On The Journey

+English explorers Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed the boundary between Pennsylvania and Maryland in 1767. The border has come to be known as the Mason-Dixon Line. During the American Civil War a century later, it was the dividing line between the Union and the Confederacy.

There is a story of a man whose property was right on top of this invisible line separating the states. During the war, he feared both sides would view him as a traitor so he decided to wear a Confederate jacket and Union pants. When the fighting got too close to home, he was in big trouble. The Union muskets were fired at his chest, and the Confederacy shot at his knees, a grim reminder that we cannot serve two masters.

Such is the challenge between the pursuit of holiness versus the pursuit of wealth and power. This was the focus of today's first reading from the Prophet Amos. Sometime around 750 BC, the shepherd Amos was called to leave one flock in service of another. God sent him north into Israel to convict people for their sins against the Covenant – working on the Sabbath and cheating the poor out of their hard-earned money.

Amos knows that the merchants in the Temple are fixing their scales to cheat the pilgrims coming to Jerusalem for the feast. These wealthy men became rich and made themselves richer by taking advantage of the less fortunate. Never will I forget a thing they have done, the prophet says, speaking for God. It is an announcement of God's judgment on those who are deaf to the cry of the poor. They were in need of forgiveness, but would only receive it if they humbled themselves to ask for it.

In writing to Timothy, Saint Paul affirms God's desire that we all ask for and receive his mercy, and then share it with one another. Paul thought this important especially for kings and all those in authority, that they might lead a quiet and tranquil life, one without anger or argument. It is God's great desire that everyone be saved and...come to knowledge of the truth.

Mercy and forgiveness are in the message of the parable of the steward that Jesus tells in today's Gospel. The steward is quite creative in dealing with the loss of his job. The steward was not forgiven his debt, but he does forgive the debt of one who owes him a large sum of wheat. Jesus compliments the man for his ability to look beyond earthly wealth to store up for himself treasure in heaven. This appears to be

A Catechist's Prayer

Father of all families, you have called me to serve the family in truth and love as a catechist. May I be faithful to this call, rooted in your Word, and open to the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

May I use these gifts, especially the gifts of faith, hope, and love, to serve the family as a witness to you, who are love and life and the source and destiny of all families.

Through the intercession of Mary and Joseph, I pray for the Church, the Bride of Christ, whose mission to build a civilization of love passes through the family.

Amen.

Jesus; way of getting our minds out of our pocketbook and into his holy book. The Lord desires that we all show such industry in our pursuit of eternal life.

Experience tells us that wealth may leave us or be taken away, but God is a firm anchor. The dollar in our pocket is here today and gone tomorrow, but the Lord is always there for us, and all around us. The late Evangelist Billy Graham said the Lord gave us two hands – one to give, one to receive. We need both. Fold those two hands together and we can pray to God who is the source of every blessing. What Amos says is true – that God never forgets a thing we have done – so let us at least live a life worthy of remembering, a life full of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

+Many, many thanks to all who worked so hard in making our building dedication and parish picnic such a wonderful time! As always, there are hundreds to acknowledge, so forgive me for this general “shout-out” of gratitude for all that you have done; I know that our good and gracious Lord will bless you many times over for the sacrifices you made and the gifts of time and talent that you shared with our parish family. Special shout-outs go to Dianne Cameron, Sharon Rauch, and Ann Sliney for their constant monitoring and planning over this past year as we approached this day - you continue to reign as our “picnic queens!”

Hopefully you enjoyed the “glimpse” of space to come! Still a fair amount of work to be done, mostly inside. As I write today, the tile is being installed in the main part of the room. The speaker system is also going in at this time. Maybe by the weekend, the grass sod will be installed, and the hydro-seeding will be completed. The doorway to Stephan’s new office has been cut through the wall (yeah!!). More of the cabinetry has yet to go in. Like I said, there is still much to be done!

I am happy to report to you that with recent CSA donations, we have now reached $612,058 in payments and pledges. Against our target of $352,457, that would generate a potential refund of $259,601 to go toward our project. My prayerful gratitude for your generosity! If you haven’t made a pledge yet, there is still time to do so; just make sure your donation is marked for the CSA to get applied to the building project.

+I was very happy to hear the results of our signature collection efforts for the petition to end dismemberment abortions: we had 640 signatures gathered at the masses and dedication & picnic this past weekend! A job well-done to all our volunteers!

+This Sunday we wish Fr. Tom a happy birthday! Please keep him in your prayers, remembering the gifts and talents he shares in his ministry to the good people of St. Andrew Parish. Sto lat, Fr. Tom!

+ As always, I look forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from

Holy Hour for Intercessory Prayer

Wednesday, September 25

On Wednesday, September 25 at the conclusion of daily Mass, there will be a Holy Hour with Exposition and adoration for the intentions of intercessory prayer. All are welcome!

St. Vincent de Paul, (born April 24, 1581, Pouy, now Saint-Vincent-de-Paul, France—died September 27, 1660, Paris; canonized 1737; feast day September 27), French saint, founder of the Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians) for preaching missions to the peasantry and for educating and training a pastoral clergy. The patron saint of charitable societies, St. Vincent de Paul is primarily recognized for his charity and compassion for the poor

After founding the Congregation of the Mission in 1625, Vincent de Paul established in and around Paris the Confraternities of Charity—associations of laywomen who visited, fed, and nursed the sick poor. With St. Louise de Marillac he cofounded the Daughters of Charity in 1633.

The association was patterned after the Confraternities of Charity and was the first noncloistered religious institute of women devoted to active charitable works.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a Catholic charitable organization dedicated to the service of the poor, was founded by Blessed Antoine Frédéric Ozanam in 1833. St. Vincent de Paul is the patron of charities, hospitals, prisoners, and the Malagasy Republic (Madagascar).

Hearing Assist Devices

Did you know that St. Andrew has Hearing Assist Devices available for use during Mass? These devices amplify the sounds in the church enabling those using the devices to better hear the presider, the readings, and the music. They may be used even if you already have a hearing aid. If you would like to borrow one of the units while you are at Church, they are available in the East Sacristy. Please see one of the ushers or a Mass Coordinator to sign one out.

Praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy

You are invited to join with other parishioners after morning Mass to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy in the Church. All are welcome to join in on this brief service of prayer. When school or funeral masses (and their associated set-ups) conflict for use of the church, the chaplet prayer gathering may be moved to the Cry Room.

Petition Drive Update

Thank you! Thank you to all 640 parishioners who took a moment to sign the petition to end dismemberment abortion last weekend. A special thank you to the over 30 volunteers (especially the Knights of Columbus) who helped collect signatures after Mass and at the picnic last weekend — we could not have done this without you! God bless you for your commitment to speaking up for LIFE! If you did not have a chance to sign the petition, but would like to, please contact Sam Jennings at samj@standrewchurch.org or stop by the parish office!
