Moving St. Andrew Catholic Community closer to Jesus Christ through growing in Faith, Service and Welcoming.
Parish Mission Statement

On the Journey

+In today's Gospel, we see Jesus assuming a familiar role as a healer when He makes the deaf man hear. Indeed, Jesus' reputation as a healer is the reason the people bring the deaf man to Him; had their friend needed shoes, or some bread, we can imagine they would have taken him to a cobbler or a baker. But he needs to be healed from his deafness and speech impediment, so they bring him to the Healer.

When Jesus heals the deaf man, He is doing what God had long said He would do since the time of the prophet Isaiah: open the ears of the deaf and make the eyes of the blind see. For anyone who is aware of this prophecy and of Jesus' other healings, this is an example of Jesus "being Jesus" – He is doing what is "typical" of Him.

Jesus' healing of the deaf man may be something typical to us, but we know it was a great surprise to the crowd who were, as the Gospel says, exceedingly astonished. And what about the deaf man himself? We do not know if it was his idea to call for Jesus – if he had faith in this healer or not. All we know is that Jesus took the man away from the crowd, touched his ears, and with a sigh to heaven made him able to hear. Whether the deaf man anticipated his healing or not, this moment changed everything as he received what he needed from the Lord.

This Gospel may not be surprising to us, for we who have heard the other Gospel stories know that Jesus is simply being himself. He is doing the will of the Father, which is to bring healing. Yet if our familiarity with Jesus' healing power compromises our awe at this goodness, then we are in exactly the same position as the deaf man at the story's beginning. If we are not only unsurprised but also unmoved by this story, then we, too, are in need of being restored to right relationship with God, and we need healing to hear his voice again. The healed heart not only hears that Jesus is the healer, but runs to Him and begs for the help we need, that our families and friends need, that our world needs.

Thankfully, part of Jesus' mission – his being who He is – is to come to heal the deaf in body as well as restoring us to right relationship with God. He comes for us, whether we know how much we need Him or not, and He longs to give us what we need. The Lord's groans to heaven are for us – for you and for me – to be open to receive all we need from Him.

As we come before the Lord – especially at the time of celebration of the Eucharist – let us seek what we truly need. Our God is the God of healing, forever worthy of our thanks and praise for all the many blessings bestowed upon us all!

+Happy Labor Day weekend to everyone! We thank the Lord for the blessings of labor and the good that comes about from our efforts. May we always direct those efforts toward not just the good of ourselves, for the benefit of our community and society in general. Enjoy the holiday and remember to keep safe in whatever you are involved! Remember that Mass on Monday is at the normal 9 a.m. time; offices will be closed for the holiday, re-opening Tuesday for normal business activities.

+Back in 2015, the Catholic Church joined together with the Orthodox Church in recognizing and celebrating the “Season of Creation” – coming together to pray and work for the world that God has entrusted to us for our journey through time. It is a time when hopefully we grow in a deeper appreciation for this planet of ours, and the need for all of us to take action in caring for it. The Season began this past September 1st, and runs through to October 4th, the feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Please take time during these days to learn more about the care for this world that we all should have, and pray that we can grow in our actions to protect it for future generations to come!

+My prayerful gratitude for those who have come forward and supported our 2021 CSA; our recent totals reflect $424,518 in donations/pledges against our target of $347,814. Should all pledges be honored, we can then expect a refund of close to $77,000 to help with debt reduction for the buildings.

+Schools are to start this coming week, if they had not already done so. Our Holy Family Regional School had a “somewhat smooth” start, though we were surprised with the Oakland County mandate from the Health Dept. that all students, staff and visitors into the building during school time must be masked. I know this is a great debate....I too wish we were beyond this point in the pandemic, but as we all know, matters have gotten worse in some aspects rather than better. We are going forward in compliance with the directives (I have no real choice as pastor of both school and parish.) I want nothing but safe and healthy conditions for all of us, whether vaccinated or not. Let us continue to pray for an end to this pandemic, so we can get to some level of “normalcy” – whatever that may be! And remember, too, to pray for our medical people – doctors, nurses, medical support and first responders – who have been nothing short of heroic during this past year and a half helping us deal with this terrible sickness and conditions. May God continue to bless them and keep them safe and healthy! We thank you for the blessing you have been to the rest of our community!

+Remember to save September 28th, for our second Family of Parishes gathering at St. Mary of the Hills. It will start at 7 p.m., and go for about an hour and a half. This session will be an additional opportunity to meet our parish neighbors and to discuss/ share opportunities for activities we can do within our Family of Parishes. Our social will entail sharing some wine & cheese in our time of personal gathering.

+May the good Lord bless us in our labors! I look forward to seeing many of you in church!

Prayer for Labor Day

On this weekend, when we rest from our usual labors, loving Father, we pray for all who shoulder the tasks of human labor—in the marketplace, in factories and offices, in the professions, and in family living. We thank you, Lord, for the gift and opportunity of work; may our efforts always be pure of heart, for the good of others and the glory of your name. We lift up to you all who long for just employment and those who work to defend the rights and needs of workers everywhere. May those of us who are now retired always remember that we still make a valuable contribution to our Church and our world by our prayers and deeds of charity. May our working and our resting all give praise to you until the day we share together in eternal rest with all our departed in your Kingdom as you live and reign Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matthew 11:28

LIVING ROSARY

October 10 at 6:30pm

St. Andrew Parish will be hosting a Living Rosary. The purpose of the rosary is to help us meditate on the great mysteries of our salvation. In a Living Rosary, volunteers serve as a living bead of the Rosary and that person leads the prayer for that bead. 61 volunteers are needed to represent the beads of the Rosary and read the prayers. Volunteers will be accepted on a first come basis until all spaces are filled. Once the quota is reached, all others will be invited to sit in the pews and pray along with the rosary. Everyone is welcome and families are encouraged to attend this unique and memorable experience. Volunteers will be holding a battery operated candle to illuminate the rosary. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Cherry Iudiciani at 248-630-6616.

New Eucharistic Minister Training

Parishioners interested in serving as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at Mass who are in need of training, are invited to attend a training session. Two sessions will be offered in the Church on Thursday, September 16 at 10:00am or Wednesday, September 22 at 7:00pm. Please Contact the Parish Office to sign up for the training session you would like to attend.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and Children

How does one become Catholic?

Many Catholics are born into Catholic families and gradually come to share in the full Sacramental life of the Church. Others, previously baptized in other Christian Churches or never baptized, become Catholic through a process known as The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Children over the age of seven participate in a modified process, The Rite of Christian Initiation of Children. The Rites of Initiation of adults and children are the Catholic Church's way of initiating new members. At St. Andrew Parish we warmly welcome new members and attempt to provide an appropriate spiritual formation for each inquirer.

Who may participate?

Those never baptized as Christians. Those baptized in another Christian faith tradition now interested in the Catholic tradition. Those baptized in the Catholic tradition whose sacramental reception is not complete. Children over the age of seven who have not received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist or Confirmation.

How long is the process?

RCIA is not a class or a program but a process of conversion. It prepares one to embark on a journey of faith that leads to a lifelong commitment as a Catholic. All Catholics are called to daily conversion and renewal of our faith journey. RCIA stresses the need for a living experience of Church as a "people of God" and not just "knowledge" about the Church. A person's desire to turn toward God (conversion) and become connected to a community does not happen instantaneously, but takes time as the Holy Spirit nurtures the deepening desire within. The usual length of preparation is approximately nine months to a year. In most cases, the initiation of new members is celebrated at the Easter Vigil.

For more information on initiation of adults, please contact
Susan Kowalski at (248) 651-7486 x105, or susank@standrewchurch.org.

For more information on initiation of children, please contact
Barb Pacella at (248) 651-7486 x118, or barbp@standrewchurch.org.

Happy Labor Day Weekend !

"Labor Day pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers and is traditionally observed on the first Monday in September. It was created by the labor movement in the late 19th century and became a Federal holiday in 1894. " (History.com) Whether you are spending Labor Day up north, down south, or on your back porch, please take a moment to remember the workers in your life; parents working to provide for their families, the fast food working teenager experiencing their first job and paycheck, the administrators working behind the scenes to keep things running smoothly or the workers on-the-line, thankful their company is still in business. Employment is a privilege many yearn for...

Although Monday is a day off, I am grateful I "get to" go to work! I am also grateful for all the workers out there doing their best. Relax, enjoy and be extra grateful to those actually laboring this holiday!
~Barb Pacella

Lord, your love
knows no bounds.
Fill my heart
with gratitude
for the gifts you lavish
upon me every day."
Psalm 23; 1-6

St. Isidore the Laborer

I love a good saint legend, this was sourced from New Advent Encyclopedia

St Isidore was in the service of a certain Juan de Vargas on a farm in the vicinity of Madrid. Every morning before going to work he was accustomed to hear a Mass at one of the churches in Madrid. One day his fellow-laborers complained to their master that Isidore was always late for work in the morning. Upon investigation, so runs the legend, the master found Isidore at prayer, while an angel was doing the plowing for him. On another occasion his master saw an angel plowing on either side of him, so that Isidore's work was equal to that of three of his fellow-laborers.

Green for God: Planning a picnic sometime this weekend? Go green for God and skip the plastic! Bring your utensils and plates in a container, pack them up dirty and wash them at home. If that is not an option, check out the new eco-friendly products at Target and Gordon's Food Service. Last resort, plastic utensils can be washed in the dishwasher and reused again and again.

ST ANDREW YOUTH

to those who have
AN ANXIOUS HEART.
"be strong,
fear not!"
—ISAIAH 35:4

THOUGHTS FOR THE DAY

In your current situation if you are scared, anxious or fearful, take a moment and breathe—God sees what you are going through. He will come and save you. He wants you to hang in there and keep trusting Him. How do you show that you are hopeful and not fearful in your present situation today?

Some of us have experienced God's divine intervention in our lives. He has delivered us from some awful times. How and when could you tell others about His rescue?

Prayer

Dear God, I get tired sometimes and I know you see it. But the Bible reminds me to "Be strong, do not fear; your God will come, he will come with vengeance; with divine retribution he will come to save you." So I throw myself into your arms because I believe you will have my back always. Give me deep rest, stamina, courage and the strength I need to keep enduring the challenges in life. Help me run this race of life well for you. While I'm going through this challenge, and the next time things get tough. Give me ready words and the opportunity to speak of your marvelous grace, kindness and deliverance.

Amen

Season of Creation – LEARN to Care for Our Common Home

“The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of His hand” (Psalm 19:1)

There are many sources you can use to learn the causes and moral dimensions of harm to our environment. Just a few are included below:

One excellent source is the article prepared specifically for Michigan parishes by the Michigan Catholic Conference, “Care for Our Common Home - Reflecting on Laudato Si’”, this will be available as an insert in next week’s bulletin (September 12th). To access it online:

<https://www.micatholic.org/advocacy/focus/2020/on-care-for-our-common-home-reflecting-on-laudato-si.pdf>

Join a free online workshop to discuss the root causes of the environmental crisis and how we can be part of the solution. Columban Center for Advocacy and Outreach, “Planet in Crisis: What are the Root Causes and Solutions?” Sep 8, 2021, 8-9:30pm: To Register - - <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZlpf-igrDguHtPj8MD3VGlg9x1Y5zDmo0dl>

In 2006, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops helped form the Catholic Climate Covenant, to address growing ecological awareness and to implement Catholic social teaching on ecology within the US church. This site includes many resources, programs and opportunities to learn how to care for our common home. <https://catholicclimatecovenant.org/>

Fr. James Martin gives a short review of Laudato Si’, explaining the document is an overview of the environmental crisis from a religious point of view and it stresses how climate change disproportionately affects the poor. The Climate Literacy short guide presents information important for individuals and communities to understand earth’s climate, impacts of climate change and ways to adapt or mitigate. “Climate Literacy, The Essential Principles of Climate Science. A Guide for Individuals and Communities” https://downloads.globalchange.gov/Literacy/climate_literacy_highres_english.pdf

2021 Season of Creation Prayer

Creator of All,

We are grateful that from your communion of love you created our planet to be a home for all. By your Holy Wisdom you made the Earth to bring forth a diversity of living beings that filled the soil, water and air. Each part of creation praises you in their being, and cares for one another from our place in the web of life.

With the Psalmist, we sing your praise that in your house “even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young.” We remember that you call human beings to keep your garden in ways that honor the dignity of each creature and conserve their place in the abundance of life on Earth.

But we know that our will to power pushes the planet beyond her limits. Our consumption is out of harmony and rhythm with Earth’s capacity to heal herself. Therefore, in this Season of Creation, we pray that the breath of your creative Word would move our hearts, as in the waters of our birth and baptism. Give us faith to follow Christ to our just place in the beloved community. Enlighten us with the grace to respond to your covenant and call to care for our common home. In our tilling and keeping, gladden our hearts to know that we participate with your Holy Spirit to renew the face of your Earth, and safeguard a home for all.

In the name of the One who came to proclaim good news to all creation, Jesus Christ. Amen.
