On The Journey

+We are all familiar with that moment when we walk into a wedding reception wondering where we will be seated. Unless we're part of the actual wedding party, most of us would never dream of sitting at the main table; instead we tend to stay close to the door, looking for the table map or hoping that someone will call out "over here" or start waving their hands when they see us. Today's Gospel makes use of this familiar scene, allowing Jesus to teach us about humility and its role in the kingdom.

From the beginning of his ministry, Jesus made it clear that the kingdom of God is pure gift, never earned or achieved by what we do. There is no special status or honor for those who come first, or those born into any particular race or family. Simply to be at the banquet is honor enough. And where we sit at this great feast is not for us to decide, but for the One who has invited us.

It is clear that the Pharisees have invited Jesus - not to engage Him in dialogue, but to observe Him carefully and perhaps even to catch Him out. Here Luke uses the Greek verb paratereo ("to watch insidiously") to suggest this hostile intent, a verb he will use again when they try to test Him on the issue of taxes to Caesar. Clearly, this was never meant to be a relaxed encounter. But as usual, it is Jesus who gets the upper hand, teaching them a lesson in humility.

Observing how they chose the best seats for themselves, Jesus was able to perceive their priorities - to be seen, to be noticed, to be honored, to be important! But these are not the priorities of the kingdom, nor are they the criteria for deciding who will be invited to its banquet.

In words that are radical and countercultural, even today, Jesus explains that the kingdom is for those who truly know their need of God and who live in the knowledge of their inability to repay Him.

Of course, in moments of difficulty knowing that need is a little easier, so the real test comes in the ordinary events of daily life. Humility comes in ordering our priorities, and how our faith informs our lives as married people, parents, single people, teenagers and children.

Through baptism, we have been given a role in the building of the kingdom. As we gather, there is no place of honor, except for the Lord who is our host at every Eucharistic celebration. We come as we are: a people in need of God's mercy - a people who need to experience his love and joy. We come not because it is a reward for what we have done, but in order to be changed. Christ is the One who invites us to share in God's mercy and love. It is in his power that we are sent out to live what we have celebrated, and to invite others to share with us in the kingdom.

May we all come to a deeper appreciation and acceptance of the invitation to come to the table of the heavenly kingdom!

+Thanks to everyone who shared the gift of life with this past weekend's blood drive! We were able to collect 53 units, which is a pretty good number; we know how desperate the Red Cross is to collect blood especially during this summer/vacation season. Thanks to Carl Gildner and all our volunteers who helped make our blood drive run so smoothly!

+I hoped everyone "enjoyed" the parking lot last weekend! It was fun to watch cars drive through on Friday night/early Saturday morning as they grasped the fact that it was ready for our use! Know that there is still some parking lot work to be done – sealcoating sections that weren't replaced, striping or re-striping where necessary, filling/evening-out the trenches for the power to the additional light poles on the south side. But we were able to accommodate the opening of Holy Family Regional School on Monday without any real problems – praise the Lord!

+As I am writing this weekend's article, I am watching DTE and our electricians from Shoreview Electric working hard on changing over the power to the new transformer! Thus, power is off in the church, rectory as well as the phone lines being down (the main trunk lines for the phones are located in the basement of the rectory). Sorry for the inconvenience – not just these days, but especially during the massive amount of work necessary for the parking lots!

+Our new building dedication and parish picnic will be jointly held on Sunday, September 15th, at the noon mass and following. Archbishop Vigneron will be here to celebrate with us, so I invite everyone to come join us for this wonderful event!

+May you enjoy this holiday weekend safely – relaxing before the end-of-summer/fall activities really begin to gear up! Remember that Mass on Monday is at 9 a.m. I pray that you will give thanks to the Lord for the blessings of this summer, and ask for grace to face and get into our activities for the coming season! As always, I look forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

P.S. As this bulletin is going to press (earlier, because of the Labor Day holiday), we are dealing with our power outage here late on Monday afternoon at the church and rectory because of the transformer switchover. Hence, there was no mass on Tuesday – maybe even Wednesday – morning. We might have been able to have mass in the chapel if it was sunny out, but the restrooms have no lights, and no windows for natural daylight. IT JUST WASN'T SAFE TO HAVE PEOPLE IN THOSE SPACES, SO IN THE INTEREST OF EVERYONE'S SAFETY, MASS WAS CANCELLED. Mass intentions for those days are being re-scheduled. Also, the phone system is powered through the basement of the rectory, so calls have been patched through to the office, but we cannot make calls out except for the use of private cell phones of the staff.

Sorry for the inconvenience; the changeover turned out to be more complex than anticipated.

Candlelight Prayer Service

Thursday, September 19

7:30-9:00 pm

St. Andrew Chapel

"The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows. For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of His Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord's supper." - Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 10

The word "liturgy" from Greek refers to "the work of the people". Our Christian liturgy is really God's work, in which we cooperate. St. Andrew Worship Commission is looking for members of the parish, of various ages and backgrounds, who are faithful in participating in the liturgical life of the parish and are interested in participating in the meetings and the ongoing work of the commission.

The commission serves in an advisory capacity to :

- Assess the needs of the assembly
- Advise on liturgical matters and the condition of the liturgical space
- Provides for liturgical education of parishioners
- Helps develop competent liturgical ministers

The commission meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30pm. If you are interested in joining the commission, please contact Nikki at the parish office.

Eucharistic Adoration and Exposition

Friday, September 6, 2019 from 8:45AM-7:00PM St. Andrew Chapel

What is exposition of the Blessed Sacrament?

Exposition is the placement of the sacred host outside the tabernacle for public adoration. This can take many forms. The simplest form is the opening of the tabernacle doors. Another form is the removal of the sacred vessels from the tabernacle for a more prominent and visible placement. The Church also permits a "full" exposition, when the sacred host is clearly visible in a vessel called a "monstrance".

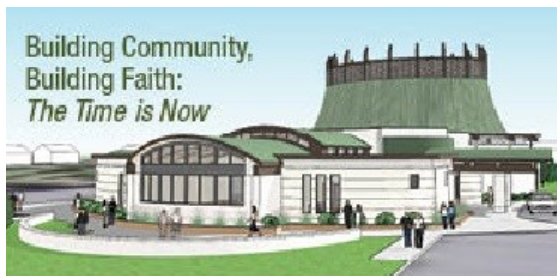

What is the purpose of exposition of the Blessed Sacrament?

There are three purposes of Eucharistic exposition: (1) to acknowledge Christ's marvelous presence in the sacrament; (2) to lead us to a fuller participation in the celebration of the Eucharist, culminating in Holy Communion; and (3) to foster the worship which is due to Christ in spirit and in truth.

What are the fruits of Eucharistic adoration?

People who observe Eucharistic adoration experience a deeper devotion to Jesus, and this manifests itself in countless ways. The primary fruits are repentance and conversion which lead to increased charity - that is, the love of Christ alive in His people. The adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist also leads to greater reverence at Mass, a deeper desire for personal holiness, and a stronger sense of union with the parish and the whole Church. Ever since the early centuries of Christianity, the Church has linked Eucharistic devotion to service to the poor. More recently, the practice has led to an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Petition Drive

Sat. Sept. 14– Sun. Sept 15

A statewide signature gathering effort, supported by the Catholic bishops of Michigan, is now underway to ban dismemberment abortion. Over the next few months, the signatures of 400,000 registered voters in the state are needed to bring this measure before Michigan lawmakers.

There will be an opportunity to sign the petition at St. Andrew after the weekend Masses on Sept. 14– 15.

We are seeking volunteers to help collect signatures after each of the Masses.

If you are interested in supporting this important effort, please contact Sam Jennings at samj@standrewchurch.org.

More information on the drive and is available at <https://www.micatholic.org/advocacy/michigan-values-life/>.

World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation!

Pope Francis has designated September 1 as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation and urges the world's 1.2 billion Catholics to take urgent action against the injustice of climate change and the ecological crisis, to protect the poor and future generations.

Join Pope Francis and Christians around the globe in praying for and taking action for our common home during the Season of Creation, Sept. 1-Oct. 4 by visiting www.SeasonofCreation.org and www.aod.org/PrayerforCreation.

O Lord, seize us with your power and light,
help us to protect all life,
to prepare for a better future,
for the coming of your Kingdom of justice, peace, love and beauty.
Praise be to you!
Amen.
POPE FRANCIS
(Laudato Si' 246)

A special thank you to all those who took time last Sunday to donate blood with the American Red Cross.

Because of your donation, and the help of the other volunteers, we were able to collect 47 pints of blood, each of which can help save up to three lives.

Your donation is truly appreciated by the blood recipients, their loved ones and all of us here at St. Andrew!

Catholic Charities 'Mercy in Action' is Saturday, October 26, 2019 – Join us!

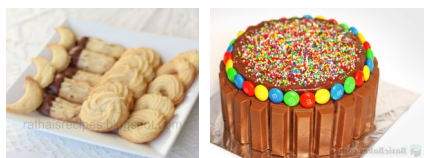

"Mercy is dynamic, not so much a noun...or [an] adjective, but rather a verb – 'to show mercy' and 'to receive mercy' – that spurs us to action in this world."

St. Andrew will be collaborating with Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan, St. Irenaeus and St. Mary of the Hills for our third annual Mercy in Action event on Saturday, October 26th, 2019.

Volunteers serve parish communities and local neighborhoods providing corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The half day will begin at St. Irenaeus with check-in, prayer, refreshments, connecting with your work group, and departing to your service site.

If you are interested in helping plan and coordinate this event, as well as serving as a site leader, please contact Sam Jennings at samj@standrewchurch.org

Baked Goods Needed for Picnic Cake Walk

The Parish Picnic, Sept. 15, will once again feature a Cake Walk where anyone can win cookies, cakes or cupcakes.

Do you love to bake? Consider donating home-made goods. Examples: Cupcakes in groups of ½ dozen; cookies in groups of ½ or one dozen, depending on size; cakes, securely wrapped. Items should be packaged in a way that would make you happy to win it! Gluten-free items are welcome! (Please label as such.)

Baked goods can be delivered to the Parish Center the day before or the morning of the picnic. Call 248-651-6571 if you'd like to help us out.

Great service for Confirmation candidates!

Got Faith?

We are already planning for fall and are looking for catechists to share their faith with our young parishioners. Do you enjoy working with Pre-schoolers? Middle School students? An age somewhere in-between? We would love to talk to you about the possibilities. Contact our staff at 248-651-6571. Resources, support and prayers are provided!

2nd Confirmation Retreat ...

Saturday, Sept. 7 (Last names M-Z, or those who have made a switch)

10am-4pm in the Activities Building

Morning snack and lunch will be provided.

No need to bring your journal.

Please make sure the retreat fee and paperwork are submitted.

Group discussion leaders are still needed to make this retreat run smoothly. Please consider being a part of the Confirmation journey of our 195 candidates. For information or to volunteer, contact Maureen Schreffler at maureens@standrewchurch.org or Margaret Kozak at margaretk@standrewchurch.org or call the RE office at 248-651-6571.

Confirmation families: if we have accommodated you with date changes, or you have not yet volunteered, please be especially mindful in considering this invitation. Thank you.

Confirmation Candidates...

Need a service opportunity?

The Parish Picnic committee needs you!
Check out their notice in this bulletin for ways to volunteer the weekend of Sept. 14-15.

Back to school blessing

Dear Heavenly Father,

For all the children returning to school, send your Holy Spirit as their guide and protector.

Keep them free from danger and unnecessary harm.
Put our sons and daughters in the right place, at the right time, to receive your grace.
Let them learn and grow strong. May the presence of your Spirit fill their hearts.
Help us to mature as parents and caregivers.

Bless every family, oh Lord.

We entrust our children to you, dear God.
Since from the beginning, they are yours to keep.

In the name of the greatest Son of all, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

BACK TO SCHOOL BLESSING

God of knowledge & wisdom, bless all students young & old, as they begin a new school year. Help them discover & develop the gifts you have given. As they grow in knowledge, help them to also grow in kindness & compassion, learning respect for themselves & others.

We ask your blessing on parents & all those who care for students. Strengthen them to surround our students with encouragement, support, & love.

Remind us that wherever we go, you are always with us. Fill us with the joy of learning so that we may be better equipped to be your servants.

Amen

The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing.

To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable and we are sorry.

In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information - already available on aod.org - more visible, transparent and clear.
