Moving St. Andrew Catholic Community closer to Jesus Christ through growing in Faith, Service and Welcoming.
Parish Mission Statement

On The Lenten Journey

+What does St. Paul mean when he writes: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ?

It helps to remember and understand that faith and salvation are not something we can achieve or earn on our own, but are God's freely-given gifts. That does not mean we are mere puppets in a cosmic salvation show, or passive recipients of God's actions. The truth is, that with free will, our actions and choices – our commitment to Gospel living – does matter before God.

But Paul didn't stop at telling us that we have been justified. He went on to say that we now have hope and access to grace. Because we have been justified, we can boast: For God's love has been poured out into our hearts, reconciling us to Him. In other words, because of what Christ has done by his death and resurrection, we have hope – hope for an eternal life in God. It is a confidence that, at the moment of judgment, God will not prove hostile to those who are faithful and in a state of grace, but his mercy will pour forth like water, giving life to all who believe in Him.

The imagery of mercy flowing like water is present in today's Gospel, where Jesus encounters the woman at the well. From the start, we know this is no ordinary meeting: it is with a Samaritan with a mixed marital history, spurned by others such that she must come to the well at the hottest time of day, when no one else is there. But there is someone there: Jesus. And despite her situation and cultural conventions, it is Jesus who first speaks to her. And what a conversation it is! For in looking at where the woman "is," spiritually, at the start and again at the end, it is almost like two different people. This simple encounter with Jesus radically changes her. Into the desert of her sinful, sad and lonely existence, Jesus pours the fast-flowing water of God's mercy and love.

Initially, she so easily misunderstands his words; she cannot let go of her limited understanding of water. Her very questions and replies betray this failure to understand what Jesus is saying on a much deeper level. And yet Jesus gently affirms and brings to the surface her deepest need – to drink from the waters of salvation – to be renewed in her relationship with God and her community.

She slowly begins to hear his message, and moves from being a woman of great suspicion to one who rushes to tell others that she has met the Messiah. Look how she describes Jesus: first a Jew, then Sir, then a prophet and finally, the Christ. Along the way she is changed from being an outsider/sinner to an evangelist.

Like the woman at the well, we, too, are seeking the living water of God's mercy. Lent invites us to be more purposeful in our efforts, as it reminds us that God is also seeking us. He is taking the initiative to engage us so that we might experience this flowing water, and so live in ways that are worthy of Him.

On The Journey (continued from page 1)

This is our hope and our faith. With God's help, we pray that God's flowing water will wash us clean and refresh us –today, this Lent...and always!

+This weekend we were to have UNBOUND Ministries visit us. It is a lay Catholic sponsorship ministry that helps children and elderly in 18 developing countries. However, due to last minute travel complications, Fr. McAleer had to cancel, so we will try to reschedule their visit, maybe in the fall.

+Our own Lenten Giving Tree program will be starting later this week and next weekend. As always, your gifts and financial support help make the Easter holiday a little brighter for those in need in our general area. Thanks, too, to all who took rice bowls for that program this Lent; sorry we couldn't get more "bowls." If we do this program next year, we will remember to order more of them!

+This coming Tuesday, we will offer our second of three experiences of "the 99." Many truly enjoyed this engagement the other week (myself included), so I hope you take the time to join the crowd and participate in some spiritual conversations and discussions!

+Please remember to pray for our parishioners journeying through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) here at St. Andrew and across the Archdiocese this Lenten season! They are in the final steps of their journey to celebrate their sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil; we look forward to having them join us fully at the table of the Lord!

+People have asked me when we might start using the new space on a regular basis. Please know that we've been having commission and council meetings there. This weekend, UNBOUND was supposed to be there with their displays. We will be doing our "Time & Talent" fairs for each of the various areas of need around the parish in that space. We've been using the space for "the 99 Experience." And this past week, we were going to try using it for funeral in-state visitation prior to the funeral mass. So please don't think it has been sitting "idle" at this time. Our big hurdle is to finish getting the coffee service all set up; because of some mix-ups back at Christmas, much more work has to get done prior to having the coffee pots working right in the new kitchenette. Hopefully, just a few more weeks.....

+May our thirst to be closer to the Lord lead us all to the wellsprings of grace and love. See you in church!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

As we continue our journey through Lent
we should be reminded of what Baptism means.

We should also try harder to live as followers of Jesus.

When we were baptized, we were like the woman at the well:
we came to know Jesus, the Living Water, and we were sent to invite others to drink from this well that never runs dry.

Blessings, Margaret Kozak

DADDY DAUGHTER DANCE

Our Caribbean themed Daddy Daughter Dance was a spectacular event!! The girls and their Dads danced the night away and enjoyed a wonderful evening together. Thank you to our PTG for putting on this memorable event year after year.

The spirit of the living Christ is renewed, examined and enjoyed in the Cursillo. During the Cursillo weekend basic Christian beliefs and truths are reviewed. The weekend is the first introduction for many people to the power of genuine Christian community. The weekend is for all a welcome respite from a society that has largely forgotten the Lord's simple request to "love one another as I have loved you." The weekend begins on a Thursday evening and ends the following Sunday night. During these three days the participants live, work and pray together. The activities for the weekend revolve around a series of short talks that are given by Cursillo team members. The talks are entitled: Ideal, Grace, The Layperson in the Church, Piety, Study, Sacraments, Action, Obstacles to a Life of Grace, Leaders, Study, and Evangelization of Environments, Christianity in Action, Life, Christian Community and Group Reunion and Ultreya. Each talk is followed by a discussion period during which participants may share their thoughts and questions on the topic of the talk. The Cursillo team is made up of lay people and clergy.

Oxford Motherhouse and St. Mary's Retreat House

On September 7, 2019, the leadership team from the Dominican Sisters of Peace, after much prayer, thought, study and deliberation, came to Oxford to announce that the Oxford Motherhouse and St. Mary's Retreat House will be closed within the next few months.

St. Mary's Retreat House has been a "home away from home" for many retreatants over these past 60 years!

Perhaps you are a retreatant, retreat director, promoter, prayer team member, or one of the many "dear hearts" who entered the threshold of St. Mary's to be forever changed.

Come share your memories with us at our Open House. Your reply before March 17th is greatly appreciated. You may reply by email, guardianangel1953@yahoo.com or call or text my cell 586-482-6092.

Many Thanks!

Zora, a retreatant since 1990

Prayer Corner—Prayer 101

By Alissa Ellett (Illustratedministry.com)

Pray Through Silence

Centering Prayer: Pray silently in this way to empty the mind and become open to God's presence. Young children can struggle to sit quietly and still since their bodies often desire movement and activity. Therefore, two to five minutes can be plenty for young elementary children to start with. Now, for older children, try up to ten minutes once they're acclimated to the practice. First, invite them to close their eyes and imagine that they are standing in a forest along the side of a stream. Second, explain that when a thought comes into their minds, they can imagine the thought landing on a leaf, floating down onto the surface of the stream and away until it's out of view.

Breath Prayer: First, choose a word or brief phrase to repeat in one breath. Now, if it's a phrase, say one part on the inhale and one part on the exhale. For example, invite your children to think in their minds or whisper to themselves Psalm 56:3. Next, on the inhale, think or say "When I am afraid." Then, on the exhale, think or say "I will trust you." Repeating breath prayers is a meditative practice that can be done with children of almost any age.

Scripture Prayer: First, choose a Bible verse and use it as a prayer to begin and end each day with your children. Try John 3:18, Psalm 46:1 or Romans 15:13. Additionally, it may be helpful to have it posted by their bed to read together.

Tell Us Your Prayer Ideas for Kids: We hope this has given you a few ways to pray with kids that help cultivate spiritual growth and connection. Also, how do you and your kids pray? We'd love to hear your ideas so feel free to pass them along to either Mike or Susan (see information below).
