On The Journey

+The Gospel passage today hints at a lack of security found in all of our lives. It begins with disciples commenting on the costly adornments of the Temple, the center of Jewish worship. Yet Jesus explains that in the future, even the magnificent Temple will come down: the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone.

In what can we be secure? Not the riches or the material possessions of this world..... Jesus continues: Many will come in my name, saying "I am he," and "the time has come." Do not follow them! In whom can we be secure? Not the preachers who claim to have all the answers. What about our family? According to Jesus, some will be betrayed and hurt even by their own family members Jesus seems to imply that as much as we would like to put our faith into what we can see, what we can touch, what we can experience in this life, we simply cannot. Our security cannot lie with anything that is transitory; it cannot rest with anything that is of this world.

Perhaps one reason – perhaps the main reason – we feel so distressed when we lose something or someone of value is because we had anchored our sense of self to that thing or to that person. How many of us, for example, have felt adrift after the loss of a job, the loss of a valuable item, the damage to a reputation or the end of a relationship? It was part of us, part of our identity, a part of our security.

The writer of our Gospel – Luke – certainly understands this. He is writing to a community of believers who have seen the Temple destroyed, who have suffered persecution because of their faith in Christ. Yet there is hope.

Jesus tells his followers: Do not be terrified. Although they will be surrounded by wars, by persecution, by adversities, they can persevere. Somehow God will sustain them. How? We don't fully know or understand. But like the bird who migrates long distances, or the fish who is carried by the river to the sea, we trust that God will get us where we need to be. Our security is in God, not the events of our life or the passing things of this world.

Let us pray for a deepening of our faith, our relationship with the Lord. May we learn that our hope is IN God as we journey on this road of life!

+This past Friday and Saturday, some staff members and parishioners attended the “Day of Renewal” provided by the Archdiocese and staged at the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi (last year it was in Sterling Heights; gotta take our turns, east and west side!). It was an invigorating experience, led by Sr Miriam, SOLT, bringing forth presentations on enhancing the parish culture to be able to help make it more life-changing for parishioners to encounter Christ and deepen their faith. It is something that we can use in our efforts to Unleash the Gospel and accept our call to be sent on mission.

In light of re-invigorating our parish, our “visioning” meeting of a couple weeks ago – which took place at the time of our regular Parish Pastoral Council meeting – came up with an amazing list of ideas and suggestions for us to consider and work on. Over time we will be looking at those points and see how they can be incorporated into parish life, expanded upon in and of themselves, and help us all draw closer to the Lord and put our faith into action. We all have much to look forward to on our journey!

+People have asked, but I can’t yet give you a firm “date” as to when the new building addition can be “opened for business.” We have had some inspections, and there are still some electrical, IT, and fire safety issues that have to be addressed...so as soon as I get an “all clear” and we get our certificate of occupancy, you will all be the first to know!

+Again, I want to thank everyone who has helped make our Confirmation celebrations the wonderful experiences that they were! From Religious Formation to Music and Liturgy & Environment and the many volunteers who made it special – a grateful pastor offers his prayerful gratitude!

+As the end of the Church calendar and the busy season of Advent rapidly approaches, I am planning on taking a short vacation during the week of Thanksgiving to get a little rest and enjoy some warmer weather. (I write this article on Monday, the 11th, as inches of snow accumulate on the property. If I could only head South a bit earlier, my mind wanders in thought....). You are in the good hands of a very capable staff, so I leave knowing that your needs can be attended to should they arise.

+As always, I look forward to seeing you in church!

ST ANDREW YOUTH

For our "Youth Night" we decided to have a
Relax, Focus on Me kind of day.

We came together to have a meal, watch a movie, and just to hang out with friends.

We all need an hour or two to step away from our crazy schedules. After finishing up the first quarter of school and all the last minute tests and papers, we are all exhausted.

Some would say —

"I can't keep my eyes opened or my brain isn't functioning correctly. I need a break."

We all need to recharge to be able to function in today's society.

A few things to remember when the world seems to be getting out of control.

1. do less
2. think of your health
3. find a safe and quite space
4. just breath
5. have some tea or coffee
6. Hang out with Friends
7. do something with your hands
8. play music or watch a movie you love

Most of all — Pray, Let Go and Let God.

Have a blessed week! Margaret Kozak

ELECTION DAY FUN

Students at North campus took to the polls to participate in Election Day. The children could vote for either the John D. Dingell Veterans' Hospital or Mercy Bellbrook to receive decorated Christmas place-mats made by Holy Family students. The children reported to the voting booths to cast their ballot. Third graders from Mrs. Polansky's class assisted with the tallying of the votes. With all precincts reporting we are happy to announce John D. Dingell Veterans' Hospital was the lucky winner and will receive the beautiful place-mats before the holidays!

EIGHTH GRADE JACKETS

Continuing a long-standing tradition at Holy Family, the Class of 2020 has received their class sweatshirts. The students voted on their class motto, color, emblem (winning entry drawn by Robert T.) and sleeve design (winning entry drawn by Lauren K.) to create these treasured keepsakes. Each student signed the back so they'll take their class mates with them. We know the eighth grade class is enjoying their final year at Holy Family.

CHEER TEAMS COMPETE

Congratulations to our cheerleaders who competed at the CYO Cheer Competition at Divine Child. Varsity took Second Place and JV took First Place. Great work Wildcats!

Prayer Corner — Prayer 101

By Mike Carr

Do you pray? Do you think it makes a difference? Is God real? You owe it to yourself to find out if it is true or not. I'm assuming since you are reading this bulletin that you do believe that God is real, but I am also certain that you know a lot of people that have doubts or down right just do not believe in God. What do you say to them? How can you encourage them to find out that God is real? I can assure you that they have just as many struggles as we do maybe even more. We all need help especially from an almighty omnipotent that loves us, guides us to what we really need and who is merciful beyond our imagination for all the times we have not lived as he has shown us for our own good, not his. God can and does act in our lives and prayer is our means of communication with him.

How do you approach prayer? There are many forms of prayer, many types of prayer, many designed prayers, have you ever taken time to commit to how you will pray? What will you pray for? Who should you pray to? God the Father? Jesus? The Holy Spirit? Mary? The saints? As I am writing this, I'm getting confused myself. Let's begin by exploring how the Church instructs us by using the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

SECTION ONE

PRAYER IN THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

"Great is the mystery of the faith!" The Church professes this mystery in the Apostles' Creed (Part One) and celebrates it in the sacramental liturgy (Part Two), so that the life of the faithful may be conformed to Christ in the Holy Spirit to the glory of God the Father (Part Three). This mystery, then, requires that the faithful believe in it, that they celebrate it, and that they live from it in a vital and personal relationship with the living and true God. This relationship is prayer" (CCC 2558).

WHAT IS PRAYER?

"For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy."
(St. Therese of Lisieux, Manuscripts autobiographies)
