On The Journey

+In two readings this Sunday, people are cured of their leprosy – Naaman by the prophet Elisha, and 10 people, including a Samaritan, by Jesus. In both of these healings, the people are restored to physical and communal life – renewed in health and re-established in a society that had kept them separate for fear of contagion.

In each reading, there is a response to this healing. Naaman expresses gratitude to Elisha and asks for two mule-loads of earth so that he can offer his sacrifices to the God of Elisha rather than his own god. The Samaritan, the only one of the 10 who appears to realize that he has been cured, returns to Jesus and glorifies God. In both cases, faith had saved them and had prompted the proper response.

Jesus, the eternal Word of God, is still healing us today. If we turn to Jesus in trust, He can cleanse us of the most basic of all human ailments – sin. Jesus, the Word of God, is unchained, as Saint Paul writes to Timothy. He remains faithful to those who are faithful. And we, who have died to sin with Him in Baptism, shall also live with Him. This gift of life, of restoring us to communion with God, is one available to us in faith. When accepted in faith, the only proper response is worship.

The more we respond in faith and in worship, the greater the graces, and the easier and more joyful is our relationship with the Triune God – who desires nothing more than for us to spend eternity with Him.

We see in these readings that the proper response to God is worship – in gratitude and in faith. May the graces we receive continue to transform us and bring us ever closer to Him!

+My heartfelt and prayerful gratitude to all who helped in any way with the celebration of Fr. Tim Babcock's funeral last Monday. We were blessed to have him join us at the dedication just two short weeks before his death. I know how happy he was to engage many in conversation that day of his visit. I, too, was blessed to talk with him on the Sunday before his passing. I was also part of a small group of priests who gathered monthly for support and social engagement, and Fr. Babcock was also part of that group.

Again, thanks to anyone and everyone who helped in this celebration of his life! Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Amen!

+Thanks to the folks who have stepped forward in offering financial support to our gem of education and faith formation – Holy Family Regional School. Your support helps provide a truly “top-notch” opportunity to help many students grow in faith and knowledge, preparing them very well spiritually, mentally, physically, and psychologically as they grow into the people that God has called them to be.

+This coming week, the priests of the Archdiocese gather for our Convocation with the Archbishop, to be held this year back up at Boyne Mountain. It is a time of prayer and conversation, a little bit of a spiritual retreat, and fraternity. It is a time when the Archbishop has mostly all of us gathered together at one time, to share some of his visions and ideas and we move forward in Unleashing the Gospel and move toward being Sent on Mission to do that in our parish communities and our Archdiocese as a whole. Please remember to pray for Fr. Tom and myself, and all the bishops and priests who will be gathering – for an enriching time and safe journeys!

While we are away (leaving Sunday evening and returning Thursday evening), we will have Scripture services each and every morning. I hope you will gather in communion and pray for us, as we will be remembering all of you in our prayer.

+And in this week of gathering, I will also be partaking in the conference of school leadership for the Michigan Association of Non-public Schools – MANS, for short. This is a group of administrators for Catholic and other denominational schools throughout the entire state. This conference starts on Wednesday and in the evening, offers a banquet as they gather. Also at this dinner, there will be recognition given for leadership of the three different branches of participating schools (Catholic, Lutheran and Other denominational).

I will be recognized this year with the Fr. John Zwiers Award for Pastor of a Catholic School throughout the entire state, due to the role I have with Holy Family Regional School. I am much honored to have been nominated and be the recipient of this year’s award; it was truly a surprise to learn of my recognition! What makes it more exciting is that I will be able to attend the banquet to receive the award since it is only a relatively short distance away from the Convocation, over in Traverse City! How wonderful for it all to come together. I thank Mr. Jon Myers, our principal, and the entire school staff for nominating me; it is really through their hard work that we have such a great institution, of which I am honored to be their shepherd. My gratitude to Holy Family!

+I want to thank those who, of surprising memory (at least to me!), remembered that last Saturday, October 5th, was my seven year anniversary as pastor of this wonderful parish of St. Andrew. (And you thought I would be here just four or five months.....!) I ask for your continued prayers and support as we work together to build up our parish community, helping to Unleash the Gospel among us!

And speaking of anniversaries, I was able to attend my 50 year class reunion from St. Anthony High in Detroit (which was located down by Gratiot and East Grand Boulevard). As a class officer (treasurer, what else?!), I was part of a great committee who, over the last year, worked hard on putting on a wonderful evening filled with fun and laughter, great food and dancing, and of course, wonderful memories. As the class of 1969, we were the last graduating class of that school, which then became Detroit East Catholic and stayed open for about 20 more years.

+As always, I look forward to seeing you in church next weekend!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from

Mass with Anointing of the Sick

Saturday, November 2 at 12:00pm

During the course of the year the parish has a special Mass for those who desire to receive the Anointing of the Sick during Mass. As we approach our communal celebration of the Sacrament, it seems appropriate to provide some basic information about what the Church teaches.

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is NOT just for the dying! It is also a beautiful sacrament for healing and strength. The Catechism of the Catholic Church's section on the Anointing of the Sick defines the purpose of the sacrament as "the conferral of a special grace on the Christian experiencing the difficulties inherent in the condition of grave illness or old age." (Catechism, 1527)

The Sacrament of Anointing is appropriate for those whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or advanced age. This includes persons who are seriously ill whether at home, in hospitals or in nursing homes, as well as seriously sick children who are old enough to experience benefit from the Sacrament. Those who will be undergoing surgery may also benefit from the Sacrament. While the parish will have a special Mass with Anointing of the Sick in October, the Sacrament of Anointing is available year round and can be arranged by calling the parish office.

If you would like to be anointed at this mass, please call the parish office with your name and phone number by October 30th.

October 12th & 13th: Racism & the Global Migration and Refugee Crisis

"There are no single-issue saints...[rather] the saints teach us that whenever human life is threatened, whenever the image of God is obscured and violated, we are called to rise up and defend it."

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, in their pastoral letter from 2018, "Open Wide our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love," unequivocally states that, "racism is a life issue", as "the injustice and harm racism causes are an attack on human life."

They continue by stating that the history of institutional and systemic racism in the United States has left us with a society in which, people of color are "disproportionally affected by poverty, targeted for abortion, have less access to healthcare, have the greatest numbers on death row, and are most likely to feel pressure to end their lives when facing serious illness".

"While we may not personally be racist, the economic and social consequences of racism still threaten the lives of our brothers and sisters of color. As Christians, we are called "to join others in advocating and promoting policies...that will combat racism and its effects in our civic and social institutions".

Similarly, the church views the global migration and refugee crisis, in which a record number of people have been forced from home and struggle to find safety, as a life issue. His Eminence, Archbishop Seán Cardinal O'Malley, O.F.M. Cap, explained in a 2014 homily, "We know that the border is lined with unmarked graves of thousands who die alone and nameless." Immigration is "another pro-life issue," the cardinal reminds us, echoing our Holy Father Pope Francis, who views abortion, extreme economic inequality and the death of migrants as part of a "globalization of indifference" and a "throwaway culture" that treats human beings as disposable.

Bishop Daniel E. Flores of Brownsville, Texas, stated in an interview with Crux that support for mass deportation is "formal cooperation with an intrinsic evil - not unlike driving someone to an abortion clinic" as deportation to Central America and Mexico places migrants "in proximate danger of death".

Don't forget to stop by the Respect Life Bulletin Board in the Narthex to learn more and find ways to get involved in building a culture of life!

RESPECT LIFE
MONTH
October 2019

As we continue along our journey as a people of life, let us not forget that, "as Christians, we cannot be indifferent to the contempt and discrimination experienced by those who do not belong to 'our group'... We cannot remain insensitive, our hearts deadened, before the misery of so many innocent people. We must not fail to weep. We must not fail to respond."

The Answer Is...

A catechist was introducing a lesson on all the animals God created. So she began with a guessing game. "I like nuts and I live in trees. Who am I?" No one offered an answer, so she continued. "I can live in the park or in your backyard." Again, no one spoke up. So then she said, "I can be brown or grey or black and I have a bushy tale." Still, no one wanted to guess. Finally she asked one little girl who always knew the answers, "Mary, what do you think?" Mary looked doubtful but said, "I know the answer is Jesus, but it sure sounds like a squirrel to me."

Our Faith Formation groups heard this story recently as we introduced this year's theme, "The Answer is Jesus." They were reminded that we should strive to keep Jesus at the center of our lives. When we are sad or worried, we can count on Jesus to be near us. When we are happy or excited Jesus is with us then, too. Jesus is the answer in our lives in good times and bad, in all situations.

When we experience anxiety or sadness, we can offer it up in prayer. Knowing that Jesus is with us in our difficulties makes life more bearable. We can offer up our joy as well, in thanks and praise. In 1Thessalonians 5:16-18, St. Paul tells us, "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." Holding Jesus close and talking to him often helps us appreciate that the answer truly is Jesus!

Blessings, Maureen Schreffler

Trust.

Webster's defines trust as

- 1 a: assured reliance on the character, ability, strength, or truth of someone or something
- b: one in which confidence is placed
- 2 a: dependence on something future or contingent : HOPE

Proverbs 3:5-6 says

*Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight.
In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.*

So the question is, do you trust God? Do you allow him in the "drivers seat" or do you need all the control? We are told to put all our trust in God and his plan for our lives and when we do all will be well. Don't forget to trust his timing. Not everything happens in the particular order or timing we want. This level of trust is difficult especially when we are going through something painful or troublesome, but if we allow the lord in the "driver's seat" during those times something good comes out of it. We become stronger, better and more faithful.

I'm always amazed at how God works, especially when I wave the white flag (laughing), saying: Lord you take over because I'm making a mess of it.

So who's in your "drivers seat"? Have you waved the white flag and surrendered to the will of God?

"Let us trust in him who has placed this burden upon us. What we ourselves cannot bear let us bear with the help of Christ. For he is all-powerful, and he tells us: 'My yoke is easy, and my burden light.'"

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and Children

How does one become Catholic?

Many Catholics are born into Catholic families and gradually come to share in the full Sacramental life of the Church. Others, previously baptized in other Christian Churches or never baptized, become Catholic through a process known as The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Children over the age of seven participate in a modified process, The Rite of Christian Initiation of Children. The Rites of Initiation of adults and children are the Catholic Church's way of initiating new members. At St. Andrew Parish we warmly welcome new members and attempt to provide an appropriate spiritual formation for each inquirer.

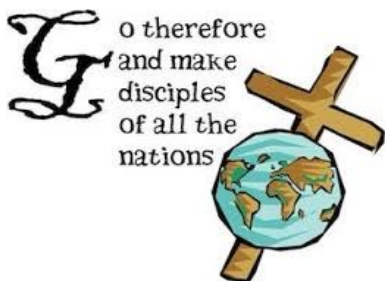

Who may participate?

Those never baptized as Christians. Those baptized in another Christian faith tradition now interested in the Catholic tradition. Those baptized in the Catholic tradition whose sacramental reception is not complete. Children over the age of seven who have not received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist or Confirmation.

How long is the process?

RCIA is not a class or a program but a process of conversion. It prepares one to embark on a journey of faith that leads to a lifelong commitment as a Catholic. All Catholics are called to daily conversion and renewal of our faith journey. RCIA stresses the need for a living experience of Church as a "people of God" and not just "knowledge" about the Church. A person's desire to turn toward God (conversion) and become connected to a community does not happen instantaneously, but takes time as the Holy Spirit nurtures the deepening desire within. The usual length of preparation is approximately nine months to a year. In most cases, the initiation of new members is celebrated at the Easter Vigil.

For more information on initiation of adults, please contact Susan Kowalski at (248) 651-7486 x105, or susank@standrewchurch.org. For more information on initiation of children, please contact Maureen Schreffler at (248) 651-7486 x116, or maureens@standrewchurch.org.

The St. Andrew Evangelization Committee is taking a fresh look at our parish's mission and activities in the context of the New Evangelization. We are witnessing an exciting new phase in our Church aimed at spiritual growth through encounter and witness. The committee hopes to be offering creative new approaches to our mission guided by the directives contained in the Archbishop's Pastoral Letter "Unleash the Gospel".

The next phase of Unleash the Gospel focuses on the renewal of our parish communities so they become what God intended them to be: places where individuals and families encounter Jesus anew, grow as his disciples and are equipped to be witnesses of the Risen Christ.

All Christians are called to evangelize. Jesus commissioned the disciples, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:18-19). The last command Jesus gave his disciples before he ascended was, "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). The Church exists to evangelize. This is not just the job of priest and religious, but of all Christians!

If you feel called to be part of a team of dynamic individuals who are working to share the Good News with others, and also grow spiritually at the same time, we invite you to join us. The Evangelization Committee meets on the first Tuesday of every month at 7:30 pm. For more information, please contact Susan Kowalski at susank@standrewchurch.org or 248-651-7846, Ext. 105.

Come, Encounter Christ!

A special "Come, Encounter Christ!" gathering for youth and families will be held at Guardian Angels Parish in Clawson next Sunday, October 20.

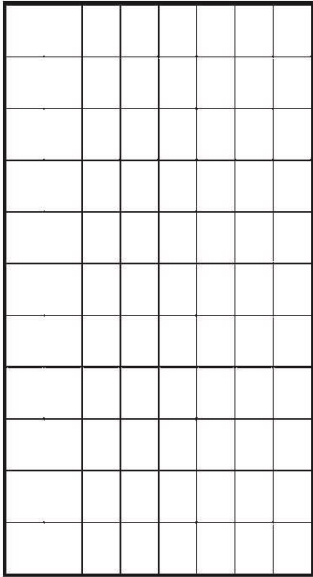

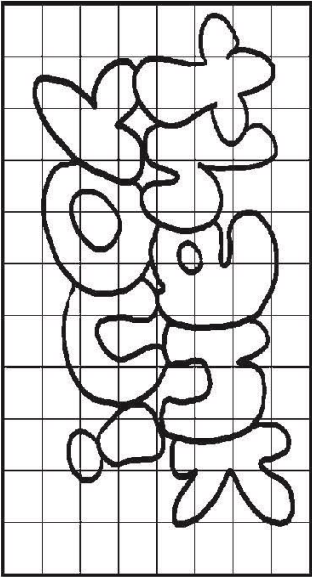

The Archdiocese originally hosted these gatherings in preparation for Synod 16 and, thanks to gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal, thousands of faithful Catholics were able to grow in their relationship with Jesus at parishes throughout the Archdiocese. This "Come, Encounter Christ!" is designed especially for middle and high school youth and their families and will feature dynamic preaching, powerful praise, and worship music, opportunities for reconciliation, and Eucharistic adoration.

The "Come, Encounter Christ!" at Guardian Angels will be held from 6-8 p.m. in conjunction with the archdiocesan Office of Youth Ministry.

NJHS INDUCTION

Congratulations to the 53 new members inducted into The National Junior Honor Society (NJHS). NJHS elevates a school's commitment to the values of scholarship, service, leadership, character, and citizenship. These five pillars have been associated with membership in the organization since its inception in 1929. We are proud of the 95 members in our chapter.

LEAF INVESTIGATION

Kindergarten students in Mrs. Offer's class conducted a leaf investigation. These budding naturalists documented the size, color, and shape of each leaf, how long it took to fall to the ground, and how many pennies were required to sink it in a bowl of water. They loved bringing nature into the classroom.

FALL SPORTS PEP ASSEMBLY

The South Campus students enjoyed the Fall Sports Pep Assembly! It's a fun way to acknowledging the athletes and cheer on all of our teams! There is a Spirit Award given to the grade that displays the loudest, most creative group spirit, the 8th Grade Scholar Athletes were announced, Wally the Wildcat showed his spirit, and the Pep Band really got the crowd fired up! Congratulations to our 8th Grade Spirit Award winners. Go Wildcats!
