Moving St. Andrew Catholic Community closer to Jesus Christ through growing in Faith, Service and Welcoming.
Parish Mission Statement

On the Journey

+ Too often, we define a prophet as one who sees into the future – a forecaster, or a psychic. But the biblical meaning of this role is someone who interprets the divine will. The prophet delivers God's message to his/her contemporaries and advocates for adherence to God's plan.

In the first reading, we encounter Moses, God's prophet who did marvelous deeds in fulfillment of God's will – leading the Israelites out of Egypt, giving them God's commandments, and leading them to the brink of the Promised Land. Moses relays God's message of another, far greater prophet: I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Further, God would hold accountable those who will not listen to his words.

And God did, indeed, send the greatest prophet of all – his Only Begotten Son. In Hebrew, the word for this anointed one is "Messiah." In Greek, it translates as the "Christ." The angels confirmed the arrival of this Messiah in their message to the shepherds on the night of Jesus' birth. The Father confirmed the anointing of Jesus at this baptism in the Jordan and again at his Transfiguration. When Jesus preached, He revealed what the Father wanted Him to reveal. Whenever Jesus spoke or performed healings, He did so in harmony with God's will: "His works and words will manifest Him as the 'Holy One of God.' (CCC 438).

In our Gospel, we read of one such instance. When Jesus was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum, the people were astonished at his teaching, for He taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. And that authority was further manifested when He drove out the unclean spirit from a man. The people were even more astounded that even the unclean spirits had obeyed Him. The Church continues to act publicly and authoritatively in the name of Christ. She exists to proclaim the Good News. In the name of Jesus, she calls down God's protection against evil in the rite of initiation.

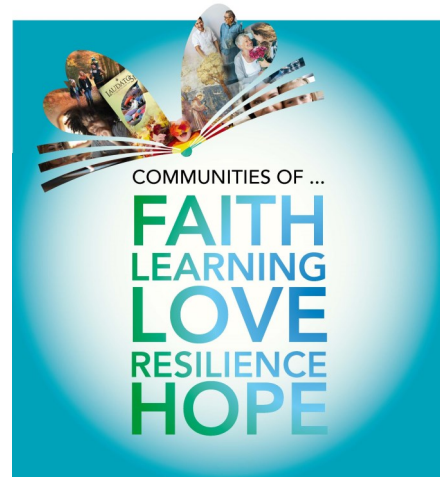

What is the lesson for us in all of this? Perhaps the clue can be found in today's psalm response: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95:7-8). We are constantly being bombarded with messages, with voices: from marketers and politicians; from friends and foes; from those who spew hate and from those who seek peace; from voices who want us to satisfy our own interests and from those who see the common good.

Let us listen to God's prophets. Let us focus on those who have God's words in their mouths. This will take prayer and discernment, but it is possible with God's grace. In the midst of all the noise, may we always be attentive to the voice of God!

+We continue to pray for our younger students who celebrated the sacrament of Reconciliation this weekend, and those who will be coming to receive the sacrament next weekend. May the grace of the sacrament fill them with trust, hope, gentleness and love!

+This coming week is the celebration of Catholic Schools Week across the country! We are certainly gifted with the presence of Holy Family Regional School on our campus (and as part of our Family of Parishes). HFRS is celebrating 40 years this year – what a profound statement of commitment to Catholic education by the many families who have been a part of this wonderful school over the past four decades! May the Holy Spirit continue to guide and guard Holy Family, and may we all support its endeavors in the years to come! Congratulations to the entire staff of Holy Family who make it the excellent resource that it is in our parish and our community!

+As we prepare for Lent, we will have 3 gatherings for the celebration of Ash Wednesday. Masses will be at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m.; there will be a Scripture Service at 4:30p.m. All these liturgies will have distribution of ashes (pandemically-distributed with Q-tip applicators!). During the season, we will also offer Stations of the Cross; Eucharistic adoration; and some additional times for reconciliation in addition to Saturday afternoons. There will be a “communal” penance service (similar to what we did during Advent); this time it will be hosted by/at St. Irenaeus Church on Old Perch Road. (Remember that they are one of the three parishes who make up our “Family of Parishes,” along with St. Mary and St. Andrew.) More info will be summarized and published in next week’s bulletin.

+I hope that you are taking advantage of one or more of the many opportunities for adult faith formation that are listed in the bulletin! I would guess that many – like myself – would prefer “live” bible studies, etc., but given the state of things, we don’t want you to be disconnected on your faith journey. Thanks to everyone helping us to keep these opportunities going through this time of pandemic!

+Parish contribution letters were mailed out this past week for families/persons who gave $250 or more during 2020. You can use these as supporting documentation for preparing your tax forms. If you have not yet received this letter, and believe you should have, wait just a few more days. If you still haven’t received one, then call the Parish Office and request your info to be sent to you. (Don’t know about you, but I was still receiving Christmas cards last week!)

+May we all let the Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to God’s graces so that we can grow in our relationship with the Lord! As we prepare to enter our Lenten journey in a couple short weeks, may we not let this time go by fruitlessly. Let us pray for one another and help each other stay safe and healthy. Please know that you are all in my special prayers; I ask you to keep me in yours!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s Scripture passage from Deuteronomy, Moses prophesies about a future figure that God will raise up from the Israelite community, from their own kin. Moses professes: to him you shall listen. In the Gospel from St. Mark, Moses’ ancient prophecy is fulfilled in Christ. It is Jesus, who speaks, heals, and drives out evil spirits with authority in the Capernaum synagogue. St. Paul encourages the Corinthians, in his First Letter, to commit themselves entirely to the Lord. As faith-filled stewards, we not only recognize Christ as the Great Prophet, but also support the bishops and others who observe and proclaim Jesus’ teaching — His Truth — and prophesy against moral relativism and injustices of our day. It is imperative to contact our governmental officials by telephone, email, or letter about laws or proposed laws that oppose Church teaching.

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

This feast commemorates how Jesus, as a baby, was presented to God in the Temple in Jerusalem. The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord is a combined feast, commemorating the Jewish practice of the purification of the mother after childbirth and the presentation of the child to God in the Temple and his buying back (redemption) from God. It is also known as the Feast of the Purification of Mary, and the Feast of Candlemas. It is also called the Feast of Encounter (Hypapante in Greek) because the New Testament, represented by the baby Jesus, encountered the Old Testament, represented by Simeon and Anna. Joseph offered two pigeons in the Temple as sacrifice for the purification of Mary after her childbirth and for the presentation and redemption ceremonies performed for baby Jesus.

Feast of St. Blaise

St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. For a time Blaise lived in the back country in a cave to escape persecution. He lived as a hermit, making friends with the animals and spending his days in solitude and prayer.

One day, a group of hunters discovered St. Blaise and seized him. As he was being taken to the governor, St. Blaise encountered a woman whose pig was being seized by a wolf; St. Blaise commanded the wolf to release the pig, and it was freed unhurt. While in prison, he miraculously cured a small boy who was choking to death on a fishbone lodged in his throat. Also, the woman whose pig had been saved brought St. Blaise candles so that his cell would have light and he could read the sacred Scriptures.

St. Blaise was executed in 316. From the two legends above came the popular custom of blessing throats on the Feast of St. Blasé. Two candles are crossed against the throat, and the following prayer is said:

Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Winter Reflection

Looking out my window one sunny winter day, I reflected upon my own experiences of winter over the years. Snow days, sledding, snowmen and ice skating in the park are fond memories. Outdoor activities allowed us to enjoy the frosty air and the beauty of nature; sparkling snow on a sunny day, the silvery outline of leafless trees, snow-capped pines. We could frolic without worry, because we had a warm house to retreat to.

Inside, when wind and snow blew against the windowpanes, we had a fire in the fireplace, snuggly afghans, and mugs of hot cocoa. A warm house and the love within it kept us toasty. (I conveniently forget all the times my car was stuck in my own driveway!)

Winter weather fluctuates, but our current temperatures remain very cold. Stay vigilant. Dress warmly. And keep in mind those who are cold this year; those without heat, without a home or without love. Warm those you care for in your embrace. Warm those who need it most in your prayers, asking God to bring comfort and peace into their lives.

Blessings, Maureen Schreffler
Director of Faith Formation

ST ANDREW YOUTH

People become famous for many different reasons. Some because they have power and influence. Others because they do something unique or newsworthy. The people who heard Jesus teach and saw him heal in today's Gospel were said to have been astonished and amazed by the authority of his teaching. So compelling were Jesus' words and actions that the news about him could not be contained; it spread quickly throughout all of Galilee. Two thousand years later, the news about Jesus continues to spread. We are all called to participate in sharing the Good News of Jesus with others in our words and in our deeds.

Jesus' actions demonstrated the power and authority of his words. This is what impressed the people who saw Jesus heal the man with the unclean spirit. In his words and in his deeds, Jesus showed the power and authority of God. Those who follow Jesus are also called to demonstrate God's power and authority by their words and actions. There is a saying that actions speak louder than words. Our actions demonstrate our faith in God. We are the face of God to others—how should we show that power and authority of God, how are we good Witnesses?

CLEAN IT UP!

Mrs. Ritchie's fifth grade students worked on an assignment called "Clean It Up" in science. They worked independently or with a partner to research ways that humans may damage the environment and ways humans attempt to reduce the damage afterward. They then had to choose one type of change caused by humans. Using their findings, they had to design a machine that would reduce human impacts on the environment or will clean up damage. Great ideas kids!

PRAYER TEAM

We are blessed to have twelve parents on our HFRS Prayer Team. These parents have volunteered and committed to pray daily over intentions sent weekly by Mrs. Kim Myers, our Campus Minister. Prayer requests come from anyone who submits a prayer through the "Prayer Intention" button on the front page of our school website. Other requests are sent to this team from our Campus Minister which relate to the needs of our school community. This powerful group calls upon the Holy Spirit and shares various prayers with each other such as Novenas for specific causes. The members of this group pray in their own homes but they have shared that they feel the strength of their team with them during their prayer time. The prayers gathered each week are also printed and laid in a basket at the Altar during our Friday school Mass.
