Parish Mission Statement

On The Advent Journey

+Today we celebrate the third Sunday of Advent. With the presence of the rose-colored candle and vestments, we notice there is something different. We discover the difference through the readings. Instead of waiting in hopeful anticipation, now we are called to rejoice because the Messiah is in our midst and we recognize Him through the attributes that Scripture provides for us. It is as if we have just received the job description written by God.

In the first reading, Isaiah prophesies that the Messiah will be the one who will bring hope of healing to the blind, deaf and lame. The psalm for mass even gives praise for God's faithfulness, and adds to Isaiah's list the hungry, the oppressed, and orphans and widows. When Jesus tells John the Baptist's disciples, go and tell John what you hear and see, He is confirming these attributes, while revealing that his coming is more than an historical event. The Messiah is in our midst.

John must have been filled with joy when his disciples confirmed that Jesus is the one who is to come. We are filled with joy when we see and hear the healing and transformative works of God taking place all around us. The Messiah is with us. This joy is intended to be shared.

John the Baptist was the messenger sent to prepare the way for Jesus, which He did with joy. Jesus is the message. In Him we learn the Messiah is the one who brings good news to the poor and healing to all those in need. We rejoice in this knowledge. We are faithful to Christ, and truly his disciples, whenever we allow God to work through us and make visible the Messiah in our works of charity.

O come, o come Emmanuel – our God is with us, always!

+With the holidays, I believe that you all know that we get confronted with early printing deadlines, so at times the news might be a little "behind" in getting published. What I am happy to put into print today is that we have officially received our Certificate of Occupancy from the City of Rochester, meaning that we can use our new gathering space on the west side of the church! HALLELUIAH! But, please note that we are still working on getting some things set up, the punch list is still being worked upon, etc., so please be attentive to the signs and open doors which might still indicate we are not quite yet ready for "regular business." I don't want anyone getting in the way of the workers or anyone not safe from the activity still going on in the general area.

But know that I am sleeping a little better knowing that we will be able to use the space for the upcoming Christmas holiday! Because of the "go" we've received, we will use this space as the overflow for masses, and NOT have any masses in the activity building this year.

+This week, there are no Religious Formation classes, as they finished up for this part of the year this past week. However, there are lesson planning sessions for our wonderful Catechists. Thank you so much for your ministry to our little ones!

+You might begin to see some of the Christmas decorations going up in church this week. It's a matter of timing in terms of being ready for our Christmas celebrations that occur the following Tuesday and Wednesday. It also helps with the Holy Family Regional School Christmas program on Friday of this week, which is the last day of school.

+It's hard to write about the City parade and the Interchurch Christmas Concert that occurred on December 8th, when you're writing before they actually happen. But as you know, the parade is always wonderful, and the concert just magnificent! Hope you got to enjoy them like I did!

+In these waning days of Advent, let's not forget to continue preparing our hearts for the real reason we come together and celebrate the season! Looking forward to seeing you in church!

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

The "O" Antiphons of Advent

The Roman Church has been singing the "O" Antiphons since at least the eighth century. They are the antiphons that accompany the Magnificat canticle of Evening Prayer from December 17-23. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. Their repeated use of the imperative "Come!" embodies the longing of all for the Divine Messiah. (From USCCB)

Prepare the Way of the Lord/Christmas Decorating

Help is needed, December 20 from 1-4pm and 23 from 10:00am-Noon and 1:00-3:00pm to decorate for Christmas. We will begin with the chapel and then work on the main church as we get closer to Christmas. If you are able to give some time to volunteer on any of these days, please contact Nikki at the parish office 248-651-7486 for more information.

Attention Altar Servers

We are still in need of Altar Servers for Christmas and December 31/January 1. If you are able to serve, please contact Mrs. Brooks, Nikki, or the Parish Office and we will get you signed up on the schedule.

Calling ALL Ushers!

Your assistance is needed at the Christmas masses. You play a vital role in making our guests feel welcome and making things run smoothly. As you know we have additional masses on Christmas and we pass the baskets, so your help is greatly appreciated. There is a sign up sheet in the Usher's Room for you to indicate which Mass you will be attending and are willing to help. You may also contact Gary Putz 248-652-2275 or garyputz@comcast.net if you have any questions about ushering at the Christmas Masses.

Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18 – January 25, 2020 is the official date for the week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This year our Ecumenical Awareness Committee has invited local churches to take part in this yearly event. Each church will host an evening of communal prayer based on Acts: 27-28:10 from which the international committee chose the theme of "They Showed Us Unusual Kindness."

St. Andrew will host the first night of prayer. We have 6 other churches, of various denominations, that have pledged to host an evening. All Christians are invited to take part in as many evenings of prayer as they choose. This is an opportunity for us to get to know our fellow Christians and help Unleash the Gospel. Watch for more details in the coming weeks.

Advent Reflection: Hail Mary, Full of Grace

This year, we have witnessed a whirlwind of change. How do we envision our future in the midst of this?

During Advent, we can look to a woman who also experienced change. Mary, the mother of Jesus, completely surrendered herself to God's will. She had to convince herself, her community, and the man to whom she was promised that she was carrying out that will. In the midst of chaos, she had to envision that there was a future—that she would be mother to the Son of God.

What can she teach us?

- Openness: Mary was open to the Spirit. To God working through her, she said "may it be done" (Luke 1:38). By changing the ways we stand in solidarity with people around the globe, can we be more open to doing God's will?
- Strength: Mary was strong and committed. She possessed the courage to tell Joseph that she was carrying a child, knowing that she could face scorn or punishment. How can we show the strength to respond to God's call?
- Hope: Jesus's birth represents hope. Out of the complicated situation of an unwed mother was born the Alpha and Omega. Out of political wrangling and citizens' rallies can come good. Where can we find and foster hope in ourselves, our communities, and our world?

ST ANDREW YOUTH

Chains...

As we were helping Sam take down the giving tree we realized that it is very difficult to take the hooks off. We decided to take everything to the A.B., but by the time we got there the chains were a tangled mess. As we were trying to unwind the chains and take off the hooks we started talking about how these chains relate to our own lives and the season of Advent. Real life is messy and ugly. A lot of it has to do with the sins that we commit on a daily basis. How do we break the chains of sin? Pope Francis says...

"Only true love for God and neighbor can destroy the chains of greed, lust, anger and envy that enslave humankind. True love is true freedom: It detaches from possession, rebuilds relationships, it knows how to welcome and value the neighbor, it transforms every struggle into a joyous gift and makes communion possible."

In the messiness of our lives we find JOY. Advent is a time of cleansing, of preparing for the coming of the light of the world. Like the chains that our teens helped untangle. Advent is the time to untangle our lives.

APRIL 4TH MIDDLE SCHOOL EVENT

Wait for it...

Waiting can be exhausting, like standing in a long, slow line, getting stuck in traffic, or awaiting the results of a medical test. It can also be exciting, like anticipating a vacation, a party, or a new baby. Advent is on the happy side of waiting.

This weekend is Gaudete (Latin for “rejoice”) Sunday, an especially joyful time indicated by the pink candle on the Advent wreath, announcing that Christmas is very near. We can cheerfully focus on the most important aspect of the season, preparing for Jesus. As we wait in joyful hope, we can ready our homes AND our hearts to make this a meaningful Advent and wonder-filled Christmas!
