taken to start laying the asphalt this coming week. Painting and (hopefully!?) tile work was being done inside the new gathering space and conference rooms and rest rooms. Keep our project in your prayers (I also pray specifically for the safety of the workers.) We will be “jumping around” with parking as different sections are completed.

Our construction efforts continue to be graciously supported by your generosity through our 2019 CSA drive. So far, we have donations/pledges of $573,483, surpassing our target of $352,457 and which will give us a refund of $221,026 should all pledges be honored and paid. If you have not yet pledged, please consider doing so SOON! Thanks to all who have made sacrifices to CSA this year.

+This weekend at the 5pm Sunday evening mass, we welcome our CYO football teams from Holy Family and offer a special blessing to them as they enter into practice and the fall season of this sport! We pray for your safety – and hope you do well in league play! God bless you all!

+This weekend, we welcome Fr. Sal Palazzolo at the 10am and 12 noon masses! Fr. Sal is a somewhat recently-ordained priest of the Archdiocese, coming into the ministry from my previous parish of St. Isidore. He is a great priest and will be leaving soon for studies in canon law at the Catholic University of America in Washington DC. He is helping us (me!) as I travel to Dubuque, Iowa, for a wedding this weekend. Please welcome him with your warm hospitality!

+As we enter into these weeks of August, we know that school cannot be too off! Let us pray for our students, teachers and administrators as they all prepare for the coming school year. May God continue to bless each and every one of you!

+As school approaches, vacations come to an end, and the parking lots get finished, I am looking forward to seeing more of you all in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

P.S. PLEASE NOTE: The construction site manager has told me that some of you have walked into the west side/large gathering space addition to “take a peek.” Please DON'T go into that area as it is still a construction site and people are working and there are numerous possible hazards. I know you are all anxious, but stay out for the time being.....just peek through the windows and doors for now. Thank you!

Low Gluten Hosts

St. Andrew Parish has low gluten hosts available for those with gluten intolerance or celiac disease. If you have need of these hosts, please see a mass coordinator before mass.

Have you borrowed a Pyx?

If you have borrowed a Pyx and are no longer in need of it, please make sure to return it to the Church so that others who need them may borrow them.

Hearing Assist Devices

Did you know that St. Andrew has Hearing Assist Devices available for use during Mass? These devices amplify the sounds in the church enabling those using the devices to better hear the presider, the readings, and the music. They may be used even if you already have a hearing aid. If you would like to borrow one of the units while you are at Church, they are available in the East Sacristy. Please see one of the ushers or a Mass Coordinator to sign one out.

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein), Virgin, Martyr

Born in Breslau, Germany, (now Wroclaw, Poland) in 1891 of Jewish parents. She converted to Catholicism and eventually entered the Discalced Carmelites. Her feast day is August 9. For more information about her you can visit the Vatican website or the Franciscan Media website. Both have a detailed biography on her and her life.

Prayer: The Parable of the Rich Fool

"Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

If I owned every shirt in the mall
but did not clothe
the naked,
if I
gulped tasty wines
but didn't give a cup of cold water,
If I took time to rake in money
but did not spread
love, then,
what would
I
be?

Christ, what is it that matters to you? Make me want that more than anything else.

Let us pray...

- for all those who are not accepted by society.
- for ourselves that we may listen to God's voice and try not to fall into the seduction of greed.
- that we, as a country, open our hearts to welcome refugees at the border no matter the color of their skin. Amen.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and Children

How does one become Catholic?

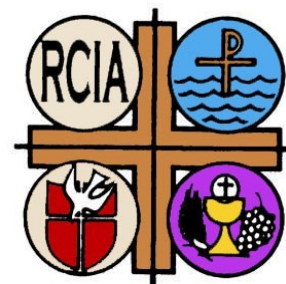

Many Catholics are born into Catholic families and gradually come to share in the full Sacramental life of the Church. Others, previously baptized in other Christian Churches or never baptized, become Catholic through a process known as The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Children over the age of seven participate in a modified process, The Rite of Christian Initiation of Children. The Rites of Initiation of adults and children are the Catholic Church's way of initiating new members. At St. Andrew Parish we warmly welcome new members and attempt to provide an appropriate spiritual formation for each inquirer.

Who may participate?

Those never baptized as Christians. Those baptized in another Christian faith tradition now interested in the Catholic tradition. Those baptized in the Catholic tradition whose sacramental reception is not complete. Children over the age of seven who have not received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist or Confirmation.

How long is the process?

RCIA is not a class or a program but a process of conversion. It prepares one to embark on a journey of faith that leads to a lifelong commitment as a Catholic. All Catholics are called to daily conversion and renewal of our faith journey. RCIA stresses the need for a living experience of Church as a "people of God" and not just "knowledge" about the Church. A person's desire to turn toward God (conversion) and become connected to a community does not happen instantaneously, but takes time as the Holy Spirit nurtures the deepening desire within. The usual length of preparation is approximately nine months to a year. In most cases, the initiation of new members is celebrated at the Easter Vigil.

For more information on initiation of adults, please contact Susan Kowalski at (248) 651-7486 x105, or susank@standrewchurch.org. For more information on initiation of children, please contact Maureen Schreffler at (248) 651-7486 x116, or maureens@standrewchurch.org.
