On The Christmas Journey Into the New Year

+We have been hearing throughout this beautiful season of Christmas about the gift that God has given us – the gift of his only begotten Son, Jesus, as our Savior. Jesus, who is God Incarnate, born as a helpless baby. Today's Feast of the Epiphany celebrates the public "announcement," if you will, that the gift of salvation is available to all, not just those of the Israelite covenant with God.

Long before Paul tells the Ephesians in today's reading that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel, the revelation of Jesus Christ is made to the Magi. These Magi were not Jewish, but men from the east – Gentiles – who have traveled to Bethlehem to see the newborn king of the Jews. They were somehow drawn to the gift, and Matthew's Gospel tells us how they respond.

Their response is a beautiful example of how we ourselves should respond to Jesus – and to any gift that God offers to us. They have the vision to see the star, to follow it a great distance from their homeland and to accept the simple gift that is revealed to them: a humble, simple child who does not radiate the majesty of a king. The Magi are able to see beyond the surface, to see this child for who he is, and without hesitation pay him homage and present him with their gifts. Finally, they are obedient to the voice in their dreams and go home a different way, thus avoiding Herod.

Matthew's Gospel also gives us a completely opposite response to this gift, carried out by Herod. King Herod, hearing of the newborn King of the Jews, responds defensively and in great fear. If what the wise men report is true, Herod reasons, he will lose this status and prestige. Rather than see this child as a gift, as the long-promised Messiah, Herod sees him as a threat that needs to be extinguished right away. He responds with deceitful cunning, planning to kill the child once the Magi reveal to him where the child is. Herod closes his heart to the gift of God, the Messiah, wanting to keep his own power and glory.

None of us would claim to want to follow the example of Herod – to close our hearts and minds to God and to resort to killing innocent children to keep our power. Yet it helps us to think about how open we are to the many gifts that God presents to us throughout our lives – from the rainy morning that greets us upon our awakening; to the family God has placed in our lives; the work we are called to do; and the sufferings we are called to endure. Each of these is, in different ways, a gift from

God – some more easily seen as ‘gift’ than others. We can either reject them as Herod did, or follow the example of the Magi and accept them in humility, trust and obedience.

As we continue our celebration of the season, we pray for the grace to have the open-heartedness of the Magi throughout the coming year. All is gift from God. With the help of the Holy Spirit, may we greet the expected and unexpected gifts – the obvious gifts and those that are harder to understand – as truly gifts from our loving God. May we see the radiance and glory of Jesus in all we meet in the year - and years - ahead, and welcome them into our hearts with joy, reverence and trust.

+With the coming week, we go back into “regular operations” mode – Holy Family Regional School returns and our Religious Formation program start back up for the coming sessions. Meetings will be starting up once again after the holiday break. Please pay special attention to the bulletin and on-line notices as to the schedule of activities. With this new year and further use of our new space, some meetings may be moved from their previous locations to different rooms.

+The Feast of the Epiphany is a time when many ask the Lord to bless our homes and families. Today, we offer blessed chalk for use in your homes, marking the mantle over the doorway. There is a fuller explanation elsewhere in today’s bulletin, along with the blessing prayer itself.

+Sometimes there are gifts (i.e. cookies and the like, but even at times little envelopes) left for one of the priests, without good identification as to who it’s from. Please know of my gratitude for everyone who left a gift this Christmas season, but maybe somewhere in the hustle and bustle, you were overlooked in receiving a “thank you” note acknowledging your kindness and generosity. Know of my prayerful gratitude for thinking of me!

+During this cold and flu season, please don’t attend mass if you are quite ill; it’s not a sin to miss mass if you are truly sick. And remember, that at the greeting before mass starts, and at the time of the sign of peace during mass, if you are not well, your greeting might be just a warm, friendly smile and nod to those around you. It is not required to shake hands for either of these gestures. Please use common sense, and don’t be angry if someone just smiles at you during this season!

+With the end of the Christmas season soon upon us with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord next week, let us not forget the presence of Jesus in our lives – Emmanuel, our God is with us - always! Safe journeys to our “snowbirds” – and to those who stick around our beautiful state, I look forward to seeing you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

Baptisms within Mass at St. Andrew

Next Sunday we will celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Once again we will remember that wonderful moment when Jesus received baptism from John the Baptist in the Jordan River. Once again we’ll hear the words that came from heaven: “This my beloved Son, with whom I’m well pleased.”

Every time when a baptism takes place, God repeats the same words to the baptize person: “You are my beloved Child, with You I’m well pleased, since this moment You belong to Me, You are mine.” Every baptism is a blessing and a grace, but also a commitment and a responsibility, not only for the person who receives baptism, but also for the parents, godparents, family and the whole parish community.

Next Sunday we would like to begin something new at St. Andrew Church. On this second Sunday of January and February, the baptisms will be celebrated within the 12 p.m. Mass. First, we want to welcome the newly baptized and his/her family within the St. Andrew community and be recognized. It’s a joyful and very significant moment for all of us when someone becomes Catholic, becomes a part of Christ’s Body, the Church. Second, we truly believe that participating with this beautiful rite of baptism will be, for all of us, an opportunity to express our gratitude for the grace of our own baptism. For our parents and godparents who brought us to the faith, and remember and take even more seriously responsibility for the faith that we all profess and be proud of it.

I’m confident and hopeful that this tradition will bring many blessings into our lives and will help us with unleashing the Gospel.

Fr. Tom

Epiphany Home Blessing on January 5, 2020

From the east come the Magi to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh as a symbol of His burial. The blessing of the home, and the inscription of the initials of the three Magi at each entrance door, is an old Epiphany custom that is still practiced by some today. Using specially blessed chalk, many families mark above the entrance door of their homes with the year and with the inscription CMB, the initials of the traditional names of the Magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar (example: 20+C+M+B+20). The inscription really stands for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for "Christ, bless this house."

Use the chalk to write above the entrance to your home:

20 + C + M + B + 20

As you are writing pray the following:

O Lord, God Almighty, we ask Your blessing on this home and all who dwell within. Grant that if it be Your will, we may enjoy physical and mental health and Your spiritual protection. May all who visit our home this year rejoice to find You dwelling among us. May we seek to serve You forever and ever, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Chalk is available at the exits.

New Eucharistic Minister Training

Eucharistic Ministers Those interested in serving as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at Mass are asked to attend a training session on Monday, January 13 at 7:00pm in the church. If you have any questions please call Nikki at 248-651-7486

Calling Men, Women, Teens or Families

We are in need of Ushers for Mass. In particular there is great need for the 12:00PM and 5:00PM Sunday Mass. On the "job" training is provided for this ministry. If you are interested in serving, please contact Gary Putz at 248-652-2275.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

Wednesday, January 15 at 7:00pm

Training for those interested in being an Altar Server will take place in the Church on Wednesday, January 15 at 7:00pm. Students must be at least 8 years old and have completed the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist. If your child is interested, please call the parish office to sign up for this training session.

Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18 – January 25, 2020 is the official date for the week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This year our Ecumenical Awareness Committee has invited local churches to take part in this yearly event. Each church will host an evening of communal prayer based on Acts: 27-28:10 from which the international committee chose the theme of "They Showed Us Unusual Kindness."

St. Andrew will host the first night of prayer and subsequent evenings will take place at other Christian churches, see the schedule below. Each evening will begin with a 30 minute prayer service followed by refreshments. All Christians are invited to take part in as many evenings of prayer as they choose. This is an opportunity for us to get to know our fellow Christians and help Unleash the Gospel.

Saturday, January 18—St. Andrew

Sunday, January 19—First Congregational Church

Monday, January 20—University Presbyterian

Tuesday, January 21—Abiding Presence Lutheran

Wednesday, January 22—St. Phillip Episcopal

Thursday, January 23—St. Paul Methodist

Volunteers Needed at Hope Center – Monday January 13 - Saturday January 18

Jesus tells us to love both God and our neighbor. When we serve the poor, we are able to do both because Jesus identifies Himself with the poor; whatever we do for the "least" amongst us, we do for Him (Mt. 25: 40).

During the week of Jan. 13–18, St. Andrew parishioners have an opportunity to encounter the Lord through our neighbors at Hope Shelter in Pontiac. You can get involved in the following 2 ways:

1. Donating: We are in need of food, paper products, and monetary donations.
2. Serving 6:30–9:30 p.m.: Adults needed for the kitchen prep/serving/cleanup & guest check-in

To sign-up to volunteer or donate, please visit <https://sugeni.us/cMN5>.

For more information, please call or email Sam Jennings at samj@standrewchurch.org.

Is God prompting you to consider serving Him in a new way in 2020?

Consider becoming a Homebound Ministry volunteer. We visit people who are ill, or elderly, and isolated at home or in an assisted living/nursing facility. If this interests you, please text 248-422-8647. Visit <http://www.standrewchurch.org/parish-life/elderly-homebound-ministry/> or join us at the Homebound Ministry annual meeting on January 11 at 10 a.m. for more information.

Interested in Catholic Social Teaching, justice, or pro-life issues?

St. Andrew Parish is reviving its pro-life and social justice ministries by creating a new Life, Justice, & Peace Committee! Rooted in Catholic Social Teaching, the Life, Justice & Peace Committee promotes a consistent ethic of life, Gospel non-violence, and stands in solidarity with the most vulnerable and marginalized in our world including the poor, migrants and refugees, the victims of racism, the homeless, those imprisoned and on death row, and the unborn.

The Life, Justice, & Peace Committee is tasked with providing an integrated approach to advocacy and education for issues involving the inherent dignity of all human life, peace, and social, economic, & environmental justice.

Our first meeting will be February 5 from 7 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. in the Parish Center, Lower Level.

All are welcome.

For more information or to RSVP please visit <https://sugeni.us/cMNw>.

Feast of the Epiphany

The Epiphany commemorates the visit of the Magi to the Christ Child. They followed a bright star in the East to find the holy babe. Our kindergarten groups made star crowns to mark the occasion. Enjoy their creations pictured above.

Many gathered at a Family Advent event for prayer, cookie decorating and crafts on Dec. 15. It was great to see so many grandparents! Families had fun anticipating and preparing for Christmas, pictured here. We thank all those who attended.

Let the light of Jesus Christ shine through you in this New Year!

Blessings, Maureen Schreffler
Director of Faith Formation

ST ANDREW YOUTH

The Feast of the Epiphany, Three Kings' Day — the manifestation of the Light of the World, Jesus.

The traditional date of the feast is January 6, twelve days after Christmas, or the following Sunday.

The Epiphany is the celebration of the visitation of the Magi (the three Kings) to the infant Jesus. The Magi gave special gifts to the new born King — gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

How can we celebrate the Epiphany as a family...

1. Gift your family with three gifts:
Gold — a family gift/activity
Frankincense — a Religious item
Myrrh — gifts for the body
2. Make a Star of Bethlehem or go stargazing.
3. Make a King's cake or an Epiphany cake.
4. Have a fun snack, have some star fruit!
5. Read the Epiphany narrative. (Matthew 2:1-12).
6. Bless your homes — Chalk the Door.

Mark the doorways of your home with blessed chalk, you would write 20+C+M+B+19 and say a prayer.

The numbers represent the year, and the letters are the initials of the three wise men.

7. Celebrate Twelfth Night — Have a special meal.

Enjoy your time as a family creating some wonderful traditions to continue for years to come.

Have a wonderful Feast of the Epiphany, Margaret Kozak

55+ Group—Christmas Party Fun!

On December 12th the 55+ Group hosted their annual Christmas party at Rivercrest Banquet Center for approximately 80 people. Everyone enjoyed a delicious buffet lunch and delightful Christmas music provided by our own Stephan Pawl. A free raffle was held for the beautiful poinsettias adorning each table and each person went home with a little goodie bag of Christmas treats to boot!

Each year, as part of this event, the 55+ Group takes up a collection for Neighborhood House. This year Neighborhood house requested new books for ages 1-18. The group was able to collect approximately 150 books for this worthy cause. After the Christmas Party the books were dropped off at Neighborhood House who was very appreciative of this donation!
