On The Journey

+God is a God who loves all things that are; He is a lover of souls. God is merciful and looks beyond our sins to give us the opportunity to repent. God's love sustains and holds us into being at every moment. God breathes into us the very breath of life, every moment like Adam's first breath. This love of God empties itself into our humanity in Jesus. God takes the initiative and comes to meet us – not just halfway, but all the way, in Jesus.

This weekend, we hear the story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus; recall the story: It takes place in the town of Jericho, which is perhaps most famous for the opening battle of the Israelite occupation of the Promised Land. During that battle, the Hebrew army issued battle trumpets, normally restricted to squad leaders, to every soldier. At night, they marched around the city, blowing their trumpets. The inhabitants of Jericho were so frightened that they surrendered without a fight. The walls of Jericho came tumbling down.

Perhaps Luke, in his Gospel, wants us to see how other walls can come tumbling down. He writes, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Zacchaeus, a chief tax collector and a wealthy man, wants to see Jesus. By this time in Jesus' ministry, who wouldn't want to see Jesus, right? But Zacchaeus couldn't see Jesus because he was too short to see over the crowds. So we hear that he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Him.

Jesus sees Zacchaeus in the tree, orders him down from it, and then says, today I must stay at your house. It appears he is no longer "passing through," as He initially intended! Zacchaeus came down quickly and received [Jesus] with joy. He repents, offers to give half his possessions to the poor, and repay... four times over anyone he has defrauded.

And while the crowd grumbles at what they see, complaining of Jesus' association with sinners, they miss history repeating itself in front of their eyes: for here in Jericho, Jesus has broken the walls of sin and greed that have surrounded Zacchaeus, and Zacchaeus has surrendered to Jesus' trumpet call to become a disciple. Jesus tells him, Today salvation has come to this house.

Whatever tree we need to climb to see Jesus, whatever tree we need to descend in order to embrace Him, salvation awaits us. Jesus seeks us out, and with the gift of faith we respond. For into the heart and house of the one who repents and welcomes the Son of Man, salvation has come.

Salvation has come to this house – this community of St. Andrew, and comes to be present on the altar during every celebration of the Eucharist. In grace, we are called to it, with grace may we receive it and then, going forth grace-filled, announce it to the whole world! Amen!

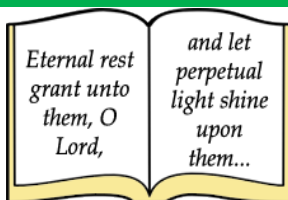

+Work continues on the electrical and IT/communications aspect of our building addition at present. Hopefully this weekend we also see the old wooden light poles disappear through the work of DTE, so we can work at finishing off on the parking lot (The asphalt company is hoping to come over only once more and complete the rest of this work, which includes striping in certain areas.) As I indicated last weekend, through your generosity in CSA, we are also working on some cement work on the side walk leading to the Activities Building, both from the church side as well as the playground area. It was much needed and becoming more and more of a safety concern. And speaking of CSA, we are now up to $670k in donations and pledges; thank you, thank you, thank you!!

+A busy few days for all of us, I am sure....but remember that we have another "JAM" session in church on Sunday night, offering an opportunity of praise and worship and a chance to "slow it down" a bit and spend some time with the Lord. Please join us if you can. Then on Monday, November 4, we have our annual Mass of Remembrance set for 7 p.m. in the church. While we specially remember those who have died and were buried from St. Andrew over the last year, this mass is open to all as we enter the month of November, a time in which we remember the faithful departed in a most special way.

WORSHIP

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Romans 8:38-39

Book of Remembrance

Parishioners are invited to write the names of their family members and friends who have passed away in the last year in our Parish Book of Remembrance during the month of November. All who are listed will be remembered in prayer. Names that have previously been entered do not need to be entered again.

Second Annual Parish Day of Renewal

On Saturday, November 16, we are inviting all parish volunteers, parishioners, and lay ecclesial ministers be part of the movement of Unleash the Gospel. The day will include keynote addresses from Sister Miriam James, SOLT and 4 tracks of breakout sessions. These sessions will equip parishioners to live out Unleash the Gospel in their family and in their parish. Each breakout track includes three sessions led by an expert in the field. Attendees will leave with not only knowledge in this area but ready-to-use tools to incorporate UTG into their parish or family. Each participant must register for one track, which includes three sessions. Visit pdr2019.eventbrite.com for more information and to register.

SECOND ANNUAL

Parish Day of Renewal

Encountering the Risen Christ with Sr. Miriam James Heidland, Keynote Speaker

Join us for a day of fellowship and formation to become better equipped to unleash the Gospel in your parish community!

+Don't forget to vote on Tuesday if your city/township has elections. How blessed we are to have such a freedom in this great country of ours!

+My prayerful gratitude to those who joined us the other week for our Visioning for the Future session. We will continue to work on planning to engage the Holy Spirit in helping us Unleash the Gospel in our hearts, our homes, our community, so there will be other gatherings in the future. Please consider joining us at one of those times. A special "shout-out" of appreciation to those who participated in Mercy in Action Day last weekend, including the many who helped fill three pods full of gently used clothing and household items. These are ways in which you help to Unleash the Gospel in our community!

+Remember to pray for our students who will be celebrating Confirmation next Saturday at 11 a.m. with Bishop Donald Hanchon. We ask the Holy Spirit to guard and guide them on their journey through life!

+While it's been beautiful to look at the changing colors on the trees it sure has been getting a lot colder these days! And with us changing back to Daylight Standard Time this weekend, we are reminded that winter is not too far away. (You did remember to change your clocks, right??!!)

+Hope to see you in church! God bless!

ST ANDREW YOUTH

A Christian Is Like a Jack O Lantern

God picks you from the patch, brings you in, and washes all the dirt off of you.
Then He cuts off the top and scoops out all the yucky stuff.
He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, and greed.
Then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you to shine for all the world to see.

Who's Your Catechist?

Lisa Palazzolo is one of our awesome fourth grade catechists. Lisa has been teaching in our faith formation program for seven years now. Previously she had taught faith formation at other churches, before having her own kids. Lisa feels the St. Andrew program is outstanding, that there is a tremendous amount of work that goes into the lessons, projects, crafts, and stories. "The fabulous support team makes it so much easier to focus on the kids. To share your faith, and get your priorities in line. Whatever time you sacrifice to prepare, it is really rewarding."

Lisa often has the children act out stories from the bible. Some of her favorite memories were during Advent, acting out the Annunciation and the Visitation. She loved how excited the kids were and they did a fabulous job.

When asked about what she likes the most about being a catechist, Lisa said that she enjoys sharing her faith and it is awesome when she can take holiday traditions, and every day happenings to help the kids see how God is really a part of everything in their world.

Lisa also says that even though you are the teacher, you walk away having learned so much more. You are growing with the kids.

We are so thankful to have Lisa and many others who share their time and talent, growing in faith together with the children and serving our community.

RELIGIOUS FORMATION

We are thrilled to be offering Catechesis of the Good Shepherd to our Young 5 and Kindergarten students this year. It is a religious experience for children and adults focused on contemplation and enjoyment of God. This experience is shared in a prepared environment, using the Montessori philosophy, called the Atrium. Our Atrium is in the Parish Center at the North Campus. This sacred space is an important element that helps the relationship between God and the child flourish. We are offering this weekly to our youngest children this year, and each year will add one more grade. We pray our children feel God's presence in their lives and respond with exuberant gratitude! To learn more visit www.cgsusa.org.
