Parish Mission Statement

On the Lenten Journey into Holy Week

+This liturgical year, as we enter our holiest week, we read the account of the passion from the Gospel of Mark. In a few days, on Good Friday, we will read the account from John.

Among all the cruel and violent persons we hear about in Christ's suffering last hours, perhaps it is easy to overlook those who were kind. At Bethany, Simon the leper offers Him hospitality, and a (nameless to us) woman with an alabaster jar of perfumed oil anoints Jesus. Since Jesus will soon be executed as a criminal, with the possibility of no Jewish funeral rite or burial place, this was a tender moment of deep meaning. She put herself in danger to honor Him and his sacrifice.

In Jerusalem there was Simon of Cyrene who helped carry his cross, and Joseph of Arimathea who courageously asked Pilate for the body of Jesus and laid Him in a new tomb. All of these people, and perhaps more whom we do not know, were glimpses of light in a day of darkness. They were peace amidst the conflict; joy amidst the sorrow; celebration in the midst of tragedy. In other words, they are a sort of allegory to the hope of Easter that was present on Good Friday.

So why talk about this contrast, this dichotomy, today on Palm Sunday? Because this day itself is one of contrasts. Our liturgy, and Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, began with palm branches and songs of joy and praise for Jesus as King. He is welcomed into the city with shouts of Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! He will soon leave the city walls as the lowest of the low: a scourged, half-dead wreck of a man; a criminal set to be executed. In our Mass today, we will re-present his sacrifice, uniting our sins to those of the whole world and uniting our suffering to his. And in the midst of all the horror, we will celebrate, for Christ will triumph over all of sin and death.

There is a catchy little phrase that we might hear spoken of by Catholics – "we are not an either/or people, we are a both/and people." It generally means that we have the critical reasoning capacity, and the faith, to hold two things in tension without being confused. So, for example, Christ is both divine and human; the kingdom of God is both present and not yet fully realized; the Eucharist is both the appearance of bread and wine and truly Christ's body, blood, soul and divinity.

And specific to our celebration this Sunday, we are both an Easter people and we live in a Good Friday world. That is to say, we believe that Christ's death on the cross transformed all suffering and that by his resurrection, we have the promise of eternal life. But we live in the here and now, with all the suffering and evil still present in the world – a world in which we are called to be active witnesses to our faith.

Every moment of our lives gives us a chance to be one or other of the type of persons we encountered in the Passion narratives. With God's help, may we be like

Simon and the woman at Bethany, Simon of Cyrene, and Joseph of Arimathea – signs of hope in a world that cries out for it. May we truly live the Gospel and unleash it in our daily lives!

+Easter basket gift cards are due back no later than today (Sunday)! Thanks for the outpouring of generosity to help those around us who are in need to provide some meals during this holiday season. Your sacrifices are much appreciated!

+Holy Family Regional School is on break this coming week, and won't return until Thursday, April 8. Many of the public schools have a similar schedule with regard to spring break. If you are traveling out of town, please make sure that you are acting in a safe manner so you return to us healthy! (For those who may be leaving, I wish you a blessed and happy Easter – just a little early!)

+Please be attentive to the schedule of liturgies for this coming week. Holy Week is always filled with different celebrations that don't occur at other times of the year. (Remember, last year, we didn't celebrate these liturgies at the parish due to the shut-down/lock-down.) Be sure to take a bulletin and keep it handy for easy reference!

+Just a "heads-up" since time seems to be moving so quickly. This year's CSA will revert back to its normal time frame of being conducted in spring. Those who made pledges and are making payments on a 2020 commitment had your payment schedule reduced to fit in with it ending in May of this year, so the new campaign wouldn't really overlap (though it might seem to do so). More info to come later.

+This is our holiest week; it demands our attention and even more, our participation. Here is our opportunity to share in Christ's Passion - for it is the only way to share in his Resurrection! May our week draw us all ever closer to the Lord! Looking forward to seeing you in church!

Palm Sunday

Today, in St. Mark's processional Gospel passage, the evangelist describes Jesus' glorious and triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Christ's travel on a colt signifies that He is a different leader, not a Roman conqueror or king, but a Messianic King. He is a humble, suffering servant Who, as portrayed in St. Mark's Passion account, will sacrifice His life for all seeking eternal salvation. The prophet Isaiah proclaims how the Lord God leads and strengthens all those in difficult situations. St. Paul proclaims how Christ humbly emptied Himself, becoming human and dying for our salvation so God could exalt Him — that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend ... and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord! Do we, as faithful stewards, acknowledge God's tremendous gift of His Son by opening our hearts to a personal relationship with Him? Following Palm Sunday Mass, prominently display your blessed palms in your home as a reminder throughout the year of Jesus' invitation to a life of peace and joy with Him.

Holy Week

This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum—three days that are the highlight of the Church year. There are two Gospels proclaimed at today's Mass. The first Gospel, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus was hailed by the crowds as they blessed God and shouted "Hosanna!" This event is reported in each of the four Gospels.

At the Liturgy of the Word on Palm Sunday, the events of Jesus' passion are proclaimed in their entirety. In Lectionary Cycle B, we read the passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Mark. We will hear these events proclaimed again when we celebrate the Triduum later in the week. On Good Friday, we will read the passion of Jesus from the Gospel of John.

During Holy Week, we prayerfully remember the events of Jesus' passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and anew what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in his obedient suffering and dying, revealed himself to us as God's Son.

What does the word "Hosanna" mean?

Benedict XVI explains:

Originally this was a word of urgent supplication, meaning something like: Come to our aid! The priests would repeat it in a monotone on the seventh day of the Feast of Tabernacles, while processing seven times around the altar of sacrifice, as an urgent prayer for rain.

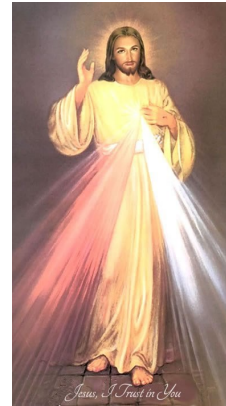

But as the Feast of Tabernacles gradually changed from a feast of petition into one of praise, so too the cry for help turned more and more into a shout of jubilation.

By the time of Jesus, the word had also acquired Messianic overtones. In the Hosanna acclamation, then, we find an expression of the complex emotions of the pilgrims accompanying Jesus and of his disciples: joyful praise of God at the moment of the processional entry, hope that the hour of the Messiah had arrived, and at the same time a prayer that the Davidic kingship and hence God's kingship over Israel would be reestablished.

First a word of Gratitude to everyone at St. Andrew who during this Pandemic has responded out of love, stepped up and got creative to help Baldwin Center with the bagged lunches and sandwich making.

As we pivot to a slow opening we are looking for people to join the wonderful volunteers in Christian Service who have been giving of their time and talent to help with Baldwin Center and others in Pontiac.

If you have helped in the past before the pandemic or interested in this ministry in the future we are gathering a list of names to volunteer and call upon. Please contact the Christian Service Coordinator—Drew so he can add you to the list of volunteers.

Thank you again.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

Palm Sunday was a happy time in the ministry of Jesus. It was a day of great jubilation at his arrival in Jerusalem. He rode in on a donkey, which symbolized coming in peace, as opposed to a horse, which was a symbol of war. The palms were symbols of peace and honor. But many people were expecting a political savior; Jesus came to be their spiritual savior. The crowds calling out "Hosanna" that Sunday were crying out "Crucify him" later in the week, a very sad time in his ministry.

May we keep this week holy with the offerings our parish has planned to help us draw ever closer to Jesus as we conclude our Lenten journey.

Blessings, Maureen Schreffler
Director of Faith

ST ANDREW YOUTH

Welcome to Holy Week

The Palm Pretzel — Why a pretzel? As the story goes, the pretzel is in the shape of arms folded in prayer. Pretzels can be a wonderful way to show the value of prayer. Have fun spending time with your family!

Baked Soft Pretzel Recipe

Sources: This recipe is adapted from homemade pretzel recipes by Alton Brown and Tasty.

Ingredients

1 ½ cups hot water
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon salt
1 package active dry yeast
4 tablespoons (½ stick) unsalted butter, melted
4 ½ cups flour (22 ounces)
10 cups water
2/3 cup baking soda
1 egg, beaten and mixed with 1 tablespoon of water

Instructions

Mix the water, sugar, salt, and yeast together in a large bowl. Let the mixture sit for five minutes, until the yeast starts to bloom (it should look like a layer of foam on the surface of the water). Add in the butter and flour, and mix until the dough is smooth like satin. Cover the bowl and let it sit until the dough is doubled in size, about 1 hour. Preheat your oven to 450 degrees F and spray baking sheets with oil. Boil water with baking soda in a large saucepan. Divide the dough into eight pieces. Shape each piece of dough into a 24-inch rope and then twist it into pretzel shape. Dip each pretzel in the boiling water for 30 seconds on each side before placing it on the sheet pan. Brush the pretzels with egg wash and sprinkle them with salt. Bake for 12–14 minutes.

Palm pretzel prayer

Dear God, we ask you to bless these pretzels which we are about to eat. Each time we eat them may we be reminded that this is Holy Week, a time of prayer. Help us to remember to pray for those who need our prayers each day. Keep your loving arms around us, O God, to protect us. In Jesus's name, Amen.

Other Holy week customs...

Housecleaning: When I was growing up Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week were always designated as days for housecleaning in preparation for Easter. But, with all the cleaning the hope was that there would be a personal cleansing and growth as well. This custom of spring cleaning to prepare the home for the greatest feast of the year is rooted in the Old Testament preparation for Passover, where no leaven was to be found in their homes.

Coloring eggs: Decorating and coloring eggs is a symbol of new life which comes with The Resurrection.

Easter lilies: The tradition of buying Easter lilies during Holy Week for use as decorations. The white flower is a symbol of purity and new life—The Resurrection of Jesus.

Blessing of Easter baskets: In many cultures, families bring food that will be eaten on Easter Sunday to church in a basket for a special blessing on Holy Saturday.

Blessings, Margaret Kozak

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

North Campus students dressed in green and worked on different projects like Trinity Shamrocks learning about the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Others made Pots of Gold and wrote what they would do if they found gold at the end of a rainbow.

FIRST GRADE MILESTONE

In first grade the common core skill is recognizing and counting numbers to 120 so we celebrated this very fun day in so many "120" ways! In science, Mrs. Marn's class predicted how much of the glass would be filled after adding 120 drops of water. Each child made a prediction, tested the experiment, and showed their results on paper. Mrs. Withrow's class filled out their "Bucket List" before they turn 120! Miss Torey and Miss Krol's classes made 120th day necklaces out of 120 Fruit Loops to celebrate.

BOY SCOUTS

The Cub Scout Pinewood Derby was a great success. The event began with a flag ceremony and the scouts were able to race their cars even if they attended virtually. Trophies were presented to the top finishers. Several design awards given out as well. We're very proud of our scouts!

SOCKS FOR A CAUSE

Students wore crazy socks on Friday, March 19th to celebrate World Down Syndrome Day. World Down Syndrome Day is marked each year on March 21, beginning in 2006. The 21st day of March was selected to signify the uniqueness of the triplication of the 21st chromosome which causes Down Syndrome.
