Jesus Christ through growing in Faith, Service and Welcoming.
Parish Mission Statement

On the Easter Journey

+In the first reading today from Acts, two men dressed in white ask the disciples, Why are you standing there looking at the sky?

It might be safe to assume that the Apostles were overwhelmed by what they had just heard and seen. In a few short weeks, they had witnessed the torture and death of their beloved friend, who they believed was the promised Messiah. They were trying to comprehend - and believe - that He was no longer dead after seeing Him, touching Him, and eating with Him. And in today's Scripture, He tells them that He will send the Holy Spirit and that they will be his witnesses, not only to the Jews in Jerusalem, but to the ends of the earth. And then, He is lifted up, on a cloud, and disappears from their sight. Standing motionless, staring up at the sky - probably with their mouths gaping - seems understandable!

It is reasonable to think that the Apostles were still reeling from their thoughts and feelings about recent events. Matthew's Gospel confirms this. When they met Jesus in Galilee as He instructed them, they worshipped [him], but they doubted. Yet Jesus has confidence in them.

His response to the doubting Apostles is firm and immediate: All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded. He has total trust in the Father and in his plan for the world. He commends that plan to the Apostles. He entrusts his power to them to be his witnesses to all the world - to go and make disciples, to baptize them, and to teach them all He commanded.

But He doesn't leave them - or us - alone, staring up at the sky to question and doubt whether we can accomplish this great task. He remains with us as we accept and embrace his mission, guiding and empowering us through the Holy Spirit. He remains with us, nourishing us and sustaining us for his mission. He remains with us, teaching and encouraging us in the community He established - his Church, the Body of Christ.

Just as He entrusted the doubting Apostles, He trusts us to believe in Him and his mission - no matter what storms (or pandemic) come our way. Jesus trusts us to believe that He is the way, the truth and the life that leads and guides us until his return. And He trusts us to believe that He is with us - ALWAYS - until the end of time. Let us work to be his witnesses no matter what in our daily lives!

+By now, most are aware of efforts to restart public masses in our churches. BUT PLEASE BE AWARE OF THE MANY ASPECTS THAT HAVE TO BE ADDRESSED FIRST BEFORE THAT CAN HAPPEN. The staff team is busily working on those issues, and there will be STRICT guidelines that will need to be followed: things like wearing masks, where you can sit, controlled exiting, rules for receiving communion; limiting the number of people in church (probably not more than 150 or so) and not going back to a full schedule of masses so as to give time for cleaning in-between each mass. Please be patient with us as we fulfill all the requirements that have been placed upon us to make it all a safe experience for people. And remember, those who are weak and elderly, should not attend if you are feeling ill in any manner. We want people to stay healthy! Watch for guidelines that will be issued for our parish. And while we might not be happy with all the directives, PLEASE FOLLOW THEM!

I CAN'T TELL YOU WHEN WE WILL BE READY TO OFFER PUBLIC MASSES, BUT WITHIN A SHORT TIME FRAME. Details are being worked on daily; by the time you read this article, those times may be set, but I am writing early because of my tests on Tuesday earlier this week. Maybe things will be better set on Tuesday/Wednesday. There won't be mass every day, but a schedule will be published. As I am still not strong enough to do mass in public, we will work somethings out.

+My continued thanks and prayerful gratitude to all your support in this time of my recovery. By the time that you are reading this, I should have gone for my colonoscopy last Tuesday. Hopefully that will help shed some light on the overall health situation for me. I AM NOT CERTAIN WHEN I WILL RETURN TO THE ALTAR; AS THE SAYING GOES, FOR EVERY DAY IN THE HOSPITAL, IT'S A WEEK OF RECOVERY/REHAB TIME. That means there's still some time for me to go before coming back publically.

+Your continued financial support of our parish family is MOST appreciated. As we all struggle financially, we are working our best at the parish to keep an "even keel" as best as possible – and we can only do that with your sacrifices. My prayerful gratitude for your help!

+We continue to pray to our Lord for continued help during this time, and ask Our Lady, Blessed Solanus and St. Andrew for their special aid and protection and guidance. God bless us all! Looking forward to seeing you in church....!

The Ascension of the Lord

The Holy Spirit connects today's Scripture readings. In St. Matthew's Gospel, the evangelist shares when Jesus proclaims to His followers: Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. What a powerful message from Christ to evangelize. This Spirit of wisdom and revelation, stated in St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesian community, results in knowledge of the Father and Son. In this true gift of the Holy Spirit, we learn that evangelization is what we do and stewardship is how we do it. With the strength and guidance of the Holy Spirit, we, as faith-filled stewards, have unlimited ways to evangelize — to share our faith with those we meet. Seek out the Alpha and ChristLife programs in your parish to draw closer to Christ.

Reminders as we return to Church

Those 65 and older or with compromised health conditions or caring for the sick in any way are encouraged to remain at home. The dispensation from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass is granted to all the faithful through Sunday, September 6, 2020. As an act of justice to the whole community if you are not feeling well, have a fever, cough, etc. STAY HOME.

1. Wear a face covering/mask All of the faithful are reminded that those 2 and over MUST have a face covering from the time that they leave their vehicle until they return to their vehicle, with the exception of when they receive communion.
2. Follow Social distancing Please make sure that you maintain a six foot distance between yourself and others. Follow the directions of those who are seating you. Do not congregate before or after Mass.
3. Distribution of Communion Receiving in the hands is highly recommended. Use of personal hand sanitizer before and after communion is also recommended. Those receiving on the tongue will be asked to receive last.

I know that many people have missed the opportunity to be together to celebrate the Liturgy and I know that you have missed members of your church family and that there will be the tendency to want to say hello and “catch up” with each other. We are NOT at a point where we are able to do that yet. I know it may seem like we are placing all of these rules on you and you may not agree with them. The steps we are taking are to ensure your health and safety. We are beginning slowly and will adapt our times and procedures as the situation necessitates or allows. Your cooperation in following the procedures will help in maintaining the health and safety of all.

Saint of the Day – May, 29 Pope Saint Paul VI

Born September 26, 1897 in Italy, he was ordained in 1920. During World War II, he worked to find shelter for persecuted Jews and refugees. In 1954 he was appointed Archbishop of Milan and four years later was made a cardinal by Pope Saint John XXIII. He was elected pope on June 21, 1963. Continuing the work of his predecessors, he brought Vatican Council II to its completion and began many initiatives for the church and contemporary world. During his Supreme Magisterium, he favored peace, the progress of peoples, inculturation of the faith, ecumenism, and liturgical reform. He died at Castel Gandolfo on August 6, 1978.

The Ascension of Our Lord - Observed on the seventh Sunday of Easter or on the Thursday after the sixth Sunday of Easter

This feast is celebrated on the fortieth day after Easter Sunday and commemorates the elevation of Jesus into heaven by his own power in the presence of his disciples. It is narrated in Mark 16:19, Luke 24:51, and in the first chapter of the Acts of the Apostles.

In March 2000, the Catholic bishops of the Wisconsin province transferred the Feast of the Ascension to the seventh Sunday of Easter, one week before Pentecost Sunday. The Vatican, at the request of the bishops of the United States, granted permission for the date change, giving ecclesiastical provinces in the United States the authority to make the transfer. Observing the Ascension on the seventh Sunday of Easter allows for heightened celebration and an increased opportunity to educate people about the meaning of the feast.

COMMON PRAYER for the 5th anniversary of Laudato Si'

Loving God,
Creator of heaven and earth and all that is in them,
You created us in your own image and made us
stewards of all your creation.
You blessed us with the sun, water and bountiful land
so that all might be nourished.

Open our minds and touch our hearts,
so that we may attend to your gift of creation.
Help us to be conscious that our common home belongs not only to us, but to all of your creatures and to all future generations, and that it is our responsibility to preserve it.
May we help each person secure the food and resources that they need.

Be present to those in need in these trying times,
especially the poorest and those most at risk of being left behind.
Transform our fear and feelings of isolation into hope
and fraternity so that we may experience a true conversion of the heart.

Help us to show creative solidarity in addressing the consequences of this global pandemic.
Make us courageous to embrace the changes that are needed in search of the common good.
Now more than ever may we feel that we are all interconnected and interdependent.
Enable us to listen and respond to the cry of the earth
and the cry of the poor.
May the present sufferings be the birth pangs of a more fraternal and sustainable world.

Under the loving gaze of Mary Help of Christians, we make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen

ST ANDREW YOUTH

The Great Commission

Before Jesus ascended, he called his disciples together and he told them about their mission—go and make disciples, baptize and teach them to obey. Jesus had given them a job, to be His witnesses in all the world.

Every follower of Jesus has this as their mission. That means you and me! Sometimes we're afraid to go out because you may think it's the wrong time, you may not be ready, or you may not know what to say. Stop asking God—do you still want me to do this, do you still want me to go. Don't let fear control you. Remember that Jesus Sent us a helper—the Holy Spirit. He is always with us as we go out and do our mission. So, tell your friends about Jesus! As you spread the news to your friends and they pass it on to their friends, our Kingdom will grow.

We have a lot to do... better get busy! Go out and make disciples. Tell your witness story.

Rite of Christian Initiation Asking for Your Continued Prayers

Our RCIA Catechumen (Ryan) and Candidates (Jacqueline, Donna, Charlie, Adam, and Carl) have been diligently and spiritually preparing to enter our Church at the Easter Vigil. Unfortunately, they will have to wait until a future date that has not yet been determined. Please continue to pray for these individuals that God may give them the grace to continue to persevere in faith and this additional time of prayer and preparation will lead them into a greater joy when they finally enter into full initiation of the Easter Sacraments.

Memorial Day Prayer

God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen —from Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers

The Archdiocese of Detroit stands with the brave survivors who seek to bring the crime of child sexual abuse by clergy and other Church representatives into the light, where those who sinned are confronted and those who were harmed can find healing.

To those harmed by the actions and inaction of Church leaders: It is inexcusable and we are sorry.

In an effort to consolidate our resources and respond to the faithful's questions about clergy sexual abuse, the Archdiocese of Detroit has created a new "mini" website at protect.aod.org. This site highlights information about reporting abuse, victim assistance, investigations, training for clergy and lay employees and volunteers, and provides additional resources, including messages from Archbishop Vigneron. Our goal is to make this important information - already available on aod.org - more visible, transparent and clear.

What is Memorial Day?

Originally called Decoration Day, Memorial Day is a day of remembrance for those who have lost their lives in our nation's service. Though some form of Memorial Day has been celebrated in various areas of the country beforehand, Memorial Day was officially proclaimed by General John Logan on May 5, 1868 and was observed later that month on May 30 when flowers were placed on the graves of both Union and Confederate soldiers who were buried at Arlington Cemetery.

PANDEMIC PRAYER
 (from catholiccompany.com)

O clement, O loving, O sweet Mother Mary,
We, your children of every nation
Turn to you in this pandemic.
Our troubles are numerous; our fears are great.
Grant that we might deposit them at your feet.
Take refuge in your Immaculate Heart,
And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.
You are our Mother.
Pray for us to your Son.
Amen.
