Moving St. Andrew Catholic Community closer to Jesus Christ through growing in Faith, Service and Welcoming.
Parish Mission Statement

On the Journey Back into Ordinary Time

+Today – on this feast of the Baptism of the Lord - our Gospel reading has John the Baptist stating where he stands in relation to Jesus: One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. This is the scriptural foundation for our Christian baptism.

John was a humble man. He knew that he was not the Messiah, but he also knew that he was called to prepare the way for Him. He baptized the people in water, so that Jesus could fully baptize them with fire and the Holy Spirit.

The Church is born in baptism. In baptism, we're forgiven for all sins: original (and actual in the case of an adult catechumen). We are adopted into the family of God, and given sanctifying grace to live and grow in holiness. We are marked as Christ's own forever, and called to a life of holiness.

The tremendous blessing of this sacrament includes its grafting of each one of us to Christ, and its outpouring of the Holy Spirit into us such that we are then disposed to receive additional graces and blessings throughout our lives. These graces assist us in our journey to our final goal – union with Christ in eternity. Baptism cleanses and prepares us for life in Christ through the action of the Holy Spirit.

The calling and dignity given to us in baptism are not lost even if we turn away from the grace and blessings. This is why we never "re-baptize" someone who has fallen away and then returns to the Church. While baptism does not guarantee that a person will go to heaven after they die, it does mark them for Christ in a way that cannot be erased.

John the Baptist prepared people with water baptism. Jesus gave them life and the Holy Spirit. Our baptism is the first step in our lives as People of God. We are cleansed and marked, so that we can be filled with the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit and be used for God's glory. It is the beginning of our journey with, and to, Christ. It is the foundation of the other sacraments we receive, and it is by this sacrament that we participate in the full life of the Church. Our goal is to be filled with the Holy Spirit. Only in baptism do we receive the grace that makes that journey possible.

On this great feast which ends our Christmas season and moves us back into "ordinary time," may we realize the gifts we receive in and through the sacrament of Baptism – the responsibility of being Christ's disciples in our community and in our world today – unleashing the Good News message of Jesus and bringing his love and mercy to all those we meet on the journey!

+It is with prayerful gratitude that I thank everyone for their financial stewardship of our parish family over these past months, but especially as we brought the year 2020

FAMILIES of PARISHES PRAYER

Father in Heaven,
renew your wonders in our time,
as though by a New Pentecost.

Holy Spirit, increase your gifts in us to move boldly into Families of Parishes with confidence.

Deepen our desire for every person
to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as his disciples and
give witness to his love and mercy.
This is our mission!
And we embrace it anew.

Grant that your Holy Church in Detroit, praying perseveringly and insistently with one mind, together with Mary, the mother of Jesus, and guided by St. Joseph, St. Anne and Bl. Solanus Casey, may increase the reign of
the Divine Savior,
the reign of truth and justice,
the reign of love and peace.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord.

AMEN

On The Journey (continued from page 1)

to a conclusion. In particular, I thank you for your support of St. Andrew in the Christmas collection ($283,417 and still counting) as well as additional support of our 2020 CSA efforts (total pledges/donations of $500,488 against a target of $302,657 – giving us a potential refund of almost $198,000). We can make some additional progress on our building loan as well as getting caught up with other bills and repairs that have come up and needed immediate attention. Again, my heartfelt thanks to those who contributed!

+Remember to keep our young students – both in Religious Faith Formation and Holy Family Regional School - who are preparing to make their first reconciliation in your prayers. These second graders will approach the sacrament of Penance at the end of this month and the first weekend of February. May they come to experience God's bountiful mercy in a most special way!

+At present there are no new updates on which to apprise you concerning the "Family of Parishes" movement going on throughout the Archdiocese. Fr. Stan Ulman (St. Mary of the Hills), Fr. Gerry LeBoeuf (St. Irenaeus) and I have not had a chance to sit down and discuss the first steps to take. As information becomes available, I will update you.

+Some have asked me about the status of the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays. Again, I have no new news to report on this matter at this time. As it stands now, the "obligation" has been lifted through February 17, 2021. When any changes are announced, we will post them as soon as possible.

+It was great to see many of you in church over the holidays – some whom I have not seen since March! Please use your best judgment in attending worship in church: if you feel the least bit ill, please stay home and do not risk passing on whatever you may be struggling with. We need to all work together at trying to keep each other safe and healthy! My thanks for your help and cooperation.

Again, I wish to thank everyone who generously remembered me with a card and gift this past Christmas season; I feel truly blessed by your kindness! Stay safe & healthy, but work at trying to stay connected as best as possible. I look forward to the day when we can all be together in church again! God bless us all as we journey into 2021!

Baptism of the Lord

As is fitting, today's Scripture passages are linked by the common theme of "water." Isaiah, near the end of the Babylonian exile, prophesies, through the Lord, All you who are thirsty, come to the water! St. John proclaims in his First Letter, This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. In St. Mark's Gospel, the evangelist quotes John the Baptist in reference to Jesus before our Lord's Baptism in the Jordan River, I have baptized you with water; he [Jesus] will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. The Sacrament of Baptism is the "the gateway" to all the other Sacraments. This tremendous gift of Baptism forgives sin and it is here that Christ invites us, individually, to be His disciples. When Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts daily, are we willing to let Him in, to follow Him, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, profess His Truth to a world that needs Jesus? To learn about His Truth, sign up for a Bible Study at your parish or a class at Sacred Heart Major Seminary.

Baptism of the Lord / Ordinary Time

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, and with it, we bring to a close the Christmas Season. We return to Ordinary Time, which, may sound boring, but in fact is just the opposite. While Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter highlight aspects of the Paschal Mystery, Ordinary Time allows us to fully enter and embrace the Paschal Mystery. Our Sunday celebrations identify who we are as Catholic Christians. Nourished by the Eucharist, we are sent forth to proclaim to the world who we are and what we believe through our words and our actions.

In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist contrast his baptism of repentance with the baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John the Baptist says that he has baptized with water, but that the one who is to come will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John's baptism was not yet a Christian baptism; it was a preparation for the Christian Baptism we celebrate today, and through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received. In accepting John's baptism, Jesus, though sinless, united himself with all sinners.

The baptism of Jesus is considered an important manifestation of God in the person of Jesus, another epiphany. Jesus' baptism inaugurates his mission. Mark's Gospel moves quickly from the report of Jesus' baptism to Jesus' temptations in the desert to his ministry in Galilee after John's arrest. The end of the ministry of John the Baptist is the beginning of Jesus' ministry. In an analogous way, our Baptism inaugurates our mission as Christians.

Surprisingly, on this the last day of the Christmas season the Gospel does not tell a story from Jesus' childhood. Instead the Gospel reveals Jesus' relationship to God: the Son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. We believe that through Baptism we are also made children of God.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

January 18 - January 25, 2021

The theme for the 2021 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is "Abide in My Love...You Shall Bear Much Fruit." It was discerned by the Monastic Community of Grandchamp in Switzerland and finds its origins in the Gospel of John (cf. John 15:5-9).

In choosing the 2021 theme, the Community of Grandchamp desired to share the experience and wisdom of their contemplative life abiding in the love of God and keeping his commandment of "loving one another as He has loved us." They remind Christians worldwide about the importance of praying for the fruits of closer communion with our brothers and sisters in Christ and greater solidarity with the whole of creation.

"In these days of the Coronavirus threat, our world has become smaller," said Fr. James Loughran, SA. "We are one in our response. More than ever, we need to appreciate the value of Christian unity."

The traditional period in the northern hemisphere for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is January 18-25. Watch for more information regarding videos of the Daily Scripture, meditation, and prayer for the week of Christian Unity next week.

Prayer for Christian Unity

Gracious Lord, we pray for all the members of your holy Church, that all may abide in you and you in them, that they may be one in your love and bear much fruit.

We also pray for the world. That all may come to believe in your love for them by the fruit of our witness.

We know that our divisions are a source of scandal to your world, and we know that in love we are called to unite as one in the vine and branches. The vine is our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son. We are meant to be his branches. Help us we pray, to love, to forgive, to seek justice and to be your prophetic voice in the world. May your grace effect growth of good fruit among us, that our world may realize peace.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus, your Son and in the power of the Holy Spirit, One God for ever and ever.

Amen

Fear is so powerful it can paralyze us or, even worse, lead us to turn our back on the things and people that are most important. St. Peter knew this well, and in Mark's Gospel we learn how faith in Jesus can free us forever.

Please join us in reflecting on the Gospel of Mark presentation series entitled "Faith not Fear" presented by Dr. Tim Gray from the Augustine Institute. This 14-session series will provide a complete review of St. Mark's Gospel, using St. Peter's account of Christ's life and teaching. This presentation series gives us an understanding of the special connection with St. Mark as the translator and companion to St. Peter, our first Pope.

2021 WINTER OFFERINGS

Are you looking for something new this winter to stay connected to people? This pandemic has required us to remain isolated from our brothers and sisters in faith. Joining one of the following small groups is a great way to connect with parish members, whether it be remotely, socially distant at the parish, or a parishioner's home. We hope you will prayerfully consider which offering best fits your spiritual needs and maybe invite a family member or a friend to join you!

To find out more information, please visit the St. Andrew website under the tab "Learn" and "Adult Faith Formation" (<http://www.standrewchurch.org/adult-faith-formation/>), or watch the parish bulletin for more information regarding registration. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact: Susan Kowalski: susank@standrewchurch.org, or (248) 651-7846 (x105).

Baptism of Our Lord

Baptism is a beautiful sacrament in our Catholic tradition. When was the last time you attended one? It gives us the opportunity to welcome another into the faith community, and also renew our own baptismal vows.

The symbols are rich in meaning. Water is life-giving, and is used to signify cleansing and growth. Oil provides strength for the journey. A white garment is a sign of new life. A candle is given to light the way out of darkness.

The Baptismal day is special, but Baptism is not limited to just that moment when water is poured and the Trinity is invoked. It continues throughout our lives, calling us to live out our baptismal promises. The baptism of Jesus, which we celebrate today, signaled the beginning of his mission. We can consider our own mission to spread the good news and serve others as Jesus did.

As baptized disciples, we have the awesome responsibility of helping our loved ones live out their Baptismal promises. How can we do that? Put their Baptismal dates on your calendar and remember the day with a card, text or cake. Look at photos and tell the story. Pray together. Talk about how God has been present in your life.

Whether you were baptized as an infant, child or adult, you can be sure the event was filled with joy. Let us rejoice in the awareness that through Baptism we are all part of the family of God!

Blessings,

ST ANDREW YOUTH

Thus says the LORD:
All you who are thirsty, come to the water!

Isaiah 55:1-11

What are you hungry for? Thirsty for? Will it satisfy you? Probably not. It may only increase your desire for more.

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!
You who have no money,
come, buy grain and eat;
Come, buy grain without money,
wine and milk without cost! -Isaiah 55:1

Food and drink at no cost? Putting our faith and hope in things that don't last will never fulfill our desires, our longing, our hunger. We are invited to come and enjoy a special kind of food—actually more than just food. God is inviting you, he wants to satisfy your hunger. It comes down to your “Yes”.

The Lord God is the everlasting and mighty one. He has made a promise to us that will never fail. Food, drink and material things fade away, but God's promises last forever. If we follow Him, seek Him, and live for God's purposes and not our own, we will never be spiritually hungry and we will know what brings genuine peace. -Adapted from: ministry-to-children.com

Lord,
You are the Living Water that my soul needs.
May I meet You in the heat of my day, in the trials of life, and in my shame and guilt. May I encounter Your love, gentleness and acceptance in these moments, and may that Love become the source of my new life in You. Jesus, I trust in You.
Amen

HAPPY NEW YEAR

We're thrilled to be back together again, classes resumed on January 4th. We wish everyone a happy, healthy new year!

SCHOLAR ATHLETES

Congratulations to our Fall Scholar Athletes. Cheer: Ana D.; Cross Country: Elizabeth T.; Cross Country: Mark G.; Football: Tommy O.; Soccer: Maria S.; Volleyball: Alessa A. These students excel in academics as well as athletics and are leaders in their sport. They were nominated by their coaches and chosen by their teachers, our Principal Mr. Myers and Mrs. Hondzinski, HFRS Assistant Principal.

POLAR EXPRESS

Students in kindergarten enjoyed their Polar Express Day before Christmas vacation. What could be more fun than going to school in your pajamas and watching a great movie? Everyone heard the bells, it was a very exciting celebration for the children.
