On The Journey

+Each of us has a list of responsibilities that are important. We have work and families, organizations we support and people who depend on us. We try to fulfill all our duties properly. This is part of living a good, Christian life.

Undoubtedly, there are times when we could give more, and maybe even sometimes when it would be best to give a little less. But we feel committed to doing what's asked of us, and when we do these things, we feel we've done what we should – what God asks of us.

And yet, in this weekend's Gospel Jesus tells us that this is not enough. Simply fulfilling what is required as a parent, child, guardian, employee, committee chairperson, or neighbor is not the essence of discipleship.

Listen again to what Jesus says: If any one comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

The force of a text like this reframes the ordinary world we know. Jesus' words should shake us up. So let's let these words do just that. According to Jesus, what is discipleship?

Discipleship is not just one more hobby or extracurricular activity. Discipleship is why we do what we do, mindful of the costs it brings.

What Jesus commands is prioritizing Him as the source of our life, and as its ultimate end. It is making our love for Him the ordering principle of everything else we do. For without Him, nothing else really matters – does it?

+NEXT SUNDAY IS THE DEDICATION OF OUR NEW FACILITIES & CELEBRATION OF OUR COMMUNITY WITH OUR PARISH PICNIC! Please join us at the Noon Mass when Archbishop Vigneron will preside and bless our new buildings; I hope we have a great turnout for this special liturgical event....and then stay with us for some good old fashioned hospitality and fun as we celebrate the faith family here at St. Andrew – a community of 107 years of service to our Lord and to this wonderful city of Rochester and surrounding area. Let us be mindful to give thanks and praise for the blessings we have received, and to those which I know our gracious God will continue to bestow upon us all!

+This week, as was last, continues to be super-busy with all the work going on around the parish complex in pushing our project to completion. Work focuses on completing the interior space of the west gathering area. There is still work to be completed outside with regard to the lots, lighting and landscaping. Your continued patience is much appreciated. Your prayers for our construction efforts and the safety of all involved is important, too, along with your financial support through our 2019 CSA campaign in support of our project. May the Lord bless you for the sacrifices you have made! And as Blessed Fr. Solanus Casey would encourage, thanks in advance for all that you will do!

+Happy Grandparents Day to all our grandmothers and grandfathers in the parish – as well as to those who might act in the role of a grandparent! Thank you for the care and guidance you offer to our little ones. May the Holy Spirit continue to guard and bless you - to help you in the responsibilities you fulfill! May you enjoy the blessings of family!

+This coming Wednesday is Patriot Day, a day on which we honor and remember the events of September 11, 2001. We remember all those who died, and all those who gave of themselves untiringly in helping with the aftermath of the surprise attacks on our country. May we never forget, and constantly pray for those immediately impacted by these disasters.

+Because of the Labor Day holiday, I am writing this on the Thursday BEFORE Labor Day. I hope and pray that everyone enjoyed the “unofficial” end of summer – and of course, now the start of the new school year! We pray for special blessings and guidance of the Holy Spirit upon all our students and those who work as teachers and administrators in the field of education.

+With excitement building for next week’s celebrations, I look forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from

Youth and Young Adult Ministry

“What’s Your Story?” is the theme of the upcoming Engaging the Young Church Conference, to be held September 27 and 28 for those who minister to youth and young adults in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Your CSA gifts help fund this two-day conference, which provides priests, deacons, parish catechetical leaders, volunteers, and youth, young adult, and junior high ministers with the latest ministry tools and resources, encouragement, and inspiration for this ministry. Keynote presentations will focus on figuring out one’s own story, sharing God’s love with others, helping families and youth grow as disciples, and witnessing the faith.

The Engaging the Young Church Conference will be held at St. Anastasia Parish in Troy, and will feature 14 workshops. Registration is required by September 14.

For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, go to aod.org

WORSHIP

"The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows. For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of His Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord's supper." - Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 10

The word "liturgy" from Greek refers to "the work of the people". Our Christian liturgy is really God's work, in which we cooperate. St. Andrew Worship Commission is looking for members of the parish, of various ages and backgrounds, who are faithful in participating in the liturgical life of the parish and are interested in participating in the meetings and the ongoing work of the commission.

The commission serves in an advisory capacity to :

- Assess the needs of the assembly
- Advise on liturgical matters and the condition of the liturgical space
- Provides for liturgical education of parishioners
- Helps develop competent liturgical ministers

The commission meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30pm. If you are interested in joining the commission, please contact Nikki at the parish office.

Lectio: Prayer

Session 1: Prayer

Prayer as a Conversation

Prayer is one of the most basic elements of a life of faith, but sometimes it feels like a one-way "conversation." Dr. Gray shows how the solution to this problem can be found in the Scriptures.

"Dr. Tim Gray explains the practice of Lectio in a way that makes you thirst for more!"

Petition Drive

Sat. Sept. 14– Sun. Sept 15

A statewide signature gathering effort, supported by the Catholic bishops of Michigan, is now underway to ban dismemberment abortion.

There will be an opportunity to sign the petition at St. Andrew after the weekend Masses on Sept. 14– 15.

We are seeking volunteers to help collect signatures after each of the Masses.

If you are interested in supporting this important effort, please contact Sam Jennings at samj@standrewchurch.org

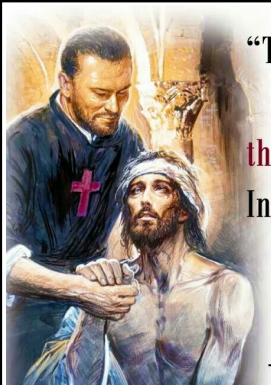

Sat. Oct. 26, 2019 – Join us!

St. Andrew will be collaborating with St. Irenaeus and St. Mary of the Hills for our third annual Mercy in Action event on Saturday, October 26th, 2019.

Volunteers serve parish communities and local neighborhoods providing corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The half day will begin at St. Irenaeus with check-in, prayer, refreshments, connecting with your work group, and departing to your service site.

If you are interested in helping plan and coordinate this event, as well as serving as a site leader, please contact Sam Jennings at samj@standrewchurch.org

Christian Service Commission

Do you enjoy volunteering, organizing and simply “getting involved?” Are you looking for a new way to put your faith into action?

Then the St. Andrew Christian Service Commission just may be the place for you!

The Christian Service Commission develops programs or actions that help parishioners become aware of human needs and to respond in the name of Christ. This is done in two ways: through direct service (works of mercy), and through action for change (works of justice). The Commission develops leadership, fosters a sense of community, provides education regarding the baptismal call to ministry, and encourages action which serves the broader community, as well as the parish.

Opportunities to live out our discipleship through Christian Service are many and varied, and include:

- Organizing prayer services, donation drives, and direct service opportunities to support the “least of these”.
 - Providing educational and advocacy opportunities for parishioners on issues of justice
 - Prayerful discernment regarding the distribution of tithing monies to charitable organizations.
 - Developing content for a Christian Service newsletter and the bulletin

Please consider joining the Christian Service Commission! We welcome your ideas and passionate support for the most vulnerable and marginalized in our world including the poor & homeless, migrants & refugees, the victims of racism, those imprisoned & on death row, and the unborn.

Thursday Morning Women's Bible Study

Join us every other Thursday morning from 9:30-11:30 for faith formation, fellowship, and prayer. We will start the year with Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance with a @meet and greet@on September 5. Meeting location TBD. Book cost is expected to be $25 and can be paid with cash or check payable to St. Andrew. For more information, or to join, please contact Meghan Murphy at m24msu@gmail.com or 248-330-2649.

Ephesians was one of the most widely circulated of St. Paul's writings because of its powerful, practical instructions for disciples of Christ. In fact, its six short chapters contain some of the most discussed passages in the New Testament. This study examines several much-discussed themes in today's Christian culture and society—the nature of marriage, the purpose and role of the Church, the preeminence of grace in God's plan, and the reality of spiritual warfare.

Who's Your Catechist?

"Who's Your Catechist?" is a new feature created to highlight our awesome catechists, many of whom have been volunteering in Faith Formation for many years. We asked catechists to answer a few simple questions about their experiences. This week's catechist is Andy Groen.

Andy has been a catechist for 22 years, 2 years with 6th graders and 20 years with 8th. He felt a nudge from the Holy Spirit following a request for catechists during Mass one Sunday, and has never looked back. Andy feels it is his "Heaven insurance."

He has fond memories of sharing personal stories and news stories with the students which helped them relate and open up with their own stories. He also has enjoyed playing "hangman" using faith-related terms such as "transubstantiation" which produced some pretty comical responses.

When asked about why he likes being a catechist, Andy said he likes getting to know the other catechists, working with the wonderful Faith Formation Staff, and learning more about our Catholic faith. But his two favorite things about being a Catechist are the holy moments that are made possible within the classroom setting that allow the students to freely share their faith and the trust that is created from those moments, and that being a Catechist requires him to focus on what is truly important ... our relationship with Christ, and sharing his message with others.

We appreciate Andy Groen, and all our catechists who make sharing faith a priority in their lives. Watch for more stories about our wonderful catechists.

Would you like to join the fun? See the "Catechists Still Needed" box for opportunities!

I am a Child of God

I am LOVED!

I am a Child of God

I am LOVED!

I am a Child of God; I am Loved!

"I am a Child of God, I am LOVED!" This is our theme for the new school year. To become joyful missionary disciples of Christ, we must first understand that we are children of God. We are created by God in His own image. We are loved beyond our own human understanding. This is the most important message we must give our children. It is the most important message we must embrace for ourselves in our faith. This year's theme will encourage growing into a deeper and more personal relationship with God. We were brought into the family of God at our baptism, and we are holy people! We should strive to know better the one who loves us the most. To be in relationship with someone, we must know the person. To grow deeply in love, we must first know that person loves us. Our goal is to explore different types of prayer this year and to understand why we pray. We will encourage students to interview their parents and grandparents on their relationship with God and discover who first led them to God. We will also focus on the beauty of the Holy Mass, where we relive the life and death of Jesus, and then become one with him. Our theme song this year is Hillsong's "Who You Say I Am." The lyrics of this song remind us that we are unique, we are special, we are chosen, and we are loved. God is our father, and we are His children!

The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing.

To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable and we are sorry.

In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information - already available on aod.org - more visible, transparent and clear.
