On The Journey

+As we hear this Gospel, it is hard not to conclude that this request for an increase in faith comes somehow out of the blue. So what prompted the disciples to make this unusual request? To understand that, we need to go back to previous passages in Luke's Gospel – the parables about the prodigal son, the dishonest steward, Lazarus the beggar and the rich man. Together, they point to a reality that God's ways are different from our ways. They remind us that if we are to be faithful disciples, then we must take our cue not from the world, but from Christ who reveals to us the very mind of God.

We use the word "faith" in different ways – from our denominational identity to our creedal statements. But when Luke speaks here of faith, and indeed when Paul speaks about the gift given through the laying on of hands, they are not simply speaking about creedal statements or identity. Instead, they refer to that gift from God that binds us and empowers us to follow and live in Christ. It is a relationship with the Lord. This is what the disciples sought: an increase and strengthening in that most precious of all gifts – a strong and enduring relationship with Jesus Christ.

It has never been easy to be a Catholic Christian. The early Christians had to deal with all sorts of threats and persecutions. So we can understand why this call to faith is at the heart of the Gospels. By asking Jesus for an increase, the disciples are recognizing that He is the source of this supernatural faith, and that such a faith is not the outcome of human strength or willpower, but is sheer gift from God. Because it is a gift, it can never be seen as something we can boast of as our own achievement. We are servants of the Word, and when we respond to it we are simply doing our duty.

We also live in a world where it can be difficult to be faithful disciples. In such a world, our living, acting faith is of more and more importance. To be a faith-filled Christian is not simply about having an inner conviction, but the courage and strength to live that faith on a daily basis.

Christ's word to us today is a word of encouragement that we need only a little trust – the size of a mustard seed – in his strength to carry us through this life. It is the power of God living in and through us that will ultimately empower us to be faith-filled and faithful.

A Respect For Life

Truly you have formed my inmost being;
you knit me in my mother's womb.
I give you thanks that I am fearfully,
wonderfully made;
wonderful are your works.
My soul also you knew full well.

+As we enter into the month of October, the Church calls all of us to contemplate how we work to protect life at all its various stages, and in so many different ways. Protecting the lives of the unborn is often part of our "first thoughts" at this time, but our efforts must reach out to educate and inform and work toward more than just being "Pro-Life/anti-abortion." (I must interject here how glad I was to see over 640 signatures on the petition to ban dismemberment abortions in Michigan that we signed at the picnic; I believe there are still some petitions you could sign in the parish offices, if you have not yet done so.) We must consider treatment of the elderly; the imprisoned; the immigrants; those who are impoverished, and many more examples as all falling into the category of Protecting Life! So let us be sure to pray for a greater respect for life in all its aspects!

+This weekend, you will be able to watch a video from Holy Family Regional School as they make their annual appeal for support in the five founding parishes, and in outreach to other groups and people across our area. There are representatives scheduled to be here after all the masses to answer your questions should you have any. The school is truly a gem, so let's support it the best we can!

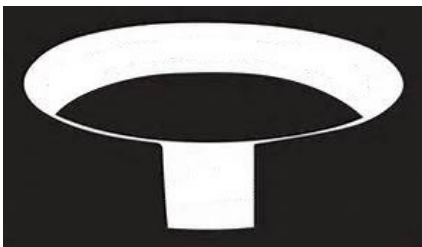

+Progress slowly continues on finishing off the building. I hope and pray for greater progress on the parking lot lights, especially now that evening faith formation classes have started up. What I ask of everyone is to PLEASE NOT WALK INTO/THROUGH THE NEW WEST SPACE TILL INDICATED THAT IT IS OPEN. It becomes a matter of insurance and liability, so.....you can peek through the windows and open doors, but please do not walk in. Thanks so very much!

With regard to the building efforts, we now have pledges/donations totaling $633,208 against our target of $352,457. This could bring us a potential refund of $280,751 should all commitments be honored. Your sacrificial generosity is greatly appreciated; I know that the good Lord will shower you with blessings!

+Let us give God thanks for the blessings of the harvest and the beauty of the season. I look forward to seeing you in church!

LIVING ROSARY

October 13 at 6:30pm

St. Andrew Parish will again be having a Living Rosary. The purpose of the rosary is to help us meditate on the great mysteries of our salvation. In a Living Rosary, volunteers serve as a living bead of the Rosary and that person leads the prayer for that bead. 61 volunteers are needed to represent the beads of the Rosary and read the prayers. Volunteers will be accepted on a first come basis until all spaces are filled. Once the quota is reached, all others will be invited to sit in the pews and pray along with the rosary. Families are encouraged to attend. Volunteers will be holding a battery operated candle to illuminate the rosary. Children will also receive a small gift to commemorate our celebration. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Cherry Iudiciani at 248-630-6616.

Saint John XXIII—Born of a farming family in northern Italy in 1881, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was ordained a priest in 1904. While in the seminary, he joined the Secular Franciscan Order. After his ordination in 1904, Fr. Roncalli returned to Rome for canon law studies. He soon worked as his bishop's secretary, Church history teacher in the seminary, and as publisher of the diocesan paper.

His service as a stretcher-bearer for the Italian army during World War I gave him a firsthand knowledge of war. In 1921, Fr. Roncalli was made national director in Italy of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. He also found time to teach patristics at a seminary in the Eternal City.

In 1925, he became a papal diplomat, serving first in Bulgaria, then in Turkey, and finally in France. During World War II, he became well acquainted with Orthodox Church leaders. With the help of Germany's ambassador to Turkey, Archbishop Roncalli helped save an estimated 24,000 Jewish people.

A month short of entering his 78th year, Cardinal Roncalli was elected pope, taking the name John after his father and the two patrons of Rome's cathedral, St. John Lateran. Pope John took his work very seriously but not himself. His wit soon became proverbial, and he began meeting with political and religious leaders from around the world.

His most famous encyclicals were Mater et Magistra [Mother and Teacher (1961)] and Pacem in Terris [Peace on Earth (1963)]. Pope John XXIII enlarged the membership in the College of Cardinals and made it more international. At his address at the opening of the Second Vatican Council, he criticized the "prophets of doom" who "in these modern times see nothing but prevarication and ruin." Pope John XXIII set a tone for the Council when he said, "The Church has always opposed... errors. Nowadays, however, the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity."

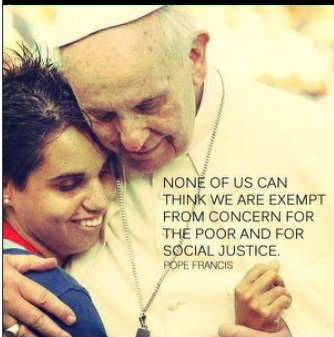

"Good Pope John" died of stomach cancer on June 3, 1963. Saint John Paul II beatified him in 2000, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014. His feast day, October 11, recalls the day of the first session of the Second Vatican Council (1962).

Christian Service

Commission just may be the place for you!

The Christian Service Commission develops programs or actions that help parishioners become aware of human needs and to respond in the name of Christ.

This is done in two ways: through direct service (works of mercy), and through action for change (works of justice). The Commission develops leadership, fosters a sense of community, provides education regarding the baptismal call to ministry, and encourages action which serves the broader community, as well as the parish.

Opportunities to live out our discipleship through Christian Service are many and varied, and include:

- Organizing prayer services, donation drives, and direct service opportunities to support the "least of these".
- Providing educational and advocacy opportunities for parishioners on issues of justice
- Prayerful discernment regarding the distribution of tithing monies to charitable organizations.
- Developing content for a Christian Service newsletter and the bulletin

Please consider getting involved! We welcome your ideas and passionate support for the most vulnerable and marginalized in our world including the poor & homeless, migrants & refugees, the victims of racism, those imprisoned & on death row, and the unborn.

RESPECT LIFE
MONTH
October 2019

CHRIST OUR HOPE

IN EVERY SEASON OF Life

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.

As part of our efforts to build a culture of life at St. Andrew, the bulletin will feature information about a range of different pro-life issues each week. We will also have a Respect Life Month resource table in the Narthex, which will feature prayers, reflections, and action items related to each week's pro-life theme, so check back after every weekend Mass in October!

October 5th & 6th A Consistent Ethic of Life: Abortion, Euthanasia, and the Death Penalty

What does it mean to be "pro-life"? In contemporary political discourse, the term "pro-life" is used synonymously with the term "anti-abortion".

But from the perspective of Catholic Social Teaching, being "pro-life" means promoting a consistent ethic of dignity and life rooted in the Gospel message to protect the lives of all vulnerable people. For the Church, there is no distinction between defending human life and promoting the dignity of the human person; every issue involving human life is interdependent and part of a systemic vision of life.

The life and dignity of every person must be respected and protected at every stage and in every condition. The right to life is the first and most fundamental principle of human rights that leads Catholics to actively work for a world of greater respect for human life and greater commitment to justice and peace.

Our attitude towards the unborn is inseparable from our attitude toward the pregnant woman without healthcare, the migrant at the border who left the land of her birth rather than join in gang activity, the prisoner on death row, the victim of trafficking, the teenager whose life is cut short because of the ease of access to firearms, the hungry child, the communities living under bombs and in war, the environment on which we all depend for survival, and all who are vulnerable. They are in actual danger of death. As people of faith who oppose those who would take the life of a human embryo, we must also oppose everything that diminishes the life or dignity of any individual regardless of the circumstances.

October 2019

When we feel that sin and evil are overwhelming, we must not be afraid. Jesus Christ has already conquered sin and death, and we know that his is the ultimate victory. Let us work to defend the dignity of all human life, made in the image and likeness of God, through prayer, education, and advocacy. Be not afraid; God is with us.

Who's Your Catechist?

Teresa Hurst is one of our amazing 8th grade catechists. She has been a catechist for about 27 years in total, with 19 of those years being at St. Andrew. She started teaching as a young person, took a brief hiatus after having her two eldest children, and then has been teaching ever since. Teresa especially loves working with teens. She starts the year by talking to them about taking on their Catholic faith for themselves—not because Mom and Dad are making them, but because they choose to live it and belong to our tremendous Catholic Church on their own. “It is not my job to do this perfectly I am not the one reaching them. I can let go of any pressure or the discouragement I create in my mind of “flawless teaching” and knowledge. It’s not me who will reach them anyway! It is all God. Through the Holy Spirit alone I am only planting seeds; He is responsible for the watering.”

Teresa says that she doesn’t have a particular favorite moment, but says the best times are when the class gets on some “side topic” and the students are all engaged and throwing out question after question—and trying to understand for themselves their Catholic faith. “When the Holy Spirit is moving in the classroom, I can really feel that enthusiasm and in the evening, walking back home after class, I can feel that Jesus is pleased. I FOR SURE don’t do it perfectly, but He is pleased with my imperfect attempts, and there is no greater satisfaction to be had in life than those moments you know you are united to Him.”

Teresa understands that we are called to serve, that we must give back. For her, sharing her faith with young people has been her way of doing that. When she feels discouraged, overrun by doubts and worries about being a catechist, she turns to the Blessed Mother, who wraps her in the mantle of her grace and protection, and she leads Teresa to her Son and she hides in His Sacred Heart. And through the years the highs far outnumber the lows.

There are things in our lives that stand between us and the holy. understanding these things can be like a call to take off your shoes. We long to recognize Christ before we trust that stranger he sends down our road, and so often we miss the blessing. It is not that we're on the wrong road. It is rather that we fail to trust and recognize strangers.

10 EVANGELIZATION

The St. Andrew Committee is taking a fresh look at our parish's mission and activities in the context of the New Evangelization. We are witnessing an exciting new phase in our Church aimed at spiritual growth through encounter and witness. The committee hopes to be offering creative new approaches to our mission guided by the directives contained in the Archbishop's Pastoral Letter "Unleash the Gospel".

The next phase of Unleash the Gospel focuses on the renewal of our parish communities so they become what God intended them to be: places where individuals and families encounter Jesus anew, grow as his disciples and are equipped to be witnesses of the Risen Christ.

All Christians are called to evangelize. Jesus commissioned the disciples, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:18-19). The last command Jesus gave his disciples before he ascended was, "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). The Church exists to evangelize. This is not just the job of priest and religious, but of all Christians!

If you feel called to be part of a team of dynamic individuals who are working to share the Good News with others, and also grow spiritually at the same time, we invite you to join us. The Evangelization Committee meets on the first Tuesday of every month at 7:30 pm. For more information, please contact Susan Kowalski at susank@standrewchurch.org or 248-651-7846, Ext. 105.

Young Adult Ministry

October's Theology on Tap will feature special guest Archbishop Allen Vigneron, who will give a personal witness of his faith journey, at Camp Ticonderoga in Troy from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesday, October 8.

Gifts to the CSA help fund these fellowship evenings, which allow young adults in our Archdiocese to reflect on their faith in a relaxed setting. Each Theology on Tap gathering features a speaker on topics relating to religion and theology. Archbishop Vigneron will share how he discerned the call to the priesthood as well as the joys and struggles he has experienced in his vocation. He will also explore how we can best follow God's will in our lives.

Due to the anticipated demand for next week's Theology on Tap, attendees must reserve a free ticket on Eventbrite. See aod.social/theology-on-tap for more information.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Ever wonder what the Stephen Ministry is about? It is a program that has been active for many years in the Archdiocese of Detroit. The program trains and provides suitable volunteers for people who are experiencing difficulty in life such as grieving, health issues, divorce, etc. This is a listening ministry, not a problem solving one.

The ongoing presence of Stephen Ministry relies on people in parishes stepping forward to take the training that is offered. Think this might be for you? Please give it some thought - a chance to give back. This could be your year to answer the call of "Compassion in Action." Training would take place through

KINDNESS IS CONTAGIOUS

Many years ago a grandfather of a student at HFRS approached the administration with an idea. He wanted to encourage and support acts of kindness performed by children throughout the day so he made a donation for the school to acknowledge these children. It was decided that the staff would make note of the children as they witnessed these acts. The acknowledgements are submitted and monthly drawings are held. One student from each grade is chosen, the children then select a charity to which a donation is made in their name. By celebrating these acts of kindness during morning announcements and a photo posted on the Random Acts of Kindness Wall, we hope to empower these children to continue with this ministry. The school has maintained the program beyond the grandfather's initial donation and just a few years ago he very generously made another donation! Donations are made to: Capuchin Soup Kitchen, Catholic Community Response Team, Grace Centers of Hope, Leader Dogs for the Blind, Mary's Mantle, Michigan Humane Society, Neighborhood House, Rochester Youth Assistance and Water for the People. Many of the organizations take the time to send a personal acknowledgement to the students in appreciation for their act. We truly believe kindness is contagious at Holy Family! Congratulations to this month's winners: Young 5's: Marco S.; Kindergarten: Lucas C.; 1st Grade: Youssef C.; 2nd Grade: Christian B.; 3rd Grade: Vittorio M.; 4th Grade: Nolan B.; 5th Grade: Sofia G.; 6th Grade: Jude Y.; 7th Grade: Sophia F.; 8th Grade: Charlie S. South Campus winners are pictured below.

JOHNNY APPLESEED DAY

Our students celebrated Johnny Appleseed Day. Mrs. Moseley's Young 5 students show off the awesome hats they made to celebrate this American folk hero. Mrs. Finn's second graders created art with their Johnny Appleseed blessing pieces and Mrs. Withrow's first graders made apple wreaths to celebrate his love of God and creation and even had apple slices for snack!
