Parish Mission Statement

On the Journey

+This Sunday's Scriptures teach us about the sacramental covenant of marriage and how it is a reflection of God's covenant with his creation. It's a preparation for the eternal union all of us hope to enjoy with God in heaven. In Genesis, we see that God created man and woman for one another, that the two may become one flesh. Just as Adam and Eve names all God's creatures, parents have the opportunity to name their children, a name by which they will be referred to in this life and in the next.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus quotes this same passage from Genesis when speaking about the unbreakable bond of marriage. When faced with the question of divorce, Jesus says it is the hardness of the human heart that brought about divorce, but the marriage bonds made by God can never be broken or undone. God never withdrew his covenant for Israel, no matter how unfaithful his chosen people became. Jesus tells us that, in the same way, we should never fail to love and forgive one another so the two who have become one in marriage may remain united until death.

In the Letter to the Hebrews, we heard that Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, helps us to become perfect through suffering. Married couples and parents bear crosses particular to their vocation, as do those who are not married or parents. If we can draw upon the grace of God to carry those crosses far, faithfully, and well for the glory of God and the good of others, then there is no offense that cannot be forgiven, and no wrong that cannot be made right.

Jesus reminds us to be childlike in our faith, accepting the kingdom of God like a little child so that one day we might enter into it. Children are quick to become angry, but almost as quick to forgive, forget, and move forward. The Lord reminds us to never lose and always cherish the awe and wonder with which children experience the world and others. That is where our faith can do the greatest good. Instead of seeing all that is wrong with the world, with ourselves, or with our marriages and our families, we can see what God sees through the eyes of mercy – the potential for holiness and greatness.

As Jesus said, what God has joined together, no human being may separate. It is the duty of each of us to see and serve Christ, for whom and through whom all things exist, by how we see, love, serve, and forgive one another. Then, as we recall how God's love for us in Christ has never failed us, we may draw strength from that to live in right relationship with Him and one another.

+As we move into October, we recall how this month is set aside as "Respect Life" month, a special time for all of us to reflect upon and give thanks for this precious gift of life bestowed on us. We pray in a most special way for an end to abortion. We pray, too, for a greater respect for life at all its stages – from conception to natural death. Euthanasia, human trafficking, human rights violations, and the many other atrocities degrade and disrespect this gift God has bestowed upon us. We need to pray, too, for an end to the violence we see in our communities and acts of terrorism throughout our world.

May we ask our Blessed Lady to intercede to her Son for us, as we honor her during this month of the Holy Rosary. And that leads me to remind everyone of a special parish rosary to be prayed on Sunday evening, October 10, at 6:30 p.m. May Mary help us in our task to keep ALL life sacred!

+We had our second gathering for our “Rochester Area Catholic Family of Parishes” (our new community name, by the way!) last Tuesday at St. Mary of the Hills. Since I am writing on Monday, I can only hope that the gathering went as well as our first session here at St. Andrew a little while ago. May the Holy Spirit continue to direct our efforts and guide us on this part of our faith community journey!

+Next week we will have representatives from Holy Family Regional School with us – to talk about the gift that this school is to our family of parishes and how we need support from the community at large. It will be the “kick-off” for their Annual Appeal. Let us show our support in realizing what a true “gem” this endeavor has been over the years!

+And speaking of “gems,” we have the start of our own Faith Formation sessions this week, starting on Sunday evening and then on Monday and Tuesday late afternoon/evenings. I want to thank Barb Pacella and her entire staff, and all the volunteers for their dedicated ministry in helping our young people grow in their faith and understanding of our religion. May God bless all of you on this year’s journey!

+At this point, my doctor has stopped the additional infusion treatments and kept me on the original infusion plan. I appreciate your prayers and support, as I do feel this health plan has been helping me. I must admit, though, that there are still days that have been, well, let’s just say “difficult” to manage, but that is part of the process at this point. Your prayers help get me through those tough days, and for that I am most grateful!

+Please be respectful of the sections of church set aside for “Masks & Social distancing” We are trying to keep everyone safe and satisfied with our fight against COVID-19 and your comfortability with attending Mass. The two sections of church marked off require that you have masks & socially distance yourselves. We don’t ask whether you are vaccinated or not in these sections. In the other sections of the church, we ask that you be vaccinated; whether you also want to wear a mask or not is up to you in these sections.

I ask that should you be diagnosed with the coronavirus, and had attended mass, please contact the office with the information as to what mass you attended and the area of where you were sitting. This way we can alert others to watch themselves for possible COVID symptoms.

It has been a huge task in trying to work with everyone through this time of pandemic; please help us keep each other safe! Remember, if you do not feel well, then stay home and help keep the community safe and healthy! It’s part of the “respect for life” that we should all be contributing to, not just in October, but always!

+I look forward to seeing you in church for mass – if health allow it! God bless you all!

-Msgr. Mike (with thoughts from FAITH Catholic Publishing)

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the framework of the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews: ... for whom and through whom all things exist through God, today’s Scripture readings from the Book of Genesis and St. Mark’s Gospel promote the common theme of sacred marriage. In the Gospel, Jesus, referencing Genesis, proclaims, God made them male and female. For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. It is clear from these Scripture readings that God’s blessing of marriage is the union between one man and one woman. This is God’s teaching on Christian marriage. It is this Scriptural Truth, this Church teaching, that faithful stewards must embrace to counter secular society’s law, which professes a false image of marriage. In this Truth, the Sacrament of Matrimony accomplishes its full Christian meaning and potential by strengthening husbands and wives to love and serve the Lord and one another. To enhance your marriage, consider attending a Marriage Enrichment Series or a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend.

LIVING ROSARY

October 10 at 6:30pm

St. Andrew Parish will be hosting a Living Rosary. The purpose of the rosary is to help us meditate on the great mysteries of our salvation. In a Living Rosary, volunteers serve as a living bead of the Rosary and that person leads the prayer for that bead. 61 volunteers are needed to represent the beads of the Rosary and read the prayers. Volunteers will be accepted on a first come basis until all spaces are filled. Once the quota is reached, all others will be invited to sit in the pews and pray along with the rosary. Everyone is welcome and families are encouraged to attend this unique and memorable experience. Volunteers will be holding a battery operated candle to illuminate the rosary. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Cherry Iudiciani at 248-630-6616.

St. Francis of Assisi

St. Francis was born in Assisi, the son of a wealthy merchant. In his youth, Francis lived a rich and easy life, but he wanted to be a knight. He went to battle seeking glory and prestige and was captured for ransom. During his captivity, according to legend, he began to have visions from God. After being freed, Francis returned a different man. Francis' conversion did not happen overnight. He spent more time in prayer and while at a small church in San Damiano, he heard God's call to rebuild the Church and live a life of poverty. Francis gave up his wealth in favor of a simpler life in Christ.

He began to beg and preach, attracting others who wanted to know how his life could be filled with such joy. His followers became known as Franciscan Friars. Francis practiced true equality, showing respect to everyone. Much is written about his love of nature. Francis felt that all God's creatures were part of his brotherhood.

His feast day is celebrated on October 4. He is considered the founder of all Franciscan orders and the patron saint of animals, archaeologists, ecology, Italy, merchants, messengers, and metal workers.

Those who will exclude any of God's creatures from the shelter of compassion and pity will deal likewise with their fellow man. – St. Francis of Assisi

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.

St. Andrew Senior Fellowship

(formerly St. Andrew 55+)

(The name change is a way of being consistent with the names of the other

Senior Fellowships in our Family of Parishes)

Membership News:

After nearly a year and a half of not meeting due to the pandemic, the Board of Directors is actively engaged in re-establishing monthly programs at St. Andrew with the possibility of shared activities with St. Irenaeus and St. Mary of the Hills. Because the Senior Fellowship Group is self-supporting, it is necessary to institute voluntary membership dues of $10 per person annually in order to accumulate seed money to fund up front expenses for various activities.

Details of Membership:

Non-dues paying persons will continue to be welcomed at all events. Since the Group will not be allowed to carry a balance into the next year, residual funds will be used, in part, to finance a picnic in May which will be free of charge to dues paying members. Non-dues paying Seniors will certainly be welcome to attend but at a nominal fee. An additional advantage of becoming an 'official' member will be advanced notice of events via the internet including those events requiring registration.

Please consider joining the Senior Fellowship so we can together build a stronger group for the Seniors of St. Andrew Parish!

Registration:

Please fill in the form below and mail to: Charles Kemler, 241 Reitman Court, Rochester Hills, MI 48307, or drop off at the Parish Office. Checks covering $10 per person yearly dues should be made out to St. Andrew Church, and write 'Senior Fellowship' in the comment line. If you have questions please call Charlie Kemler: (248) 651-1745.

Faith Sharing at Home

The things that we are most passionate about seem to seep into our daily conversation. Here is a great example; my husband has a huge love of fly fishing. He reads books, has learned to tie flies and even practices casting in the backyard. In the past 7 years I can honestly say some reference to fishing has been a part of our weekly if not daily lives. I'm sure you could apply this same type of devotion to other hobbies; golf, soccer and gardening to name a few. People dive deep into their pastime activities and want to share their passions with others, especially families and friends.

We all like to say, "God first, family second, then work etc. etc." However we need to put some thought into that ordered list. We should work at incorporating faith talk into our daily conversations. What does this look like? It can be as simple as a quick prayer before a meal...if breakfast is the only meal time together, pray then, it's not just for dinner. Practice prayers while your kids brush their teeth, or when they arrive home after school, wash their hands while saying the Our Father. One Catechist a few years back started her "high energy" class of all boys with a "plank and pray" ritual. Before they go to bed, ask them to tell you one thing they can thank God for today, then you share one too!

As a parent subscribe to a daily devotion via email, Instagram or Facebook. Then share the quotes, ideas and thoughts you glean from them with your family. Daily devotional books are a great resource also.

In addition to working your faith into daily conversations, it is also important to live it out. You talk about the importance of forgiveness then snub your grouchy neighbor. Guess what kids see? St. Francis of Assisi has the best quote, "Preach the Gospel often and when necessary use words." Children MUST see us acting out our faith. Our faith is meant to guide us on all our decisions from the products we buy, the way we treat a stranger, to forgiveness of a betrayal. Put God first, with conversation and deeds, then watch your faith grow.

I've listed a few of my favorite daily devotions you can subscribe to. ~Barb Pacella

ST ANDREW YOUTH

Letting Your Leaves Fall By Rachel Wojo

Autumn is a wonderful time to observe nature. As I watch the swirling leaves stirred by the wind, I am reminded that they display an important lesson for all of us to follow suit in a way. Just as the trees don't stubbornly hold on to their dead leaves, so we shouldn't hold on to any unnecessary weight in our lives. When we long to enter a new season, the old can easily inhibit the new if we allow it. God's Word reminds us to:

Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 4:31,32 (NIV)

To get rid of negativity in our lives, we must first identify it. How can we do this? By reading God's Word, by allowing His Spirit to show us the necessary heart changes we need, being willing to shun practices such as bitterness and anger and by asking God to help us let go of the guilt from the past. RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.

Season of Creation – NEXT STEPS to Protect Our Common Home

“Accordingly, as leaders of our Churches, we call on everyone, whatever their belief or worldview, to endeavor to listen to the cry of the earth and of people who are poor, examining their behavior and pledging meaningful sacrifices for the sake of the earth which God has given us.” Pope Francis, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, and Archbishop of Canterbury Justin, A Joint Message for the Protection of Creation made on September 1, 2021, World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

Pope Francis:

On the final day of the Season of Creation and Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi, October 4, Pope Francis will convene scientists and leaders of the world’s religions at the Vatican to draft a statement urging significant climate protection action from global leaders at the UN COP26 climate summit in November.

Pope Francis will also travel to Glasgow, Scotland, during COP26 to urge world leaders to take urgent action.

The Global Catholic Church:

Also on October 4, the Vatican is set to fully launch the Laudato Si’ Action Platform, a global initiative to place Catholic institutions large and small—including families, parishes and dioceses, schools, businesses and farms, religious congregations, and health care facilities, on a seven-year path to sustainability. The platform urges participants to create and implement action plans that address eight specific goals for better caring for our common home. See the platform website www.laudatosiactionplatform.org for more information.

Our Family of Parishes—St. Andrew, St. Irenaeus, and St. Mary of the Hills:

A Laudato Si’ Team is being formed to help our Family of Parishes take action to better care for our common home, including learning more about and working on the Laudato Si’ Action Platform together and more. Team members representing all three of our parishes are needed. Those interested in joining or finding out more are invited to contact Sister Grace Keane (gracek@smoth.org). Meeting days and times will be set to accommodate the needs of team members.

A Zoom conversation on the recent bulletin insert: Michigan Catholic Conference FOCUS: Care for Our Common Home— Reflecting on Laudato Si’ will be held on Tuesday, October 19, 7pm via Zoom.

Reporting Sexual Abuse

To inform the Archdiocese of Detroit regarding the sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons, and other church personnel and/or to speak to the Victim Assistance Coordinator, contact 866-343-8055. A caller will be requested to provide his or her name and telephone number. All calls regarding complaints of sexual abuse will be returned in a timely manner. This toll-free telephone number has been established as part of an effort by the Detroit archdiocese to protect children, young people, and other vulnerable people in our schools, parishes, and ministries. This line is for reporting suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within archdiocesan institutions and ministries only. Persons with complaints not involving clergy or church personnel should refer to the archdiocesan web site at www.aod.org for contact information for civil authorities.

PANDEMIC PRAYER
(from catholiccompany.com)

O clement, O loving,
O sweet Mother Mary,
We, your children of every nation
Turn to you in this pandemic.
Our troubles are numerous;
our fears are great.
Grant that we might deposit them
at your feet.

Take refuge in your Immaculate Heart,
And obtain peace, healing, rescue,
And timely help in all our needs.
You are our Mother.
Pray for us to your Son.

Amen.
